Alexander Was Driven to Stenling. J. D. Alexander, under arrest for robbing Rock Island freight cars, found little difficulty in securing a $500 bond, upon which he secured his liberty. H. G. McGee was one of the bondsmen, and speaking of the matter yesterday, he said there would have been no trouble in getting a much larger bond. There seems to be a good deal of sympathy prevalent for Alexander, and his statement that he was driven to stealing to prevent his family suffering, is credited by business men who know him best. Alexander has worked for Wickham Bros., the Pioneer Im-plement company and the Shugart company. He was with the Pioneer people for a long time, and when changes in business made it necessary to let him out he left their employ with excellent recommendations. He worked for Wickhams during the summer as a hod carrier, and when the building season was over he was ready and willing to take any kind of work he could find. After the any kind of work he could find. After the big implement fire the only work he was able to find was a little wood sawing now and then. He did a little of this work for a number of the implement men, but his earnings were not sufficient to support his family. He says that for the last month it was either beg, steal or starve, and he con-cluded to steal.

Unless the railroad company can succeed connecting him with an organized gang of thieves, it seems probable that the pros-ecution will not be as severe as was at first contemplated. Railroad detectives are working on the case upon the theory that Alexander must have had the assistance of some of the railroad men connected with the company in Council Bluffs, or it would not have been possible for him to have carried away large boxes and packages of freight without

VERDICT WAS FOR THE CITY. Jury Finds Joel L. Stewart Not Entitled to Damages. The jury in the damage suit of Joel L. Stewart against the city of Council Bluffs

Stewart yesterday filed a motion for a new trial. The motion cites the usual grounds that the verdict was not sustained by the evidence; that the verdict was contrary to law and contrary to the instructions of the court. The motion also sets up excep-tions to a number of the instructions of Judge Thornell. The court instructed the jury that under the law damages could not be secured for the original establishment of a grade of a street, but only for a change of grade, and that the evidence was that the grade of Story street had never been established until in 1880, and that the jury should not consider any damage occasioned by the fill on Story street. Another instruction of the court was that the plaintiff must show that the improvements on his property were made after the es-tablishment of the grade of Fourth street in 1869, and prior to the change of grade in 1880, and that the property was dimin-ished in value by reason of the change of grade made in 1880. To these instruc-tions of the court the plaintiff excepts and asks for a new trial.

ARE IN FAVOR OF EAST OMAHA.

Local Delegates Have a Favored Location for the Exposition. Yesterday the members of the committee appointed by the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association of Council Bluffs to work for a location of the Transmississippi exposition at Omaha went to Omaha and held a conference with the members of the Omaha committee at the rooms of the Commercial club. The members of the Council Bluffs of the excitement thus created strong peticommittee were: M. F. Rohrer, George Wright, V. E. Bender, J. J. Steadman, E. W. Hart and E. H. Odell. At the conference of the Commercial club the Council Biuffs representatives urged the selection of a site for the exposition at East Omaha as being more accessible to outsiders than the site of the present state fair grounds. This matter was talked over at length without reaching any solution of the problem. The Council Bluffs delegation to Des Moines will probably go to the capital city this evening to labor with the state legislature in favor of an appropriation for an lowa exhibit at the proposed exposition.

Blues Are Bragging Now. The Red and Blue companies of the Young Men's Christian association are in the race as never before. Iowa Legislators Hold Off Expectantly on the Resubmission Resolution.

> ters and very little general legislation is likely to receive much attention when the context is over. Both sides appear to be equally confident that delay will strengthen their chances of success. The house had some fun over a bill to prevent and punish fraud in the manufacture of buckwheat flour and sugar-tree melasses, which was introduced by Mr. Crow, which ended in the indefinite postponement of the bill. The salary list for last month was passed and also a number of bills.

Chairman Walters of the committee or judiciary reported an ordinance regulating lrummers of Omaha in soliciting in this city. The ordinance, if passed, will compel mercantile houses that wish to employ runners here to psy $100 for a yearly license, or $50 for six menths; no license to be granted for less than six menths. It is thought that by placing the license so high Omaha runners will keep away from here.

O. B. Hill sent in a communication ask-ing the county attorney to dismiss the criminal proceedings against him. Hill was arrested last summer for selling liquor with-out a license and keeping his saloon open on Sunday. The communication was referred to the judiciary committee. The committee reported favorably and the county atterney will be asked to dismiss the case. City Treasurer Hoctor notified the council that on account of his inability to collect sufficient money now due on property it would be necessary for the council to issue $5,910 in funding bonds in order to allow him to take up district and grading bonds now due. He further said that he had called upon the banks here to borrow $5,000 in order to take up the bonds. The banks declined to make the loan, giving as a reason that they were carrying more cattle paper than ever before. The communication was referred to the finance committee, which reported favorably and the bonds will be issued. City Engineer Beal reported that the cost of repairing the L street viaduct was $3,512.60, and of the Q street viaduct $1,675.52, making a total of $5.188.12.

City Clerk Maly reported eleven deaths and eighteen births in December; in January, wenty-seven births and nine deaths. The Magic City restaurant offered to feed the city prisoners for 12 cents per meal and eccived the contract.

Mies wanted the street commissioners to lay a street crossing at Twentieth and Q streets. It was so ordered.
City Attorney Lambert was directed to draft an ordinance placing an arc light at Twenty-fourth and U streets.

Looking Up British Subjects. LONDON, Feb. 10.-The Bradford Observer says it learns that the marquis of Salisbury has requested the authorities of British Guiana to inquire into the number and extent of the districts occupied by British subjects. This, according to the paper men-tioned, points to the fact that the British government is willing to arbitrate on condition that Great Britain be allowed to retain the districts occupied by British subjects, or that the latter be compensated for their loss by Venezuela in the event of the territory passing into the possession of the latter

Kearney was nosed out for second place by Nephew in this race and Phil wagered Rose $1,000 against $600 that his horse could beat Nephew under the same conditions, which was accepted, and today's match was the result. Pittsburg Poil backed his horse for many thousands today, and as Kearney won the Plunger recouped sufficiently to compensate him for his losses Saturday. The real trustworthiness—the true scientific excellence—of any system of disease treatment is not tested by its bringing a little balm to pain, a little sleep to restless agony, but in its deep reaching for secret causes and its absolute cradication of the seed poison and seed principle of sickness. And in speaking of the quality of permanence in her cure Mrs. J. F. Hunt, a former patient, wife of the well known dairyman, 2538 Avenue C, Council Bluffs, says;

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 10.-A special to the Post from Frankfort says: This week is expected to develop a number of sensations

in the senatorial contest, and many of the politicians think that a senator will be elected before its close. It is said here today that tomorrow the house will take up and dispose of the two contested election cases, putting in both Dunlap and Werner, republicans. If this is done, there will be lively times, that will furnish excitement for the people of the state. The democratic majority in the senate is ready to declare vacant the seats of half a dozen republican senators. If this is done, the state will be fortunate if disgraceful scenes of disorder and violence do not follow.

only for itching piles, but for every other form of piles, blind, bleeding or protruding.

The first aplication gives instant relief, and the continued use for a short time causes a permanent removal of the tumor or the small parasites which cause the intense itching and discomfort of itching piles.

Many physicians for a long time supposed that the remarkable relief afforded by the Pyramid Pile Cure was because it was sup-posed to contain cocaine, opium or similar drugs, but such is not the case. A recent careful analysis of the remedy showed it to be absolutely free from any cocaine, opium, a former patient, wife of the well known dairyman, 2588 Avenue C. Council Bluffs, says:

"Nearly three years ago, as my friends will recall, I published a statement in the papers relating to the results of a course of treatment by Dr. Shepard. A chronic catarrhal trouble had involved my lungs and I had all the signs of beginning consumption, including sore lungs, a hacking cough, short breath, evening fever and an alarming loss of weight and strength. The best physicians in Council Bluffs and Omaha, after failing to help me, ordered me to go to the west as my only chance. After a thorough trial of a change in climate I came back home, with my disease still active and threatening. I then took a course of treatment with Drs. Copeland and Shepard, who promptly cured me. "Since that time I have often been questioned as to whether, subsequent to my cure, there had ever been any return of the old symptoms; whether the wasting cough reappeared; whether the cough reappeared; whether the wasting cough reappeared; THE PHENOMENAL SUCCESS OF THE COPELAND AND SHEPARD "HOME TREATMENT" IS EQUALLED ONLY BY THE SUCCESS OF THEIR OFFICE PRAC-TICE.
