BILLY WAS A BURGLAR ALSO.

Bright Witted Strong Bored Goat Has a Place in the Police Court.

A large two-story frame building in the western part of the city, once used as a warehouse, but more recently as a carpenter shop and mission church, has been broken open repeatedly and in such a way as to lead the owners to believe that burglary was the object.

The investigation showed that it was a large healthy and extremely shrewd William goat who had been using the building as a lodging house. The goat had often been noticed prowling around the place, and one early rise in the neighborhood of the goat coming down the street at daylight.

The goat was finally caught by the police. The goat was taken to the police station and is now in the hands of the police.

PRESIDENT HAD GOOD SUCCESS.

Found Good Duck Shooting and Pleasant Weather.

QUANTICO, Va., Jan. 29.—The lighthouse tender Maple, bearing the president and party, comprising Dr. O'Reilly, his physician, and Captain Lambertson, naval inspector of lighthouses, anchored two and a half miles south of here at sunrise this morning.

The party are the guests of Colonel Webster Waller, whose duck feeding grounds and numerous blinds are reported to be among the best along the Potomac river. The members of the party were astir early. Shortly after their arrival their decoys were set and they began an onslaught on the ducks.

The sport continued for almost two hours, when low tide necessitated a postponement until afternoon, when the sport was resumed. During the morning hours the party are reported to have killed fifty ducks. The weather was delightful and the water very calm.

The president went ashore during the forenoon and spent some time in consultation with his host, Colonel Waller. The latter accompanied the president aboard the Maple and joined with the others in shooting the game.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—President Cleveland, accompanied by the party, reached Quantico, on the Potomac river, about 9 o'clock tonight. The return journey was made on the lighthouse tender Maple. TAKES CARE OF THE RICKERS

Speaker Byers Increases His Committees to Include Some Dissatisfied Solons.

NUMBER OF COMMITTEE CLERKS LIMITED

House Attempts to Induce the Senate to Take Care of the Rickers. Falls-Long List of Bills Rushed In.

DES MOINES, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Speaker Byers has succeeded in placating a large number of the disappointed solons in the lower house by increasing the membership of the more important committees. A number of members mainly from the northwestern part of the state have been placed on the nine or ten leading committees.

Mr. Spaulding of Floyd was added to the committee on ways and means, in place of Mr. Lander, excused. Mr. Ladd of Butler, Funk and McQuinn were made additional members of the committee on insurance.

The committee on appropriations was increased to nineteen and Morrison of Grundy and Thompson of Fayette were appointed as additional members. Mr. Parker of Mills was placed on the committee on agriculture, and there are other changes in minor committees.

The house indulged in a little blythe yesterday in regard to the appointment of a large number of additional committee clerks. It will have a tendency to call a halt to the proposed employment of a large force of typewriters and supernumerary clerks in the upper branch of the general assembly.

Mr. Spaulding of Floyd introduced a resolution in imitation of the action of the senate, providing that the chairman of every standing committee should be authorized to employ a clerk, who should be paid out of the appropriation by the house on the ground that the representatives were entitled to the same privileges and immunities as the senators.

The senate held a very short session and but little business of general importance was transacted. Bills were introduced appropriating $150,000 for the completion of the asylum for the insane at Cherokee and for the purchase of additional ground for the asylum. Carroll introduced a measure providing for a system of peddlers' licenses.

BILLS COMING RAPIDLY. This has been "chill day" in the lower house, nearly 100 being introduced. Among the more important are the following: By Allen—To regulate beneficiary associations, a measure drafted and approved by the recent fraternal congress; also appropriating $1,000 for a portrait of the late Iowa governor, John W. Baker.

By Baker—To prevent adulteration of candy, also regulating transfer of stock of corporations when under collateral security. By Bell—Authorizing cities to purchase additional land for sewer outlets and to pay for the same out of the sewer or general fund.

By Crow—Appropriating $25,000 for the purchase and removal of the dam across the Des Moines river at Bonaparte; also requiring all private banks and associations doing banking business in Iowa to examine the returns by state bank examiners. By Doubleday—Making price of real estate, every kind of personal property, also to provide for the adoption of the Torrens system of transferring titles to land.

By Early—Providing for the nomination of county judges by primary elections, and to punish frauds in conducting the same. By Finch—Raising the age of consent to 16 years.

By Garner—The "Comaway" bill to regulate building and loan associations; also prohibiting transportation on public highways of live swine, and of animals from herds afflicted with cholera. By Griswold—Establishing a training department for men and women who are employed in the coal mines of Iowa.

By Hummel—Authorizing civil townships to build halls for public purposes. By Johnson—Declaring February 22 to be a legal holiday. By McArthur—Providing for the manufacture and sale of spirituous, malt and vinous liquors.

By McDowell—Creating an insurance department, providing for the appointment of an insurance commissioner by the governor, at a salary of $2,500 per annum. By Mitchell—Establishing a law to provide for the construction of a bridge across the Missouri river at Sioux City; also providing for the appointment of a board of commissioners to regulate the manufacture and sale of liquors.

By Morrison of Grundy—Prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquors. By Morrison of Grundy—Making false statements, "otherwise known as lying," a criminal offense. By Tibbitts—Authorizing the manufacture and sale of malt, spirituous and vinous liquors for medicinal purposes.

By Smith—Prohibiting combinations among the insurance companies in fixing rates of insurance. By Van Houten—To regulate practice of dentistry. Among the large number of petitions presented was one signed by many prominent citizens of Clinton county, asking for legislation prohibiting the employment of moderate drinkers or tipplers by railway companies in any capacity.

Rumors of Hoarding at Creston. CRESTON, Ia., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—It is rumored here that the Creston Water Works company, which recently defeated the city in a case involving $70,000, is endeavoring to use boodle to prevent the appeal of the case to the supreme court. Embassies of the water company attempted to purchase Alderman Brewster, who publicly warned the taxpayers and it is now thought other aldermen have been approached. The fact that some of them were reported to have changed their minds in regard to appealing the case has caused some suspicion and aroused the taxpayers, who will be out in force at the regular council meeting demanding appeal.

Embarrassed Cashier Convicted. SIOUX CITY, Jan. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—W. B. Lyle, the defaulting cashier of Ingersoll and West Sioux city commission man, was today found guilty of embezzlement. His default was discovered a year ago, when he fled to Kansas City and engaged in business. A month ago he was apprehended and brought back.

ALL WILL BOOM SENATOR ALLISON. Iowa Republicans Arranging for Delegates to National Convention. DES MOINES, Jan. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Iowa republicans are planning to send to the national convention the largest delegation that will go from any single state. A meeting will be held in this city next Wednesday evening of representatives from all the republican organizations in this city and of the State League of Republican Clubs, to take the initial steps toward perfecting an organization for this purpose.
