

TEACHERS AT WORK EARLY

Selection of Officers Consumes Much of the Convention's Time.

RELATIONS OF STUDENTS DISCUSSED

Colonel Frank W. Parker Urges Educators to Study the Children Under Their Charge.

LINCOLN, Jan. 1.—(Special).—This morning the session of the Nebraska Teachers' association opened in the Funks opera house with the superintendent of the Nebraska City schools in the chair.

Following a violin solo by Miss Ina Esling nominations for officers were made for the ensuing year. The result was as follows: President, Superintendent Daer of Lancaster county; J. A. Collins, Fremont; E. Spink, Grand Island; D. C. O'Connor, West Point; secretary, Lillian U. Stoner, Valentine; W. R. Jackson, O'Neill; treasurer, J. F. Hesie, Arapahoe; and C. R. Atkinson of Fairbury. These were balloted for this evening in the new University library building, and the balloting will continue tomorrow afternoon, closing at 10.

Colonel Frank W. Parker talked on the "Interdependence of Studies." He said that the great work for him, as a teacher of teachers, was to get teachers to study children. From things around him, the child learns, and he studies these things. He learns from these environments by reacting on them. "We receive into the school the child full of activity. What, then, should a child study in school? We begin with geography because that is the subject that fascinates him on all sides. A knowledge of geography is the image of the part studied. It may be defined as the present appearance of the earth's surface. The creation is so new, so slightly yet surely the surface of the earth is being changed."

Putting geography first, Colonel Parker showed the relation and dependence of geography, mineralogy, meteorology, chemistry, botany, zoology and history—a knowledge of Geography.

BANNER CONVENTION DAY.

This was the banner day of the convention and five sections were actively at work, aside from the regular meetings of the association at the Funks opera house. The college section assembled in the State university library building, first floor; the county superintendents on the third floor, the high school section in the university chapel, the grammar school section in the State university hall and the primary section in room 12. At the section of the college section W. N. Filson of Hastings read a paper on "The Correlation of Studies in the High School and the University." He discussed the relation of the primary section in room 12. At the section of the college section W. N. THURSDAY'S SESSIONS.

The session tomorrow will occur at the Funks opera house with the following program: 9:30—The Doctrine of Appreciation, W. A. Clark, Perry; discussion, J. B. Sawyer, Lincoln. 10:30—The Relation of Individual Instruction to the Class, J. T. Murrey, Kearney. 11:30—Report of the Committee on the Revision of the Text-Books, J. F. Hesie, Arapahoe, chairman; report of committee on balloting; announcements.

NEW YEAR'S WEDDING BILLS.

WEST POINT, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special).—Adolph Krause and Miss Louisa Krause of this city were married this morning. Both bride and groom were born and raised in this city, their parents being among the oldest and wealthiest citizens. They left on their wedding tour this evening.

WRECKED A FARMER'S CARRIAGE.

FAIRMONT, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special).—James Withers and David Pollock, two farmers living southeast of town, came in this afternoon, driving a fine team of horses to a carriage. When opposite the Congregational church the swivel came out of the neckyoke and it the tongue and the team ran away, smashed the carriage and crippled one of the horses.

WOMAN HURT NEAR FAIRMONT.

FAIRMONT, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special).—Miss Carrie Hurd, a young woman residing two miles from Fairmont, was thrown from her carriage and seriously hurt yesterday.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

LINCOLN, Jan. 1.—(Special).—This morning Roy Long, a young man 18 years of age, was arrested on a charge of forgery. He was apprehended in connection with another youth named Pearl Fording. They are alleged to be interested in schemes to do up a number of spurious paper uttered by them and passed in said to be large. Three of the alleged victims are J. A. Buckstaff, Warner & Wolfanger and J. M. Lawson. The amounts run from $7 to $12. Equine boots are $2.50 felt lined and worth more money.

CALL FOR THE MEETING ISSUED

Small Producers Propose to Protest Against the Awards Being Paid the Bonny, Asserting that They Did Not Earn It.

FREMONT, Jan. 1.—(Special).—The committee in charge of the arrangements for the second convention of the Nebraska Beet Sugar association has issued a call for the convention, which is to be held here February 5 and 6, inviting the selection of representatives as follows: The governor of the state is requested to appoint twenty delegates at large, the State University, State Board of Agriculture, State Horticultural society, State Dairyman's association and State Federation of Labor, ten delegates each; mayors of cities, five delegates; villages, three delegates each; presidents of boards of trade and commercial clubs, five delegates; State Normal school, private and denominational colleges, three delegates each; labor organizations, farmers' institutes and granges, three delegates each, and irrigation societies or companies, three delegates each. Editors of agricultural and irrigation publications and editors of all newspapers in Nebraska, will be presented in the convention. An invitation is also extended to all present members of the general association meeting at various officials and members of the legislature to attend as delegates.

A program will be presented, with papers on the subjects of a scientific, theoretical and practical standpoint. The railroad companies have signified their intention of making a rate of one fare for the round trip. A call has been issued for a meeting of the smaller beet raisers, to be held here Thursday evening. These men feel that they have been discriminated against in favor of the men who have a larger acreage. It is currently reported that one of the objects of the meeting is to consider the matter of enjoining the state officers from paying the bounty to the larger growers. DELIGHTFUL PARTY GIVEN IN HONOR OF MISS NORA KARSTEN.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special).—At the home of the former's parents in this city last evening, Miss Anna and Mamie Sullivan gave a delightful party in honor of Miss Nora Karsten of Nebraska City, who is visiting with Miss Mamie Sullivan. The house was elaborately decorated with smilax and roses and with wreaths and vines reaching from point to point throughout the parlor, sitting room and library. Those present were: Misses Grace Stoutenbrough, Mable Swearingen, Lillie Lust, Alice Murray, Grace Britt, Minnie White, Mabel Unruh, Florence White, Jessie Oldham, Clara Green, Mamie and Anna Sullivan, Messrs. Charles Sullivan, Henry Weidmann, Henry Goss, O. K. Johnson, Lee Atwood, Henry Snyder, Frank Wiles, and W. W. Coates, while those present from abroad were: Miss Nora Karsten and Stella McLennan of Nebraska City, Fred C. Allen and sister, Miss Nora of Omaha, Dr. W. B. Elster of Arbor, Mich., Frank Slemeyer and A. W. Stator, of New York City (guests of Henry Weidmann), S. E. Arnold, St. Joe, Mo., and Walter Wagner, Detroit, Mich. Refreshments and refreshments furnished the entertainment.

YORK BUSINESS REVIEW.

YORK, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special).—All merchants of the city report a good trade for 1895 and assert it was much better than that of 1894. During the year there have been two failures in the city, and at the present time everything is bright for the future. The banks of the city, by their state statements, are shown to be on a firm footing and doing well.

ASHLAND NOTES AND PERSONALS.

ASHLAND, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special).—Judge Wheeler, whose time expires today as judge of the Fifth district, including Saunders county, intends to locate in Lincoln. He will open a law office there.

LOOK AT HIS FEET

That's where you get into his shape—every good-looking cop wears our policeman's shoe—a shoe that we had made up especially for men of his calling—waterproof—warm—easy-light. Not only the police of this city wear them, but men all over the west who are exposed to weather send us for them—felt lined, $2.00 and $2.50. The Equine boots are $2.50 felt lined and worth more money.

TAKE GOOD ADVICE

It is so much easier to sell than to touch that the wise merchant is willing to sacrifice profit rather than hold over goods. That's our fix exactly. We invoice exact and we will give you a big reduction on almost anything in the store between this and then. Now is your time for bargains.

WE'LL SELL THE TOWN

At $15 a hundred—Sportsmen know our reputation, but inasmuch as this price seems entirely out of keeping we will just say this, that they are the same shells that you regularly pay as high as $2.00 for—and let it go at that. Better buy in a supply while the price lasts—all our ammunition and guns are priced the same way for

STARTED A BOOM FOR BRADLEY

Friends Formally Enter Him in the Race

Enthusiastic Citizens of the Blue Grass State Meet and Pledge Their Support to Their Chief Executive.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 1.—A special to the Post from Frankfort, Ky., says: A convention of leading republicans was held in the office of Governor Bradley last night and the "Bradley boom" for president was started. This was the theme and the toasts to the governor were full of happy New Year's wishes for his political preferment in the year 1896. Yearly congratulations and best wishes were extended to the governor as the republican candidate for president of the United States, by forty prominent republicans from every congressional district in Kentucky, who called by agreement on that official last night.

Among those present at the meeting besides Governor Bradley and some twenty other gentlemen whose names are not known, were the following: Judge A. H. Anderson, Hopkinsville; Major A. T. Wood, Mount Sterling; J. W. Langley, Frankfort; J. B. Marcus, Jackson; General J. E. H. Henson, Greensburg; Ed Parker, London; Lieutenant Governor W. J. Worthington, Lexington; E. J. Schree, Henderson; Charles Blanford, Breckinridge county; Edward Parley, Paducah; J. H. Harty, Mayfield; E. T. Pranks, Owensboro; G. M. Brooks, Carroll; and George Darbo.

When some of his friends urged him to go into the senatorial race, the governor repeated with vehemence that he was not in the race and would not be. Further than this, he was good news to the various senatorial candidates. Messrs. Hunter, Wilson, Holt, Debo, and others. They will now be left to fight it out among themselves.

STROMSBURG, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special Telegram).

This was a gala day for the people here, as the new year was celebrated in a most enjoyable manner. The city was decorated with flags and bunting, and a general good time was the order throughout. The most interesting feature of the day was the singing of the national anthem by the school children, which was led by the superintendent, Rev. O. Babcock, who was the leading spirit in organizing the school twenty-three years ago, and has held the office of superintendent during all the intervening years. What is, perhaps, more remarkable, unless on account of extra preaching services, the school has nearly missed a session during that time, and has an average attendance of about 130 members.

FULLERTON OF REV. MR. PILLBURY.

FULLERTON, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special).—The funeral services of the late Rev. Mr. Pillsbury were held this afternoon at the Methodist Episcopal church in this city. Dr. Tindall, the presiding elder of this district, assisted by Rev. R. M. Henderson of Bellevue, officiated at the funeral. It was the largest funeral ever held in this city. The church would not accommodate half of the people who came out to pay their tribute of respect to one who was loved and honored throughout this entire community. The Grand Army, the Masonic society, the Ancient Order of United Workmen organization and Knights of Pythias turned out in a body to honor the departed. During the funeral service the banks and all the business houses in the city were closed, and flags were displayed at half mast from the court house, Grand Army of the Republic building and the school building. The funeral home was received from Lincoln and Oskaloosa, Ia. In the death of Dr. Pillsbury Nance county has sustained a severe loss.

THROWN FROM A MOTOR CAR.

UNIVERSITY PLACE, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special Telegram).—Dan Clark was thrown from the rear platform of a motor car shortly before noon today, sustaining what is reported to be a fatal injury. He boarded a crowded car for Lincoln and lost his balance when it went around the first curve. A great gas was cut in his head and he suffered concussion of the brain. He has a wife and seven children.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair and colder, with northwesterly winds for Nebraska. WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The forecast for Thursday is: For Nebraska and Iowa—Fair and colder; northwesterly winds. For Kansas—Fair and colder; northwesterly winds. For South Dakota—Partly cloudy, with occasional showers of snow; colder; northwesterly winds. For Missouri—Fair; colder in the northern portions Thursday; much colder Thursday night; winds becoming northwesterly.
