WAITING FOR WEYLER. HAVANA, Cuba, Jan. 19 .- (New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—It is This lack of encouragement, accompanied by believed here, although it is not officially the lack of support from the national governannounced, that General Weyler will be the next governor general of Cuba. He is and renders the chances of success probsmall, active and keen. While governor general of the Phillippine islands he was nicknamed "The Ferret." His military repu- been given, in the belief that Mexico, in its tation, gained in the former, is familiar. He will require some time to make preparations to reorganize the forces. Therefore, nearly a month of comparative quiet may be anticipated. M canwhile the insurgents continue to move about the country, and General Marin's army will endeavor to cor-

A skirmish took place in the Sanfelipe dietrict, but the loss was trifling. About 500 were engaged on each side. Colonel Garble commanded the Spanish troops. The country along the line of the Western railway is swarming with small bands.

Complete calm rests over Havana. Gen eral Marin, who was summarily pushed into the high office until lately filled by General Campos, has filled some places, and is looking about preliminary to making appointments for the remaining ones. Receiving compliments from visitors and officials has taken a great deal of his time. General Campos, free from official cares, received many vis itors today. This afternoon there was a long consultation of leaders of the home rule party. It is improbable that anything exciting will occur soon, as General Marin is not a man to indulge in sensations.

Cubans Expect a Different Policy from Campos' Successor.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 .- Senor Palma, the representative in the United States of the Cuban revolutionary party, speaking of the superseding of Campos, said: "This action by the Spanish government was not wholly unexpected, General Campos is one of Spain's most famous commanders, and at the beginning of the revolution he beasted that in a few weeks, and at most but a few months, he would surely crush out the rebeilion, but now, after eleven months, he has been obliged to shut himself up in Ha-vana, unable to cope with the adroitness and skill of the commander-in-chief of th and sail of the commander-in-chief of the revolutionists. The Spanish government thinks that by the substitution of another general it will meet with better success. General Campos' withdrawal from command. General Campos withdrawal from command, in my opinion, is because the officials at Madrid considered his treatment of the Cubans too humane. They want a policy of more cruelty pursued, and this they hope to have the new commander to carry out, thinking thus to force a people struggling for their independence into subjection. No general and nothing short of independence can quell the Cubans. Their strength cancan quell the Cubans. Their strength can-not be weakened, and 200,000 men would be put into the field tomorrow if they could be armed. It seems to me, and I believe that it will also appear to the American people, that the mere fact o Spain's being pelled to change generals at this time uld demonstrate the strength of the revolutionists and hasten the time when the United States will recognize us."

King of Saxony, General Blumenthal and Others Were Not at the Palace Celebration-Germans Say it Was Without Significance.

LONDON, Jan. 20 .- The Berlin correspond. ent of the Times, in the course of a long special article recalling the splendid enthuslasm of the victory of 1871, says: "Can it be said the heart of the German nation responded yesterday with the same enthusiasm or that in many minds the splendid memories of the past were not to some extent d'mmed and marred by disappointed expectations and uneasy apprehensions?

"The death of two emperors has made room for a povereign of a strangely different type, of whom all that can be safely said is that in this year of his age and the eighth of his reign his chief characteristic is his youth."

The correspondent then proceeds to refer to the absence of Prince Bismarck, the king of Saxony, the grand duke of Baden and General Blumenthal from the fetes, and, reviewing the internal troubles and menacing outlook abroad, he says: "Few Germans can look forward without apprehension to the issue of the great conflict upon which it is suniversally felt the destinies of this young empire still hang. Washington Endeavorers Preparing Themselves for the Convention. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The fourth annusl convention of the local Christian En- | Finance and the Monroe Dectrine Likely to deaver union closed this afternoon with an overflowing mass meeting in Central hall. Enthusiaem has run high during the past few days and Washingtonians look upon the event as a forecast of the interesting international convention, to be held here in July national convention, to be held here in July next. Every society in the district was represented at the sessions, and a very large number of the city's clergymen occupied platform seats. The first meeting was held Friday evening, and included an address by President B L. Whitman of Columbian university on "The Kingdom—An Ideal—An Obligation," and also a stirring talk by Rev. Wayland Hoyt, D.D., of Philadelphia on the subject, "Soul Winning."

Saturday's sessions opened with an early morning prayer meeting in the First Congregational church, which was attended by a large number. In the afternoon at the same

The churches will be kept open during the entire convention and here the delegates will receive their mail and find in many ways home comforts. The committee expects that at the lowest calculation, 60,000 delegates will be harie. His death was the result of an attack of typhoid fever.

Bernhardt Gillam Succumbs to

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Jan. 19.-Bernhardt Gillam, the noted cartoonist of Judge, died this morning at the home of his father-inlaw, ex-Senator James Arkell of Canoja-His death was the result of an attack of typhoid fever.

Bernhardt Gillam was an Englisman by birth. When he was 18 years old his family came over and settled in Brooklyn, where Gillam went to the public schools he announced himself as a serious painter, and in due time exhibited a dramatic picture in a Brooklyn gallery. All Brooklyn went to see this marvel, and all Brooklyn laughed. Even Gillam's friends poked fun at him. He went into a lawyer's office as clerk, but before the end of the year he turned to art again, and as a portrait painter had a feeble success. He saw clearly the caricature and the cartoon were his gifts, and began to try to force an entrance into the weekly papers. His first work was for Frank Leslie's Weekly. He soon made a member of the staff of Harper's Weekly. His position as a cartoonist was established. From Harper's he went to Puck, and there drew the cartoons which gave him his reputation. The first of these, the "Tatooed Man," will be remembered by all who remember the Blaine campaign of 1884. He left Puck to join with J. Arkell in establishing and building up Judge. He became a partner in the firm, the firm name being Arkell & Gillam.

WEEK'S WORK FOR CONGRESS

Occupy the Senate.

SILVER BILL HAS THE RIGHT OF WAY

Appropriation Bills and Cuban Affairs Will Furnish the House with Plenty of Work-Two Appropriation Bills Ready.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.-The present indications are that the time of the senate will be divided this week between the discussion of finance and the Monroe doctrine, the latter being bared upon the Davis resoshort address.

By far the most enthusiastic meeting, however, was the raily of the international committees held Saturday evening in Central hall. Every seat was occupied, and scores of people stood up. The meeting was addressed by President Clark and by Mr. John Willis Baer, general secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, both of whom a came from Boston for the average of the united Society of Christian Endeavor, both of whom all other meetings are that the consideration of the bill will not be concluded when the end of the week is reached. No vote will be secured until the Utah senators take their scats, but it will come soon after that time. The silver substitute is the unfinished business, which fact gives it precedence over all other matters each day after 2 ciclosk. the probabilities are that the consideration to the house in some shape. The committee on foreign affairs has as yet proposed no resolution on the subject, but there are many indications that the whole question will be considered in the house before long. The urgent deficiency and military appropriation bills, which are ready, go to make up the regular work of the week.

The kite adopted for the purpose is of cellular construction, without the old-fashioned tail, and has a remarkable power for lifting. It is intended to carry up to this great altitude various observation instruments, barometers, thermometers, hygrometers and other like instruments, which will automatically record the conditions of the atmosphere above. Prof. Moore feels that the weather service has now reached a satisfactory state, so far as concerns predictions of winds, their violence and tempers, but the weak spot that remains is the prediction of rain. Accordremains is the prediction of rain. According to his theory a vast improvement in accuracy in this respect can be obtained by the air far above the earth, and he expects to ascertain this by means of these k'tes.

DESIGNS FOR SHERMAN'S STATULE None of Them Exactly Satisfactory to the Committee. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 .- The secretary of war, the commanding general of the army and the president and secretary of the Army of the Tennessee and the Sherman statue committee of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee met as a committee at the War department yesterday, for the consideration of the competitive designs submitted for an equestrian statue of the late General Sherman. The committee was unanimous in its action, selecting four of the sketch modele for further elaboration and the future judgment of the committee. Those selected are: P. W. Bartlett of Paris, Carl Robl Smith of Chicago, C. H. Niehaus of New York, No. 8½; J. M. Rhind, New York. As the fifth competitor, who is to receive one of the $1,000 premiums for merit, H. K. Bush

The committee finds that while the exhibit is a very interesting one and the models as works of art of great credit to American design, still it was not satisfied that any one of the exhibits designated the character of General Sherman, or really grasped the individuality of the man. It therefore selecter four of the best models with a view of further elaboration under the committee for future competition, the three finally unsuccessful to receive $1,000 each for merit and $250 each for additional labor.

UNRULY PUPILS KILL A TEACHER.

Resisted Pedagogue's Attempt to Chastise One of Them. DREXEL, Mo., Jan. 19.-Henry Foust, eacher of Prairie View school, five miles northwest of here, died last night from injuries which were inflicted upon him by two of his 16-year-old pupils. Foust, it seems, severely punished Arthur Bishop for some misdemeanor in school. Young Bishop's father was so angered by it that he gave lather was so angered by it that he gave a knife to his son and instructed him to use it in case the teacher attempted to punish him again. The next day the teacher started to whip the boy and the latter tried to carry out his father's instructions, but the knife was knocked from his hand. At this point another boy, Earl Dunington, interfered and assisted Bishop in beating and kicking the teacher into inseaschility. Fourt kicking the teacher into insensibility. Fourt was carried to his boarding place, where he lay for thirty-six hours in an unconsclous condition. Last night he died from spinal injuries sustained in the school house fracas. The boys have not yet been arrested. There has been trouble in the district before on account of unruly boys, but never with serious results, as in this case.

SPORTS WERE DENIED ADMISSION. Mother Barnum Enforced Her Edict with a Shotgan.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Jan. 19.-This morning about 2 o'clock five Fort Wayne sports, while out for a time, called at Mother Barnum's road house and raised a disturbance. Mrs. Barnum ordered them away and slammed the door in Frank Chanvey's face slammed the door in Frank Chanvey's face and his nose was almost torn off. The boys then forced the door in and Mrs. Barnum seized a shotgun and fired down the hallway toward the boys. There were five separate trails of blood from the house on the anow, and it is supposed that every member of the gang was wounded. Chanvey has an ugly wound in his side, which may prove serious. One of the gang named Bailey got fifteen shot in his right leg. Charles Balley was wounded painfully in the hip. The physicians in charge of the other two young men refuse to reveal their identity. Mrs. Barnum has not been arrested. not been arrested. .
