

NEWS DIFFICULT TO OBTAIN

Some Delayed Dispatches from Bulawayo Received at Capetown.

MATABELES MASSING IN THE HILLS

Several Minor Engagements Without Substantial Advantage to Either Side—Prompt Action Likely to Stop the Spread of Rebellion.

CAPTOWN, April 2.—News from Matabeleland is not flowing in to any great extent, but there are indications now that the rebellion may be checked before it has time to spread dangerously far. Dispatches received here from England say that preparations are being made to send reinforcements of 5,000 regular troops here at short notice should such a step be necessary, and it is said that 5,000 British troops can be hurried here from India in a very short time. These announcements have had a calming effect upon the public mind, and there is not so much talk now, talking upon the part of the burghers and their advisers.

A delayed dispatch from Bulawayo, dated Tuesday last, says that Captain MacFarlane in command of a mounted party, has had a sharp skirmish with the rebellious Matabele at Queen's Reef, Dombas. The natives are reported to have attacked our troops in fine style, and a hand to hand encounter ensued in which they were defeated, leaving thirty killed. Captain MacFarlane's party lost one horse and several were wounded, but the number of the Matabele slain is not stated. However, they made a gallant stand against overwhelming odds and had the best of the skirmish.

Three Indians who accompanied at Bulawayo the natives report that the young Matabele fought the troops against the advice of their chiefs, and that the younger warriors could not be controlled.

Another fight has taken place near Inyati. A number of white settlers who were seeking refuge in the hills, were surrounded by hostile natives. The whites made a determined resistance, but all of them were killed except one man, who brought the news to Bulawayo. The natives also captured thirty rifles and about 3,000 rounds of ammunition. Zeleu, the hunter and explorer, at the head of thirty mounted men, was sent to these districts to escort the mail coach. From that place to Bulawayo.

Dawson's patrol against the Matabele at Inyati, Matopo and Inyati. Captain Dawson cautions the authorities against being thrown off their guard by the apparent calm and seeming inaction of the natives. He points to the fact that only pure-blooded Matabele are allowed to join the forces being massed for attack, and adds that he believes that the enemy must be numerous and confident. The pure-blooded Matabele fight desperately and with great skill. Consequently, Captain Dawson says they will not be driven out of the Matopo hills except by a large and well organized force.

There was a bad scare at Bulawayo early in the week, owing to the report brought in that town by recruits that 2,000 natives were within twelve miles of Bulawayo and threatening to march upon the place, but it now appears that they were only a few miles from the hills. The larger at Bulawayo has been considerably strengthened by an embarkment of earth and obstructions of every kind, and the town is now believed to be impregnable.

The chief ulimo, or god, who first incited the revolt of the Matabele, has succeeded in killing King Matabele in succession to the late King Lobengula. The son of the late monarch, who is understood to be on his way to the Matopo hills, in order to meet the natives, has not yet reached there, and when he does there is likely to be trouble between the warriors and those of the newly crowned king.

Mr. Cecil Rhodes had not reached Bulawayo when the foregoing dispatches were sent, but he was expected shortly, and was understood to be bringing with him a large force of volunteers and equipment, and a train loaded with arms, ammunition and supplies.

Nobody here puts any faith in the report that the Boers have offered to assist the British in quelling the rebellion in Matabeleland. When the rumor is mentioned people shake their heads and say that such an offer were made it was certainly done in a spirit of sarcasm. The Boers have important matters of their own to attend to just now, and they are not likely to stop which may strengthen the hands of the British administrators. Besides, it is believed Mr. Rhodes is about the last man in South Africa the Boers would help out of a hole.

REBELLION IS NOT SPREADING. Activity of British Authorities Has a LONDON, April 2.—The secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, received dispatches from the governor of Cape Colony, Sir Hercules Robinson, today which seem to denote that the activity of the authorities in Matabeleland and Cape Colony has done a great deal toward preventing a spread of the rebellion in Matabeleland. It is now announced that the outlying stations about Bulawayo have been relieved and that Bulawayo is no longer considered to be in danger of conflict. Consequently Sir Hercules Robinson hopes that the rebellion will be almost confined to the Matopo hills.

Sir Hercules Robinson, governor of Cape Colony, has advised the government the details of the names of white men at Inyati, in Matabeleland, including Messrs. Hambley, Cass and Buford. Assistant Commissioner Graham was notified that the rebels attacked upon the whites followed, and they were greatly outnumbered and almost overwhelmed. Their fight was a desperate stand against the rush of the native warriors. They got hold of a wagon, and with this they managed to effect a retreat of three miles. Two Years to Conquer Cuba. MADRID, April 2.—In an interview with Captain General Weyler of Cuba, published here, it is reported as saying that he hoped to end the campaign in Cuba in two years.

Accented by the Berlin Holders. BERLIN, April 2.—At a meeting of the bondholders of the Northern Pacific railroad today it was unanimously resolved to accept the reorganization plan.

Genesee River on a Rampage. ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 2.—The Genesee river is higher than it has been of twenty-six years. It is over its banks in the southern part of the city, and has washed away a part of the Erie tracks. The houses along the river are being washed away. The water is so high that the occupants have had to desert their homes. Exchange street, from Charles to Court, nearly a mile in length, is several feet deep in water. It is feared that should the river banks give way there would be a great rush of water over a large portion of the residence part of the city.

The water in the Genesee river has fallen but an inch since last night. Ten of the steam fire engines of the city are at work pumping water from the cells of the large buildings, which have been flooded. Great piles of merchandise are in the principal streets, having been removed from cellars.

SCHEME OF A SPANISH EDITOR

All He Asks is Arms and Transportation and He Will Do the Rest if the Government Accepts.

MADRID, Spain, April 2.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Popular excitement has been revived. The Madrid newspapers today speak in terms of anxiety of the resolution introduced in the United States senate by that madman, Call, as they style him. The enterprising Catalan even goes to the length of seriously offering to raise a corps of 12,000 volunteers, if the government will arm, equip and carry them across the Atlantic and land them on any coast of the United States, where the editor promises to make a raid into the interior and sustain his guerrilla directly the Cuban belligerency is recognized. The bishop of Orléans' maternal uncle, Colonel will soon embark for Cuba, 900 strong. The government has not received confirmation of the report of Maximo Gomez's death, but Premier Canovas assures the Spanish reporters that the latest intelligence from Cuba shows that the insurgents are losing ground and courage so fast that the insurrection will be easily and promptly suppressed. He is despaired of recognition by the United States.

China Enters the Postal Union. PEKING, April 2.—The Chinese government has decided to enter into the postal union. WASHINGTON, April 2.—The entrance of China into the Universal Postal Union would mean the entrance of all the regularly organized governments of the world into the Orange Free State, in Africa, under one postal treaty. The admission of China to the big postal compact would necessitate a complete reorganization of the postal system in China, which now has only a crude scheme, by which letters are received at private offices and distributed by private carriers in regular postal communication with the rest of the world. The request for admission to the union was made at the emperor's postal congress, and, on the emperor's suggestion, following the precedent set by the Australian colonies, he made to take effect immediately, instead of a year later, an annual.

Children Alone at Sea. CADIZ, April 2.—The newspapers here report that the British schooner Robinhood, Captain Dingle, from St. Johns, N. F., on February 18, for Lisbon, has been brought into this port in an extraordinary manner. It appears that the schooner, which was found in charge of its captain and owner and his two children, three persons in all, Captain Dingle, his wife and two children, was in the middle of the Atlantic and his two children were alone eight days on board the Robinhood with the body of their father. The latter had been killed by a shark. He was sighted by the English schooner Kang, which ran alongside the drifting craft. On board the latter the children were found. The captain and his wife were rescued by a seaman on board to pilot the Robinhood on its course and to the nearest port, which turned out to be Cadiz.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—A rumor is in circulation here that Thomas Estrada Palma, head of the Cuban revolutionist army in this country, and Colonel E. Nunez, one of the wealthiest and most prominent Cuban real estate of this city, are expected to return to Bermuda. Since that expedition set out Colonel Nunez has not been seen in this city and inquiries as to his whereabouts are unavailing.

Colombian Government Gives No Explanation of Its Action. COLOMBIA, April 2.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The government officials are forbidden to reveal the reason for the seizure of the American schooner George W. Whitefield, while leaving Porto Bello, by a Colombian gunboat. After being working the case will go before the public courts. The name of the schooner's captain is Hendrichs, not Poole, as at first reported.

Insurgents Released by Order of General Weyler. HAVANA, April 2.—A dispatch from Guines announces the surrender of five insurgents. Captain General Weyler has ordered them set at liberty.

Physician Sues for Damages. KANSAS CITY, April 2.—A special to the Star from Lawrence, Kan., says: Dr. A. G. Lawson, a prominent physician, has been engaged against the general council of the Fraternal Aid association, alleging that he was wrongfully charged with trying to poison Frank Coffman, who became very sick soon after being treated by the doctor. Without warning the main steam pipe burst, killing eight of the crew and probably injuring nine others.

Murdered in a General Row. CARROLLTON, Mo., April 2.—A general row occurred at a house in the southern edge of town last night. One Eaton was killed. Will Godwin was shot in the face and Sid Lee Cunningham received scalp wounds. Godwin and the Cunningham are in jail, charged with Eaton's murder.

Killed by the Fall of a Tree. KANSAS CITY, April 2.—A special to the Star from Perry, Okl., says: Dutch Barber, a well known carpenter, was killed in Oklahoma, while chopping down a tree. The oak caught in a limb, and falling, struck him on the top of the head, almost splitting it open.

Masonic School of Instruction. KANSAS CITY, April 2.—A special to the Star from Holton, Kan., says: The annual school of instruction of the Masonic order is in session with a good attendance from all over the state. G. C. Coleman of Clay Center and George B. Ford of the board of trustees are among those present.

Fire in the Cherokee Strip. KANSAS CITY, April 2.—A special to the Star from Perry, Okl., says: For the past two nights light frosts have fallen in this section of the Cherokee strip. The cold snap was preceded by a severe and long rain. Some crops were ruined and a few wheat fields considerably injured.

Expats Decreased from Hartford. BRADFORD, April 2.—The exports from this city to the United States during the month of March were valued at $1,860,000, compared with $2,455,900 for the same period of 1895.

BURNED OVER HALF A MILLION

Great Fire Sweeps the Docks at Brunswick, Ga.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., April 2.—Several years ago this town was visited by a conflagration, which destroyed it and today the disaster was almost repeated. A fire started about 1:30 p. m. which swept away many of the most prosperous business enterprises of the city, and for a time it was feared the whole town would burn. The loss is about $500,000, and the insurance is placed at $400,000. A strong wind forced on the flames and the local fire department became powerless, so that assistance was telegraphed for from Savannah, Waycross and Jacksonville, whose departments promptly responded that they would send aid. At 4:30 the fire was gotten under control, but not before one of the largest business enterprises of the city, the Brunswick & Western railroad, was overcome by the heat and died. A number of sailing vessels were in danger during the progress of the flames, but all were saved.

CAUGHT LIKE RATS IN A TRAP

Went into a Flume to Put Out a Fire When It Caved In.

DENVER, April 2.—A special to the News from Anacosta, Mont., says: Thomas Brennan was burned to death while engaged in putting out a fire this morning. The blaze was an unimportant one in a waste flume which is timbered at tunnel. Ashes had been dumped over a part of it, from which the timbers were ignited. Brennan and Tom Smith went into the flume with a line of hose to extinguish the fire, but the flume caved in, and the men were burned to death. Brennan was a well known man in the city, and was a member of the fire department. He was 45 years of age, and was married. He had three children. He was a member of the fire department for many years, and was a very capable man. He was a member of the fire department for many years, and was a very capable
