Extensive renovations are being made the headquarters of the order in this city in the Sheeley block. Sovereign Clerk John T. Yates has removed his office into the room formerly occupied by Consul Commander Root and the latter is about to move into an office on the floor above. The partitions which have separated Chief Clerk Yates' office as well as those of a smaller room. have been torn down and the entire southeast corner of the second floor has been trans-formed into a large office for the clerical force. These changes have been found necessary in order to accommodate the large force needed to transact the business of the office. When the renovations are completed it is promised that the offices of the Woodmen will be of the handsomest in the city.

Another improvement has been made the establishment of a complete printing office for the publication of the Sovereign Visitor, the official organ of the order. The paper is being set up, printed, folded and mailed in one building. A considerable sum of money was expended in setting up this complete establishment, the major part being On next Wednesday evening the new lodge which has been boomed so much of late will be instituted in Patterson hall. It is to consist only of business and professional men. From the point of size the new body will be a hummer, for there are already over 200 names on the charter list. Guests who were present are full of praise of the entertainment that was given by Golden Rod grove, Woodmen circle, on last Thursday night in the lodge rooms. The affair was what is known in society parlance as a "web" party. An everyday individual, a society novitiate, would have thought he had 'em again when he gazed into the net-work above his head as he entered the hall. Some of the greatest enjoyment of the evening was obtained from what may be termed burlesque charades, for want of better term. These consisted of "takeoffs" on well known paintings or expressions. For instance, "Bonaparte crossing the Rhine," was illustrated with a ham hone straddling a bacon rind. This entertainment cailed for a lively amount of thinking and was extremely laughable and ridiculous Mrs. Michael Keysor proved to be the best guesser and carried off the first prize, which consisted of a handsome pincushion. The booby prize was won by John Jackson, may furnish him considerable comfort

Every one of the male guests was provided with the end of one of the strings of the web. When he wound up his little bai of yarn he found a woman at the end and whem he was in duty bound to take to sup per. The refreshments were served late in the evening.

At the last regular meeting of Monteflore camp ten new members were initiated and the good work is to be kept up. It is expected that the rolls will contain 200 names before June 1. At the same meeting Consul Commander W. Cohen, in behalf of the camp, presented to Deputy E. Motz a beautiful. of a card party, which was very well at-tended. Prizes were awarded to Mr. Blake and Misses Lillie Bath and Katie Parker. Refreshments were served. tiful gold medal for his efforts in organ-izing and increasing the lodge. Mr. Molz recepted the compliment with a few re-marks, in which he stated that he would bustle as much for the camp in the future in he had done in the past. Sovereign Commander Root will attend a meeting of Woodhawn camp of Sioux City temperow night. The camp is holding a son. The sands, which glowed with a fervent heat at Oskaloosa had hardly time to cool to a cherry red when our illustrious potentate was beseeched in tones which he could not resist, to gladden the hearts of a class of virtuous candidates, in whom all sinful desires have been throughly tamed by the rigid fast of Ramadan, which they have conscientiously kept.

Actuated by the worthy motive to diffuse the light of our glorious prophet (may Allah preserve him), the illustrious potentate hereby announces that, responsive to the pleadings of these worthy aspirants, he will open the Mystic Shrine in Sioux City, on Leylet el Arbaa, the 23d day of the 10th Mohammedan month Showwal, Anno Hegira, 1313, corresponding in the vulgar calendar to Tuesday, April 7, 1898.

In this particu'ar case the imperial potentate has been pleased to grant a special dispensation to the temple, enabling it to receive and act upon such petitions as may be presented, and, by virtue of which such action will be taken.

A new lodge of the Royal Neighbors was instituted last night in Arnex hall in the Continental block, but the details were received too late for these columns, and will consequently have to lay over until next Sun-day. A meeting of the new lodge was held liged to avail itself of the infidel device earlier in the week, but the institution was by the long winter, and the caravan is again obliged to avail itself of the infidel device of steam.

The business meeting will be held in the hall provided for the purpose at 7 o'clock in the evening, and will be dispatched with such celerity as is consistent with throughness, and the e'ected candidates will be jyfully welcomed into our midst and their names enrolled upon our records.

The feast of Ecdol'l Azra will be celebrated in honor of the virgin wife of the prophet. (May Allah favor and preserve him!) She is held in great veneration by all good Moslems. The first day of Showwal is Ecdoo'l Filtr (break of the fast). Tombs of relatives, friends and of saints are visited in this month.

The traditional banquet will be served in the usual happy manner, and all present will be heartily invited to break the fast of Ramadan with us.

Es Selamu Aleikum! Don't forget your fez!

Mention has already ben made in this then but partially completed. The charter list contains over sixty names.

This column has stated that the convention of the grand body of the Royal Neighbors will convene in Des Moines on the first Tuesday of this month. This was a mistake. The convention date is a mistake. The convention date is the second Tuesday in May. The supreme hoard of managers, however, meets in Fulton, Ill., on April 14 to prepare for the session. Reports of the officers will be examined and other preliminary work for the session transacted. The foresters of Omaha lodge No. 120 are preparing to give a ball in Myrtle hall on next Wednesday evening. The affairs is promised to be a great success, as large umbers of woodmen have signified their intention of being in attendance with friends.

Mention has already ben made in this column of the meeting of the grand commandery which will convene in annual session in this city on April 16. The session A. C. Albright of Hastings organized a council in Kearney Saturday, March 28, with promises to be a successful and interesting one and a goodly number of delegates are 200 members. This is the largest fraternal expected. The local commandery met last night to elect officers, but the result could not be obtained in time for publication in lodge in the city, and the only order of any kind to start with so large a charter memnot be obtained in time for publication in this column. The preceptory elections occur the principal place of business being in tomorrow and those of Rose Croix on next Hastings, and has all the desirable features of other similar fraternal insurance socie-ties.
