COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL

Pacific Character of European News Caused a Dull Market.

GOOD DEMAND FOR CASH WHEAT

On the Rentising and Short Selling Which Followed Wheat Went of a Fraction.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10 .- The more pacific character of European news had its effect on the markets today and they relapsed into the condition of duliness prevailing before the war scare. Wheat closed %c lower than yesterday. Corn and oats lost 4c and the respectively. Provisions cult from 214c to 714c off, compared with last night.

to 719c off, compared with last night.

Consols were higher, giving evidence that the British public at least di-l not anticipate any very serious trouble; as the war talk has been the principal prop of the market this had a depressing effect and there were liberal liquidation and short selling. The forthwestern and primary receipts were also generous, specially the northwestern deliveries, which are more than double what they were a week ago. There was indica-tion, too, of liberal gold shipments. On the realizing and short selling which followed ,the market went off %c from last night's close. But there was a good de-mand for cash wheat from country millers might's close. But there was a good demand for each wheat from country millers and for export, which caused some reaction. The market was also strengthened some by a London dispatch which said that it was estimated there that the recent bad weather in Aregnilne had reduced the export suppus from that country fully 8,000,000 but, and that no more would be shipped this year than last. May sold early at 50%c, sold off to from 50%c to 50%c split, up to 50%c, down to 50%c and at noon was 50%c. The market was strengthened some during the last hour by some sensational war news which set shorts to covering and May sold at 55%c, but eased off a fraction and closed steady at from 50%c to 50%c.

Corn was slow. The short interest has covered so freely during the past few days that there was not much demand from that line, and with some indications of larger interior deliveries there was more disposition to sell. May sold early at 2%c, weakened to 25%c, and railled to 25%c, closing at that figure.

Oats were quiet and easy, governed somewhat by the course of corn and the tamer feeling in wheat. May sold from 19%c to 19%c split, to from 19%c to 19%c split, closing steady about 19%c.

Provisions started very weak on the unexpectedly larger hog receipts. A good demand sprung up at the decline with which the wheat market opened and more than half of the loss was recovered before the end. May pork, which closed yesterday at $9.52%, rested at $9.52%, or loe decline for the day. May lard left off at a decline of 5c, and May ribs at a reduction of 7%c. Estimates for Saturday: Wheat, 33 cars; corn, 510 cars; onts, 180 cars; hogs, 37,000 head.

Condition of Trade and Quotations on Staple and Fancy Produce. The long continued mild weather has brought in a flood of country eggs, and the result is that the market, after holding steady at 18c for some tirms, has broken baily, and it is hard work to tell just where eggs will sell before there is a change. While a few eggs went yesterday at 17c, it is not safe to quote above the figure given below.

GENERAL TRADE NOT IMPROVED.

Complaints of Poor Collections Everywhere Except in the Sonth.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Bradstreet's comorrow will say; General trade has not improved appreciably. Some wholessale houses are sending out travelers, while others have not completed taking account of stock. Mild weather at western points has interfered with business in some instances, and the wesk continues to present instances, and the wesk continues to present instances, and the wesk continues to present instances and the wesk continues to present instances on a part of the impression is general that uncertainty as to impression is general that uncertaint dismayed by the unexpected launching of the 1100,000,000 government bond issue as a popular subscription. The principal element of disturbnace was the idea that the period of thirty days allowed for the closing of the subscriptions would afford opportunity for further depiction of the gold reserve and the development of other unsettling factors. It was observed that while the public was taking no interest in speculation, affel that the hope of a hooming tendency which a sale of the bonds to the Morgan syndicate might.

The Evening Post's London cablegram says: There was a continued improvement on the stock markets today, but on bears covering and an absence of further disturbing political news, rather than on definite favorable news, Americans rallied with the other markets, The close was under the best. There is no public support in any of the markets certainly not in Americans. The expected gold to arrive by the Lucania will go to the Jank of England. There is no sign yet of the Morgan syndicate buying gold. There was a rush today to deposit Reading bonds. Especially noticeable was the number of deferred income longer deposited. HOGS-Salesmen did not have everything their own way as they did yesterday. The weak close in Chicago yesterday and the lower provision market made itself felt today. The buyers started out this morning bidding ‡3,59, but very few loads were sold at that price, the trade eventually developing into a $3.55 market. It was at this latter price that the bulk of the hogs sold, ‡3.55 being the popular price today as well as yesterday. There were, knowever, very few sales above that price, only one load touching $3.59, while yesterday there was quite a string at $1.57\cdot 3.50. This brought the general average of the market down a shade from yesterday's average price.

The market was active, the demand on the part of the packers being good, and everything was said out early. Representative sales;
