This position on the part of the legislature means death to all the small and helpful associations, or so restraint worth mentioning to the dangerous ombinations of capital at the business cen-ers. The adoption of the building and ioan regulations provided by the code commis-sioners will not permit the county associations to long continue in operation. Condi-tions ingeniously injected into several sections will certainly do them up if enacted into iaw. Now we do not insinuate that this is the intention of the commissioners. Our own opinion is that they have in good faith ac-cepted suggestions without realizing their practical application. It will be a mistake amounting almost to a crime if the general assembly shall assent to the strangling of the local building and loan associations."

A rate of one fare for the round trip has been secured on a number of the railroads on the certificate plan. Each member of the encampment will present, his railroad cer-tificate to the assistant adjutant general for the latter's signature at the same time the member receives his credentials. This railroad certificate, countersigned by the as-sistant adjutant general, will entitle the holder to his return ticket. The roads that have agreed to this arrangement are the souri Pacific, St. Joseph & Grand Island and the Union Pacific in Nebraska. The encampment proper will convene on wednesday. February 12 in Creistion hall
