When possible, procure a tank of oxygen gas from the nearest drug store, and after improvising a cone, place the tube over the mouth and nose while the gas is issuing. It is a powerful stimulant to the heart's action under cer-tain conditions, and will aid respiration."

GREAT POWER FROM CULM.

One of the most interesting and important conomical problems of the century, says the illustrated American, is about to be solved, and a practical solution of what seemed a hopelessly stubborn mechanical difficulty promises to give a source of power no way inferior to Niagara falls. Two or three years ago the state of Pennsylvania appointed a commission to investigate the possible uses of the enormous quantity of culm or coal dirt that has been accumulating in the anthruchte regions since the first mines began to be worked. This commission lately reported that the accumulation of culm amounted to 35 per cent of the total output of the coal mines, making 315,700,000 tons of apparently wasto material. It is estimated that from this tremendous pile of coal dust, that has kept on growing since the mines have been in operation, there could easily be evolved an-nually 1,100,000-horse power. The Pennsyl-Catarrh. vania commission has been convinced by actual tests that this culm can be trans-formed into a portable and convenient form of Mr. Starken says: fuel called eggettes by the manufacturers, and, of course, once this part of the problem solved, the rest is easy. By a process, prob-bly patented, the coal dirt is combined with rude petroleum, pitch and some other matirial, and the resulting product makes an excellent heat producer which is readily converted into electrical energy. The Pennsyl-vania commission recommends that the state acquire the rights for putting the culm to the valuable uses of the eggette processes and points cut that in the Scranton district alone the annual contribution to the culm bank, now regarded as clear waste, can be turned into 75,000-horse power every year, an energy nearly equal to that supplied by 4 the famous electrical works whose motiv power is furnished by Niagara fallo.

NEW ELECTRIC RAILROAD SYSTEM. A new system of electric rallroad, which combines the advantages of the trolley and storage battery system, has now been practically tried in Hanover, which was the first o adopt it. Accumulators are provided beneath the seats of the car, and charged curing the time the car is traveling on the trolley

oad, receiving current through the same feed wire as the trolley. When the end of the trolley line proper is reached the car continues on the track which heretofore had been used by a horse car line, relying for power absolutely upon the electricity stored in the accumulators during the trip over the trolley road. These electric cars are now being used all over the city of Hanover, although the former electric trolley line was introduced in only a small part of it. This system solves ner, and seems to have a great future in fournal by an engineer named Mueller, but his idea is to use the stored electricity on MODERN SPECIALTY PRACTICE.

A GREAT PUBLIC NEED SUPPLIED BY DRS. COPELAND AND SHEPARD.

Low Fees and Competent Service a Means of Genuine Help to All-Read the Evidence Offered Today

Drs. Copeland and Shepard take it for granted that no man of eye and intellect will buy a horse or a jewel because the price is low, or employ a lawyer or doc-tor because the fee is low. A horse that has crazy spells and runs away with the family carriage—a crooked watch that is price is low, or employ a lawyer or doctor because the fee is low. A horse that has crazy spells and runs away with the tor because the fee is low. A horse that has crazy spells and runs away with the family carriage-a crooked watch that is always causing accident and calamity by giving the wrong hour of the day-is a ecstly and dangerous acquisition at any price. If a dishonest or blockhead lawyer serves you at a dollar a week, only to lose and lot-or if a specialist undertakes the cure of some frightful chronic malady at 50 cents a week, and you presently dis-cover that you are only being poisoned by a mountebank or butchered by a brute-in either instance the 'low fee'' is simply an offer made by a fool or a trap set by a scoundrel. And yet, though low prices and low fees are often used as the means of imposition and theft, they are oftener the means of a genuine help to all. The cable gives every man a fast carriage at 5 cents an hour. Science has made the electric candle cheaper than a pine torch, and has also made the correct diagnosis and correct than the old and less enlightened methods. Drs. Copeland and Shepard simply leave the merit and worthiness of their labors to be determined by the great public of Omaha, before whom they have stood so long, and to that great community of suf-ferers to whom, in a professional capacity, they are and have been so closely related. These physicians announce the expense of the treatment they provide-let their pa-tients pronounce what the merits of that treatment really are. THE $5.00 RATE.

The Effect of Catarrhal Polson Upthe Stomach as Given by a Well Known Omehn Man.

Mr. George Spangler, 2716 Howard street, city, is the credit man for McCord, Brady & Co., the wholesale grocers. Speaking of his relief and cure from the horrors of dyspepsia, he says:

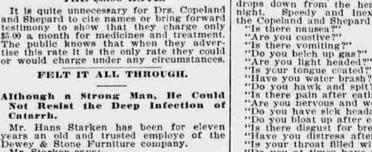

"Catarrh of the stomach nearly ruined my digestion for several years. Almost immediately after eating I would have a duil, heavy pain in the stomach and bowels, as though filled up with lead or putty. The food would lie on the stomach without digesting, causing discom-fort, distress and often nausen. A number of physicians tried to help me, but none of them seemed to hit it until I began with Drs. Copeland and Shepard, and they cured me? I have never had a sign of stomach trouble since I finished the course."

tain control of the new line which connects this system with the Cleveland Troll ys. Certain trolley companies in northern New Jersey have undertaken to carry freight, and are meeting with some opposition. It is announced that these companies intend if thy shall be permitted to use their road for this purpose, to bring "garden truck" from the farms to the markets of Jersey City and New York. The cost of transportation by wagon and horses is quite burdensome, and this charge, it is said, can be reduced by 75 per cent if trolley freight cars are us d. Last summer one of the Hartford suburban rolley companies carried baggage in cars usid exclusively for that purpose, and the owner of the largest peach orchard in New England shipped his fruit to the city in the cars of another suburban road. The Times predicts that we shall hear more by and by about the transportation of freight of various kinds on electric lines now used only for passenger traffic.

ELECTRICAL ACCIDENTS.

The Paris correspondent of the St. Louis Hobe-Democrat furnishes some interesting etails of experiments conducted by the Academy of Medicine as to the best means of resuscitation from heavy electric shocks. The appalling number of accidents claiming many lives of brave workmen and dutiful officers in the service of electrical in-dustries and institutes thad long been a subect of public discussion in France; there was apparently no hope for stopping the terrible slaughter, as all devices invented to forestall accidents proved as useless as the known means for preserving life in the victims of shock.

Finally the minister of public works sought to solve the mystery by commissioning the Paris Academy of Medicine to fully investigate the matter and try to devise some practice of saving the lives of persons affected by electric shock. The professional gentlemen were especially demanded to recand capable of execution at a moment's notice and by any intelligent person on hand.

The academy selected a committee of electrical experts to report on the case and the committee began its labors under the presievening to the girls whom she chapter of the ocean as an authority in all matters connected with electricity. Threw Out the Stove.

There came near being a destructive fire yesterday morning at A. R. Woodford's printing office, over 419 Broadway. A gasoline stove was burning, with a pan of water over one burner. The water dripped on the flame and extinguished it, but the gasoline went on running. The puddle thus formed soon caught fire from the other burner. A young Wirt, man picked up the stove and threw it bodily out at the back window. His hands were considerably burned. The room was damaged by the smoke, but it was to the young man's rts that a much greater damage was avoided.

The Dawson, murderer of Walter Scott, was to have been arraigned today in police court on the charge of murder, but was unable to be taken from the jail to the court room. He has been fast failing in health, and it is doubtful if he will ever be well. He still maintains that he remembers nothing of the events for two weeks prior to the time he was placed in jail, including the murder. The police locked an officer in his cell over night recently, and it is understood Dawson confided enough in him to disprove this assertion.

TWO SORTS OF ELECTRICAL DEATH. Dr. D'Arsonval first explains that electricity occasions death of two different sorts: (1) by the disruptive and electrolytic effects of the discharge, causing injury or destruction of the tissues; this death is final; (2) by arrest of respiration and syncope Tom Farnsworth, Frank Mc caused by excitement of the nerve center In the latter case there are no material injuries and death is merely apparent. both cases the shock may be of the nature termed "heavy." "Heavy shocks" have heretofore been gen erally considered "sure death," on the supposition that the current produces a contract ion of the arteries through its influence on the nervous system, and that this causes or overpowering impediment to the flow of the blood which the heart is unable to overcome.
