PROTEST AGAINST RECALL

Admirers of Ballington Booth Hold a Monster Mass Meeting.

Speeches Made by Chauncey M. Depew, Mayor Strong and a Number of Prominent Clergymen.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—At a mass meeting held in Carnegie hall tonight, it developed that the people represented, as well as the rank and file of the Salvation army, are opposed to the recall of Commander and Mrs. Ballington Booth to England.

The speaker said that the gathering was not for the purpose of making a statement, but to express our own views. No matter what London will think about it, the infant, which has grown large, is very much alive and liable to kick.

"We are tonight," said Dr. Depew, "to pay tribute to the two leaders—General Booth and Commander Ballington Booth. To General Booth we may fully recognize your power, the system you have, but about the recall of Commander Ballington and Mrs. Booth we have this suggestion to make.

Being 3,000 miles away, our customs are different and we take leave to present a petition and inquire, can they be replaced by a strong candidate?"

"And there is another reason," continued Dr. Depew, "Commander and Mrs. Booth have become naturalized. I met them on my way to New York a few years ago. The pleasure-seekers were in the first cabin, the ministers and school teachers in the second cabin. Mrs. Booth was in the first cabin—the fashionable crowd, who at the grand opera are known as the 'crowned heads,' because they sit in the first cabin, and she has been taken into the first cabin. They did so and they found Mrs. Booth a pure and intelligent woman, and she succeeded in her practical work in the city of New York, but to its use and service in the world.

"We are part, party of the United States, and we will support the United States. The Monroe doctrine. (Laughter.) PLACE FOR THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

"We cannot surrender to a foreigner any of our territory, and in order to avoid the greatest international trouble, we suggest the appointment of new consuls, and to continue diplomatic correspondence for a few years at least, and we believe that Commander and Mrs. Booth have not fulfilled the appointment of new consuls."

The cablegram which Dr. Depew read ran thus: Mayor Strong, New York: Thanks for telegram. General Booth traveling in India. Change in command indicates no disapproval whatever, but confidence that leaders of the cause will be maintained. This year, remain true to the world-wide pursuit of the cause. The Salvation army, American auxiliaries, honorably and heroically helping his son and daughter in carrying on their work. The cause is the cause of the world's salvation. BRAINWELL, BOOTH.

Chief of Staff. Mayor Strong said he, like the others, had attended the meeting to protest against the recall of Commander Ballington and Mrs. Booth and to, if possible, add the dignity of his office to the movement. He had been asked to inspect the whole job while he is looking over part of it and with more satisfactory results. The only effect of the present situation is to add to the number of men providing places for political supporters.

He is ready to go home. Arthur Glass, a young boy, living with his parents at Twenty-seventh and Augur streets, South Omaha, ran away from home on Monday night, and was found in a trap named Clark o. The parents notified the police and they found the boy. He tried to leave home, and that it was at the solicitation of Clarkson, Clarkson, he says, had been told to promise to return to both of them by begging on the street, and the boy's mother had been told to show him the signs in Omaha, Chicago and other large cities. Glass was not infatuated with the Salvation army, he readily promised to return to his parents.

His relatives in Damascus killed. A letter has been received by Steven Deitz, 209 North Eleventh street, from Damascus stating that a number of his relatives were killed about a month ago in an uprising in the city. The trouble arose between the Syrians and the Armenians, and the Armenians, on account of conflicting religious beliefs. The fight between the two races has extended to the city. It was estimated that over 1,500 people on both sides had been killed in the numerous battles which took place during the morning.

Apprehended for insanity. Rose Rosenberger, rooming at 1823 Leavenworth street, was taken to the station last night on the complaint of a number of her neighbors, who said that they considered her insane, and that it was dangerous to have her in the city. She was confined in the city hospital, and it was impossible to get her intelligent statement from her. It was reported that she had been in the city for about a week ago by a stranger and had been in the city for some time. She had been peculiar from the start, and had been ill for some time. She will be brought before the insanity court this morning.

DEATHS OF A DAY.

Colonel Thompson, the Treasurer, is Among the Number.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Colonel W. P. Thompson, president of the National Lead company, died of pneumonia today.

Colonel Thompson was born in West Virginia and was a Confederate soldier. He was engaged in several battles of importance that took place in Virginia. After the war Colonel Thompson became the editor of a West Virginia newspaper, afterward coming to New York. He owed the foundation of his fortune to his connection with the Standard Oil company. He became identified with the lead trade about a decade ago. He was a member of the Manhattan Lawyers, Taxed and down town clubs and the Southern society. He was also a power on the turf. He was one of the charter members of the Jockey club and his counsel was highly valued by his conferees. His colors were successful in racing and he succeeded in going racing in earnest. He purchased Reginald, the winner of last year's Futurity, when David Gildon retired from the turf.

Colonel Thompson was a member of the National Lead company, which was organized in 1862. He was one of the most prominent of the old New York merchants, died at his home in Westwood, Conn., yesterday, aged 63. Mr. Coe retired from the National Lead company in 1885. He was a member of the National Lead company, which was organized in 1862. He was one of the most prominent of the old New York merchants, died at his home in Westwood, Conn., yesterday, aged 63. Mr. Coe retired from the National Lead company in 1885.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Former Police Commissioner Stephen B. French, committed suicide today by shooting himself through the heart.

For some time Mr. French had been moody and despondent, and finally he told his wife that he was worried over business affairs. At another time he said to Mrs. French, "You would be better off if I were dead." Today the shooting was self-inflicted, both in appearance and in conversation Mr. French was not quite himself. So far as it is known, there was no adequate cause for his suicide.

Mr. French was 67 years old. He was a member of the police board from May, 1887, to May, 1893, the latter part of his term as president. In 1849 Mr. French went to California, where he worked at gold mining and engaged in the hotel business, subsequently returning to New York City and the Sandwich Islands. Having returned east, Mr. French was elected treasurer of Suffolk county in 1869. In 1876 he was appointed "Toll" collector and succeeded in collecting a fine from a man who had been convicted of a crime.

A MAN CAN'T WORK. WHEN HE IS SUFFERING WITH PILES. He Can't Eat, Can't Sleep, Can't Get Comfort Any Way But One—Pyramid Pile Cure Will Cure Him, Give Relief at Once—Never Known to Fail.

Just a little pain may so distract a man's mind that it will cost him hundreds of dollars. Life is too costly to be so easily sacrificed. One needs all his energies and all his brain force to apply to the question at hand. Even a corn will make him irritable, cross, angry—and an angry man seldom succeeds. The trifling pain of a corn is a pleasant feeling beside the agonizing ache of piles. That is a pain which seems to pervade the whole body. It communicates itself to all the parts near the seat of the trouble and brings on a most distressing feeling in the perineum. Those who have never so suffered do not know what it means. It racks
