Wanted to Whiteenp a Bridegroom Five or six young men of Council Bluffs. paid a large sized back bill yesterday morning under circumstances they are trying hard to keep from being made public. But a dozen or two bright young women have obtained all the facts and secrecy is no longer among the possibilities. On Tuesday James H. Harrington, one of the attaches of the Creighton theater, was married to Miss Helen Lacy, daughter of ex-Alderman Lacy, Mr. Harrington returned to his work in Omaha and was not expected home until after the close of the theater, but it happened that he was fortunate enough to be able to get away early in the evening, and reached home by 9 o'clock. The young men arranged to give him a reception that would make the wedding night still more memorable. The plan was to meet him at the street car when he alighted, conduct him to a hack in waiting, which was to be filled with half a dozen of his stalwart friends in whitecap masks and attire, and entertain him in various ways until morning. They ex-pected him to return on the 11 o'clock motor, and when it reached the juncture of Pearl and Main streets, where he was expected to get off, they were there with their hack, masks and a lot of instruments of vengeance that looked terrible and gruesome the dim light. They waited until the last motor came over, about 2 o'clock in the morning, and almost froze to death. In the meanwhile Harrington was at the home of his bride, enjoying the society of a brilliant crowd of friends and a sumptuous wedding supper. The whitecaps did not learn the true state of affairs until long after the lights were out and the family had retired.

Asserting Squatter Sovereignty. L. P. Judson commenced a suit in ejectment in Vien's court yesterday in which a man named C. C. Carter was made defendant. Judson owns several thousand acres valuable lands near the mouth of the Boyer river, three miles from Crescent City, in the Missouri river bottoms. Three days ago Carter went on the lands and hastily erected a log house, into which he moved his wife and baby before the doors and windows were in. He purposed to hold 160 acres of the land upon the theory that it was all the product of evulsion and not accretion, and that it laid in Nebraska, instead of Iowa, and that the only true title laid in the federal government, instead of L. P. Judson, Judson took prompt steps to protect his rights and the suit was started. It promises to be one of the most hotly contested land cases that have come up for several years.

Bread and Water for a Witness. In the police court yesterday morning Judge McGee was hearing the charge o fighting made against L. M. Neally and Clarence Fields, two negro boys, who got into a quarrel in the gallery of the New Dohany theater Tuesday night. One of the witnesses was a boy named Ed Roads. When the judge asked him to tell what he knew about it he shoved his hands into his pocket up to the elbows, rolled a big quid of tobacco around in his mouth until it assumed the proportions of a small base ball and swelled out his cheek like a tumor, and coolly in-formed the court that he didn't "know-nawthin," and if he did he "wouldn't give away a pal," but if the court insisted he would 'just tell a pack of lies an' nothin' else." All efforts of the court to induce him to give proper testimony were unavailing, and as a last resort the boy was sent to jail until this morning on a diet of bread and water. matter. FAILED TO IDENTIFY THE GOODS. John Williams Not a Pacific Junction Burgler. On Sunday night the drug store of Alleshouse & Harrison was entered and goods taken to the amount of about $50. Entrance was effected into the store through a broken front window, which the burglars smashed in an artistic manner without attracting attention. Their booty consisted of a lot of watch chains, sleeve buttons, collar buttons and some watches, besides a box or two of cigars. The Council Bluffs police department was notified and when an officer picked up a tramp yesterday begging on the streets, who had a sm. il consignment of chains and buttons in his pockets, there were good reasons for believing that he was wanted at Pacific Junction. The drug store firm was notified and yesterday afternoon Mr. P. O. Alleshouse came to the city. The jewelry found in the possession of the tramp was carefully examined, but did not prove to be the stolen property.

The charge on the police blotter was changed from burglary to vagrancy and Williams will be held for a few days. He has told several contradictory stories before and after his arrest, twice admitting that he had passed through Pacific Junction to his way to Council Bluffs. He had $2.25 in cash in addition to the new jewelry and a bath house ticket from the government free bath house at Hot Springs, Ark., bearing the name of John Williams. The ticket was still good for six baths. Williams said he had a ner whom he was to meet in Omaha last night. The jewelry found in his possession

He said the present condition of the enterprise showed it to be more than a probability. Omaha wheelmen had practically guaranteed $2,600 toward the expense, and that E. F. Clark of the Grand hotel had promised another $1,000. The only thing that appeared to be in the way was the apathy of the property owners on First avenue in regard to the repaying of three blocks of the street to complete the east end of the path. Clark had guaranteed to provide club rooms for both ladies and gentle men, and as an extra inducement, would fur-nish music in the park every Saturday aft-ernoon and evening. W. J. Davenport would obligate the Burlington road to bring in 500 visitors every time there was some special attraction by making excursion rates for wheelmen that would be irresistible. Mr Cole moved that a committee of five be appointed to investigate the path problem and

The skeleton in many a household is the peculiar weak-ness of the wife and mother, or of the wife who ought to be a mother and is not. Happiness is de-stroyed by the pres-ence of the secret sickness that may lurk like a grinning death among the most luxurious homes. The most terrible thing about this condition of af fairs is that it is entirely needless. There is no reason in the world why every woman in the world should not be strong and health-ful and capable of fulfilling her whole duty as a wife and mother. Many women go on as a wife and mother. Many women go on month after month, and year after year, becoming weaker and weaker, because of a very natural hesitancy they feel in consulting a physician. They know that if they go to a doctor for treatment, the first thing he will insist on will be "examination" and "local treatment." This must of course be distasteful to every modest woman. They are generally as unnecessary as they are abdistasteful to every modest woman. They are generally as unnecessary as they are abhorrent. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures positively, perfectly, permanently, all varieties of "female weakness" and disease. It is designed to do this one thing, and it does it. It is the only medicine now before the public for woman's peculiar ailments, adapted to her delicate organization by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in these maladies. It cannot do harm in any condition of the system. Its sales exceed the combined sales of all other medicines for women.
