

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

Published every morning, except on Sundays and public holidays.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily (in Advance) One Year, $1.00; Six Months, $0.60; Three Months, $0.35; Single Copies, 5 Cents.

Advertisements: All communications relating to news and editorial matters should be addressed to the Editor.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes 'Total', 'Net Profit', and 'Net Loss'.

Omaha is the only city in America that can boast a daily paper that tries to regulate the affairs of the democratic party, the republican party and the populist party all at the same time.

Why continue to rob graves for subjects for the dissecting room when by the use of the newly discovered Röntgen process of photography the living human body can be made to serve all the requirements of medical science?

The French Senate does not seem to have much influence with the other departments of the French government.

Another American mining syndicate has just been organized to develop the gold mines of Venezuela.

The Board of Health now raises the cry that it wants to be protected. It should have been protected long ago against the folly and extravagance of its own members.

It looks very much as if Rev. Frank Crane were going to take his departure from Omaha and leave Police Commissioner Vanderveort still waiting for those words of commendation from the pulpit.

Now the Knights of Pythias threaten to declare their annual encampment off because of the refusal of the railroads to grant the usual concessions in the matter of reduced fares.

Manager Babcock of the stock yards has at last succeeded in getting such reduction in transportation rates from points to the south and west that after March 1 stock shippers in that territory can avail themselves of the higher prices to be secured in this market.

Senator Hawley of Connecticut was quite correct in his statement in the senate the other day that the prevalent feeling throughout the country is enlarged pension expenditures.

The Transmississippi exposition is not a political venture. It should not be permitted to be drawn into any political contention.

Complaint is made that rates have been raised for the shipment of live stock between Nebraska points since January 1 of this year.

One of the railroad attorneys who appeared before the senate committee on Pacific railroads suggested that the question of the Pacific railroad debt settlement should be considered as a business proposition and as one by business individuals.

Central Pacific stock, which was worth nothing when the road was built and which is now quoted at 15, was once worth 80 and 90.

Central Pacific stock, which was worth nothing when the road was built and which is now quoted at 15, was once worth 80 and 90.

A complete restoration of confidence cannot reasonably be hoped for so long as the revenues of the government continue to fall behind the expenditures.

REVENUE BILL IN THE SENATE

Another effort was yesterday made in the senate to have the revenue bill taken up, but it was defeated by the votes of five free silver republicans and the six populists.

The republican house passed a revenue bill in good faith. No one has ever questioned this. There is every reason to believe that measure would have given the government sufficient revenue to at least stop the monthly deficits.

The bitter feeling of the people of the South African republic toward England has been unmistakably manifested since the Jameson raid.

The superintendent of Forest Lawn cemetery expresses the opinion that grave robbery could readily be stamped out by concerted action upon the part of the sheriff and police chief.

The late Hon. M. D. Harter of Ohio was a man of honest convictions, and had the courage of his convictions.

New York is the first state to retaliate upon Germany in the insurance imbroglio. The act which Governor Morton has just signed is a notable precedent.

The revision of the Iowa laws, which the legislature is now considering, provides for including private banks among the institutions which must report their capital to the auditor of the state.

The revision of the Iowa laws, which the legislature is now considering, provides for including private banks among the institutions which must report their capital to the auditor of the state.

Omaha business men of all classes and conditions is that fire insurance rates exacted in this city are excessive if not exorbitant.

THE FUNDING BILL

Representative Powers of California told yesterday morning the other day in his committee speech on the Pacific railroad funding bill.

Mr. Powers says there is no question that the Pacific line for the last ten years has been nearly $1,000,000 and those of the Central Pacific nearly $1,000,000.

According to Senator David B. Hill there is a decided difference between an official inquiry and an official investigation.

The superintendent of Forest Lawn cemetery expresses the opinion that grave robbery could readily be stamped out by concerted action upon the part of the sheriff and police chief.

The late Hon. M. D. Harter of Ohio was a man of honest convictions, and had the courage of his convictions.

New York is the first state to retaliate upon Germany in the insurance imbroglio. The act which Governor Morton has just signed is a notable precedent.

The revision of the Iowa laws, which the legislature is now considering, provides for including private banks among the institutions which must report their capital to the auditor of the state.

The revision of the Iowa laws, which the legislature is now considering, provides for including private banks among the institutions which must report their capital to the auditor of the state.

Omaha business men of all classes and conditions is that fire insurance rates exacted in this city are excessive if not exorbitant.

APPEAL TO SALVATIONISTS

Colonel Nicoll Sends Out a Circular Letter to All Detachments. EXPECTS THEM TO REMAIN FAITHFUL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—It is thought by several members of the army who were willing to express an opinion that Hallington and Mrs. Booth were out of the Salvation army for good, but that they would soon be at work with many of the present army officers and privates.

As you will readily imagine, this letter of resignation came upon our leaders as a bit from a blue sky.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

APPEAL TO SALVATIONISTS

Colonel Nicoll Sends Out a Circular Letter to All Detachments. EXPECTS THEM TO REMAIN FAITHFUL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—It is thought by several members of the army who were willing to express an opinion that Hallington and Mrs. Booth were out of the Salvation army for good, but that they would soon be at work with many of the present army officers and privates.

As you will readily imagine, this letter of resignation came upon our leaders as a bit from a blue sky.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

APPEAL TO SALVATIONISTS

Colonel Nicoll Sends Out a Circular Letter to All Detachments. EXPECTS THEM TO REMAIN FAITHFUL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—It is thought by several members of the army who were willing to express an opinion that Hallington and Mrs. Booth were out of the Salvation army for good, but that they would soon be at work with many of the present army officers and privates.

As you will readily imagine, this letter of resignation came upon our leaders as a bit from a blue sky.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

APPEAL TO SALVATIONISTS

Colonel Nicoll Sends Out a Circular Letter to All Detachments. EXPECTS THEM TO REMAIN FAITHFUL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—It is thought by several members of the army who were willing to express an opinion that Hallington and Mrs. Booth were out of the Salvation army for good, but that they would soon be at work with many of the present army officers and privates.

As you will readily imagine, this letter of resignation came upon our leaders as a bit from a blue sky.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

APPEAL TO SALVATIONISTS

Colonel Nicoll Sends Out a Circular Letter to All Detachments. EXPECTS THEM TO REMAIN FAITHFUL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—It is thought by several members of the army who were willing to express an opinion that Hallington and Mrs. Booth were out of the Salvation army for good, but that they would soon be at work with many of the present army officers and privates.

As you will readily imagine, this letter of resignation came upon our leaders as a bit from a blue sky.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.

As neither the commandant nor the field commander nor myself possess the power to recall a resignation, we are, as you are at once understood responsible for the commandant's step.