NEW YORK, Dec. 28, 1885.—To His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, Sandringham, England: Your Christmas message of peace and good will was deeply appreciated and had an important effect. The reaction is almost complete. Conscience has obtained the mastery over inpulse. The World thanks you for the wise and bold words spoken at so critical a time. It is also becoming to acknowledge with profound respect the eloquent and impressive message of concord and amity received by the World from Cardinal Logge, primate of ireland (who cabled from Rome); Cardinal Yaughan, archbishop of Dublin and Kildare; the archbishop of Armagh, the archbishop of Liverpool and Manchester, Mr. Gladstone and Lord Rosebery. It is hoped here that the logic of the unprecedented expression of kladiness of the greatest dignifiaries of the church and state may yet lead to the arbitration of a dispute so trivial that it could remain unsettled for seventy years. Surely among all the scholars, statesmen and rulers of the world there must be one who as arbitrator will meet this suggestion of Lord Salisbury that he should be "competent and free from bias."

The surest hope of lasting peace rests upon the enlightened moral sentiment which you have voiced, and which we feel shapes the course of sovernment in England net less than in America and continues the progress of civilization.

He says the Board of Trade and the two tel graph companies are about to enter into an arrangement by which the latter shall collect the information as to the state of the markets and connect their tele-graphic instruments only with such circuits as the Board of Trade shall designate. By this agreement, it is charged, a confedera-tion will be made by which the three defendants will establish a monopoly in the traffic of grain throughout the United States, and are endeavoring to make arrangements o that the Board of Trade can decide merchants in grain-at Chicigo and ther points.

Hitherto, the complainant says, the two elegraph companies made defendants have ransmitted information to him at his va ricus places of business. This has been very valuable to him, but he says that the companies refuse to supply him any further re-ports and threaten to discriminat against him in such refusal. For this reason he ceks the intervention of a court.

DARING ESCAPE OF A THIEF. Himself Down Hanged and Runs Away.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 30.-For several weeks past a big burly negro had been stealing all sorts of things from the butchers and hucksters at the union market house, but he always escaped arrest, and the tenants f the market house became exasperated over their losses. This morning the negro was caught while carrying off two horse blankets, and the cry of "lynch him" went up. A crowd of angry men selzed him, bound his wrists, put a rope around his neck and strung him up by a block and tackle hanging in the narket house. But the negro was a follow protruding from his mouth and his eyes bulging from their stekets, he made a violent struggle, broke the cord which bound his arms, and before the mob realized what he was doing, he whipped a big knife from his pecket, cut the rope round his neck dropped to the ground and ran like a deer. He was chased by the mob and overtaken, but he turned and with his big knife showed such desperate fight that the crowd halted and wavered, and the negro dedged into an alley and escaped.

This includes at least two prominent German republicans, who have claims upon the party and its leaders. John Grant and H. F. Cady, who had been running neck and neck, have been pushed aside for the benefit of the new favorites. Land Commissioner Russell, who spent Sunday night in Omaha, held a long conference early yesterday morning with the powers that be at Burlington headquarters, where he was also joined by John Clarke. Broatch's left bower, and George W. Covell. The outcome of that conference was another conference, in which J. H. Winspear, John Thompson and Lawyer Covell were the principal actors. The ultimatum was issued that the man to be appointed must be a member of the A. P. A. order. Preference was expressed for Chaffee, and Churchill. and Russell duly notified to govern themselves accordingly.

AGREED ON REORGANIZATION

Resolution Passed in the Senate by a Majority of Two.

ONLY ONE OF THE POPULISTS VOTED

Senator Harris Stirs Up a Running Debate on the Republican Responsibility-Lodge Discusses the Monroe Doctrine.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30 .- The committees of the senate today passed into the control of the republicans. The change in the political complexion of the committees was effected by the adoption of a resolution organizing the committees as agreed to by the republican and democratic steering committees. The populists, with the exception of Mr. Kyle of South Dakota, declined to vote, and the republicans, having a plurality of the senate, were thus enabled to adopt the resolution by a vote of 30 to 28,

Mr. Kyle voted with the democrats against the re-rganization. A two hours' debate followed the adoption of the resolution, the purpose of which was mainly political. The d micrats, under the leadership of Senator Gorman, ably seconded by Schator Harris, attempted to show that the reorganization was effected by an alliance between the republicans and populists, contending that the ST. LOUIS, Dec. 30.—Dispatches from silence of the latter by making possible the southern Illinois mention the heaviest snow reorganization, indicated acquiescence. He were in any fashion responsible for the re-

The republicans, under the leadership of Senstor Mitchell, chairman of the republican teering committee, and assisted by Senators Hoar, Hale, Allison and Chandler, combated the argument of the democrats by asserting mist emphatically that the populists had ever efused to make any suggestion as to their ommittee assignments, and had, as a matin the positions to which they had been assegned under the democratic control of the senate. The republicans protested also against being held responsible for legisla-

the reorganization, Before Lodge, who has made brilliant reputation as an historical biographer, delivered an address on the Monroe destrine. Although temperate in language, he took the ground that, unless we insisted that Venezuela's dispute with Great Britain be submitted to friendly arbitration, we would surrender the essence, spirit and vital principle of the Monore decirine, which he contended was as essential to the safety and welfare of the Americans as the balance of power to the safety and welfare of European nations.

Mr. Peffer, populist, of Kansas, pre-sented resolutions from several Grand Army of the Republic posts in Kansas, offering their services to the United States in the seent of war with Great Britain.

The clerk of the house announced the passage of the bond bill by that body.

Mr. Chandler, republican of New Hampshire, who had been waging war against the interstate Commerce commission for not outting a stop to pooling arrangements, in-roduced a bill to enlarge the Interstate ommerca commission and modify and inrease the scope of its powers.

Mr. Brice offered resolutions instructing he secretary of war to make an examinatio lakes and to report on the fea-

Mr. Chandler offered a resolution ca the committee on navai affairs to Inquire nto the prices paid by the United States for irmor plate; as to whether they were rea-onable; as to whether they were in excess of the prices charged foreign governments is to whether the prices had been increased by reason of new patent processes and whether the Navy department could ex-pedite the granting of those patents and whether any officers of the United States were interested in those patent processes.

LODGE ON THE MONROE DOCTRINE Mr. Lodge, republican of Masachusetts, then ook the floor to deliver an address on the donroe doctrine. Before he began Mr Mitchell, republican of Oregon, chairman of the republican caucus committee, gave notic that at the completion of Mr. Lodg marks he should ask the senate to take ne question of reorganizing the committees of the senate. A resolution off-red by Mr. Quay, republican of Pennsylvania, was dopted, directing the secretary of the navy of inform the senate whether in his opinion would be advantageous to the ervice to now contract for six battleships istead of for the two at present authorized n the basis of the bids now before the Navy epartment, modified as might be to the pub-c interest. Mr. Lodge's address was listened to with tention by the senate. He said: Mr. Lodge gave a very interesting sketch f the history of the Mouroe doctrine and told ow it was vitally involved in the Venezuelan ouncary line controversy. He followed this with a brief relation of the pending dispute between Great Britain and Venezuela, which he said had now reached a crisis affecting most gravely the honor, the intrests, the rights and the well settled policy of the nited States. If England, with no authority but a dis-outed claim, has seized the territory and delined arbitration upon it, her action, he de-lard, did not differ from seizing and holdng new territory in the Americas by right of conquest. If she could seize territory un-ler a claim which had grown larger with each succeeding year, there was nothing to prevent her taking indefinite regions in South America. The sensitor referred to be claim made on Venezuela by Great living harmonic for the authorities of the former country of British subjects on the disputed territory. But the question of reparation, he declared, must not get mixed up with the acquisition of ferritory. If Venezuela paid the indemnity fixed and in so doing that the disputed country is British territory and thus made the whole case void. We had, he continued, neglected too long our foreign policy and the great inter-ests of the United States which lay beyong her borders. We wanted the matter of the boundary dispute actiled by arbitration be-cause if it is settled otherwise it was a blow o a vital principle to the welfare and dignity of the United States. He did not believe the cople of England had the least desire to enfore than we sought or desired hostilities

NOT A RESULT OF ACCIDENT. "We have," said Senator Lodge, "seen British forces at Corinto. We know the at-titude they assume in Venezuela. They are sttempting to take land on the Alaskan boundary. They have just denounced the modus vivendi and reopened in that way the perilous dispute of the sea fisherics. It is not y accident that these events have all

The senator closed by expressing the belief that the questions between England and the United States would be peaceably sotlled; but it was very clear that such settlement ould only be reached by action on the part f congress and the president which should s as firm as it was temperate and which bould maintain the Monroe destrine absoutely and at all hazards wherever it justly
