

CITY COUNCIL CANNOT DO IT

Dejected from Letting Printing Contract to Paper Designated.

HAS NOT THE REQUIRED CIRCULATION

Matter Decided by Judge Keyser Yesterday—Old Contract Stands Until Another in Property Awarded.

Judge Keyser, sitting in chambers, yesterday morning granted a temporary injunction, restraining the city from attempting to carry out its attempt to give the city advertising to the News-Republic.

"A court of equity," the judge said, "has the right to examine into the facts and find if the jurisdictional facts upon which the council acts are true.

The court also stated that if the committee of the council had relied upon the affidavit of one Jasper, as to the circulation of the News-Republic, the council was grossly and criminally mistaken.

The temporary injunction was made permanent and the Bee declared the official newspaper of the city until a contract is made with a paper having the circulation required by law.

Criminal Cases for Trial.

The county attorney, in speaking of the order of trial at the next term of court, said that he would first take up a number of small cases in which the defendants were in jail, and would try to clean the jail out as much as possible.
