

REBELS ARE AT THEIR EASE

Boast of the Spanish Generals Not Disturbing Gomez.

PASSING THE MILITARY LINE AT WILL

Havana Press Corps Determined to Prevent Anything Resembling a Cuban Success Reaching the Public in the United States.

HAVANA, Cuba, Jan. 31.—(Via Key West, Fla., Jan. 31.)—(Special Telegram to the New York World.)—The encounter between two columns of Spanish troops and a large insurgent force at Oja del Agua, a report of which I cabled to the World, demonstrates that the military line across the island is by no means impregnable, or as strong as the Spanish generals want the public to believe.

The Spanish commanders are now making great efforts to strengthen the military line of wall of men between Havana and Matanzas.

The town was in holiday attire. A guard of honor was drawn up near the railroad station and the local militia, headed by Gomez, west of it. General Prat, whose command was stationed east of Gomez's force before he crossed the line Sunday to force his insurgents toward the line and then cut off retreat, thus compelling them to fight, is now marching west.

GOMEZ WANTED TO WAIT. I am told on excellent authority that at first Gomez did not intend to cross the trocha (trocha line) but wanted to wait east of it until Maceo returned.

There is no use in my going to Pinar del Rio. Gomez is quoted as saying, "Maceo will fight his way out of the Pinar del Rio province, and I will follow him." In Havana province I am recruiting my army.

Afterward Gomez heard that Maceo was being held, and that he was hampered by his sick and wounded, and that he had been wounded in a skirmish.

The day Gomez decided to move his army west he had a conference with a small detachment of Spanish infantry, Gomez, who is always at the front in an engagement, is said to have been wounded.

The Spanish generals feel humiliated to think that Gomez should successfully cross the trocha, and that he should have done so without a single shot being fired.

Accompanied by a Large Body of Insurgents. HAVANA, Jan. 31.—General Marin, the acting captain general of the Spanish forces here, who left this city yesterday with his staff and a number of prominent merchants and clerks familiar with the province of Pinar del Rio, who will act as scouts, reached San Antonio de Los Baños and made his headquarters there.

The departure yesterday of General Marin is given over here as marking the beginning of a more aggressive military policy, and great things are expected of his campaign. His purpose is stated officially to be to enter upon the pursuit of Gomez and his forces in Pinar del Rio province. He takes with him 1,700 cavalry, 2,000 infantry and two batteries of artillery, and he depends upon the military along the road from Havana to Batabano to prevent the escape of Gomez and Maceo, while he runs them down and captures them in Pinar del Rio.

Insurgent Forces Increasing. TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 31.—Two hundred and thirty Cuban refugees arrived last night. Martin Garcia, mayor of Santos Spiritus, a prominent autonomist and personal friend of Campos, has now gone with the insurgents. Since Campos' departure numbers have increased to a total of 1,000. He is reported at Guanta, where he has established a new city government. The commander in charge of Alvarez's forces near Havana, was taken prisoner on Monday and sent to Moro castle. He is suspected of selling guns and cartridges to the insurgents. There is not word of Gomez suffering with consumption.

Found an Old Map of Venezuela. NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—A dispatch to the Herald from Caracas says: Antonio Fernandez, president of the state of Falcon, has telegraphed that in the archives of Coro, capital of the state and the oldest city in Venezuela, has been found a map published in London in 1794, in which the limits of British Guiana are given as about as Venezuela asserts as right. Minister of Foreign Affairs, Rojas sent an answer to President Fernandez, thanking him and asking him to send all documents he could find which might aid in the work.

Balfour Still a Bimetallist. GLASGOW, Jan. 31.—At a meeting of the Monetary Reform association here today a letter was read from Mrs. A. J. Balfour, the first lord of the treasury and conservative leader, stating that the writer's earnest desire was to see the nation's money standard adopted some means to end the monetary difficulties now checking industry and embarrassing international commerce.

STATES ENGLAND'S POSITION. Lord Salisbury Denies He is Opposed to the Monroe Doctrine. LONDON, Jan. 31.—The banquet of the Nonconformist Union association at the Hotel Metropole tonight was the occasion of an address by the marquis of Salisbury, prime minister and secretary of state for foreign affairs. In the course of his remarks he said with reference to Venezuela: "I have been held up as the denouncer of the Monroe doctrine. As a matter of fact, although the Monroe doctrine is no part of international law, my dispatch to Mr. Olney, the secretary of the United States, supported it as a rule of policy in the strongest and most distinct terms. But when I stated in that dispatch and reiterate now that as a rule of policy, we are the entire advocates of the Monroe doctrine, we mean the Monroe doctrine as President Monroe understood it."
