DULL WEEK IN THE THEATERS. This has been the quietest theatrical week of the year. Eleven of the important theaters closed voluntarily; but the Duke of York's night. Many people during the week visited the Elephant and Castle theater, in the new Kent road, where Abud's company is playing Lawrence Irving Svengali is pronounced to be the best thing he has done The new play entitled "The Gay Pari-lenne," which will shortly be seen at the Duke of York's theater, will have the advantage of a strong cast. This will consist of Ada Reeve, who will sustain the title role, that of Mile. Julia Bonbon, a young adventuress who is thoroughly at home if the Parisian world of life and adventure Frank Wheeler, lately of the Galety theater, will assume the part of her fellow conspira-tor. Lionel Rignold will have a comedy part, that of Ebenezer Honeycomb. In this he will be assisted by Lilly Belmore, in the character of his wife, and by Violet Robinson, as his daughter. W. H. Denny will appear as a major, smitten likewise with the charms of the Parisienne. The first act of the piece takes places on the lawn of an English villa, the second at a fashionable Swiss watering place.

For the new Japanese comedy which will be produced at Daly's on April 11 elaborate preparations are being made. George Edwards sent to Japan for the newest melodies. These have been brought to London by phonograph. The Japanese society has also volunteered assistance in preparing the play. The scenery is by Telbin, and the dresses are designed by Percy Anderson. The cast will include Marie Tempest, Miss Nesville, Miss Lind, Miss Hobson, Miss Hammer, Mr. Cif-fin, Mr. Morkhouse, Mr. Philip and Mr.

The play will succeed "An Artist's Model," which has had a remarkable run in Lordon. It was first performed on February 2, 1895 at Daly's. In May it was transferred to the Lyric theater in order to make room for the New York company. In September it returned to Daly's, where it has remained ever since and done a highly successful business.

The new piece at the Prince of Wales' theater will also be produced on April 11.

Arthur Roberts, Phyllis Broughton and Kitty Loftus will appear. The dialogue of the comedy is by Jerome K. Jerome and the music by Adrian Ross. It is understood that most of the comic business has been intro-duced by Arthur Roberts.

BYERS SUSTAINS HIS RULING WIII Force the Vote on the Manufac-

DES MOINES, April 4 .- (Special Telegram.)-Speaker Byers, in a lengthy review of all the rules applicable to the case, sustained his decision made vesterday, that a by a mere majority, thus insuring a vote in the house on the manufactures bill next Tuesday. The decision was very unsatisfactory to the extreme prohibition element, but no appeal was taken.

The house consumed the session in passing bills of local and minor importance. The penate discussed and finally passed a bill locking to the purchase of supplies for state institutions by the executive council, preference being given to articles of home manufac-ture. Wells' bill, requiring the Board of Railway Commissioners to establish a schedof rates for express companies, was modified in the senate committee by making this action discretionary only, which will defeat the main object of the bill.

FOR AN EASTER OUT OF TOWN

Everyone Who Can Gets Out of London for a Holiday.

ROYALTY INTENDS TO SPEND IT IN QUIET

Nuptials of Princess "Harry" to Be the Occasion of Great Display -Britannia Making Poor Showing.

(Copyright, 1896, by the Associated Press.) LONDON, April 4 .- The weather throughout the past week has been cold and gloomy, dull and depressing, and to add to the blue feeling here, the exedus of the Easter holiday makers began early in the week and lasted until yesterday. The rallway stations, in consequence, were crowded with overcoated and berugged gentry engaged in more or less successful rough and tumbles with lordly, independent porters, whose pockets bulged out with copper and silver fees, extorted from travelers, unxious to leave the whirl and smoke of London for a breathing spell at the seaside or in the country. The duke and duchess of York and the princess of Wales and her daughters are spending the holidays in peace and quiet at Sandringham, while his royal highness, the prince of Wales, is junketing the time away with his yacht on the blue waters of the Mediterranean.

Britannia, by the way, has not been improved by the alterations in its trim, etc. It is making a poor showing this season, and Ailsa seems able to show the prince's boat its heels with beautiful regularity. This, it is expected, will cause the prince of Wales to order a new cutter for next season, and if the new Meteor, being built for Emperor William of Germany, near Glasgow, turns out to be anything of a flier, the imperial nephew will accomplish one of his pet desires, namely, outsail his royal uncle in a yacht race off the Isle of Wight, and recapture the famous challenge shield offered by the emperor some seasons ago, and now held by Britannia. The queen is etill at Cimiez, near Nice. WEDDING ARRANGEMENTS SETTLED

It has been definitely arranged that the Prince Charles of Denmark, second of the hree sons of the crown prince and crown princess of Denmark, will take place in the Chapel Royal at St. James palace on July 7. The archbishop of Canterbury, as-sisted by the bishops of London and Winchester, will officiate. There will be a proeession in state from Buckingham palace to St. James palace and the Chapel Royal, and as the distance between the two places is very short, many thousands of people will be disappointed in their hopes of witnessing special order could be made for a future day the pageant. However, everything possible will be done to give her majesty's subjects as good a view as possible of the turnout of royalty and a most attractive spectacle is anticipated. The queen will take part in the ceremony the streets and the park and the Mall ad joining the palaces will be held by the Horse guarde, Life guards, Grenadier guards, Scots guards. Coldstream guards and other crack regiments, and if the weather permits, there will be a gathering of Londoners about the He was released under bonds of $150.

There has been an unusually strong turn ing out of the British volunteers for Easter maneuvers this year. In fact at no time since the formation of this valuable addition to the defenses of Great Britain against a foreign foe has there been such a martial spirit displayed in England. There is no ex-saloon keeper of Cluton, brought to the fact that the popular commander-inchief of the forces, Lord Wolseley, regards efforts in a much more serious light than his predecessor, the duke of Cambridge

Lord Wolseley intends to greatly improve their arms and equipments; the improved Martini-Henrys, now being discarded by regulars, will be placed in the hands of the volunteers as quickly as possible and the latter in the course of time will be armed with the new Lee-Metford rapid-fire magazine rifle. Better quarters in many cases will also be assigned to the volunteers, their work at the targets will be greatly encouraged and, in short, Lord Wolseley will do all in his power to encourage the volunteers

Ancient Royal Charities, The usual "Ancient Royal Charities," designated as "Royal Maundy," took place on Maundy Thursday in Westminster abbey. The number of recipionts is governed by the queen's age; thus last year seventy-six men and seventy-six women received the royal alms. This year seventy-seven men and seventy seven women joined in the procession, which was formed at about 1 'clock in the nave and passed into the choir Each of the old men and women received two neatly made bags, the first of white material containing £1 in gold, represent-ing part of the Maundy, and £1 10s, the allowance instead of the provisions which were formerly given in kind. The recipients of Royal Maundy were afterward handed red purse, holding as many pence as the queen is years of age, and given in eliver painles, 2 pence, 3 pence and 4 pence. Each man also received £2 5s in Heu of an allowance of clothing, and each woman was also presented with fi 15s instead of an allowance of clothing.

The English arrangements for the American Congregationalist pilgrimage to England are now practically completed. The party which is expected to number about fifty, sails from New York on June 4, arriving at Plymouth on the 11th. After a day or two spent in the town from whose the pilgrim fathers set sail in the Mayflower, the party will proceed by way of Exeter, Wells, Glartonbury, Wanchester and Bedford to London. On June 25 the party leaves London for Cambridge, Ely, Boston and Lincoln, whence excursions will be made to Scrooby, Bawtry, Galnesborough and other places associated with the history of the pilgrim fathers. Subsequent arrangements include a trip to Holland, the Rhine, Heidelberg, Baden Baden, the Black Forest, Falls of the Rhine, Zurich, etc. Probably the handsomest office building in London is that occupied by William Astor. It is separated from the street by handsome gates, upon one of which is a letter box bearing the announcement that it is the office of the John Jacob Astor estate. It is said that Mr. Astor writes many of his stories in this room. It is more difficult to see and obtain an audience with Mr. Astor than with the prime minister of Great Britain. TROUBLE FOR HEFFELFINGER Charged with Obtaining Goods Under

Harry S. Heffelfinger, who has for some ime been proprietor of a drug store at 624 North Sixteenth street, was yesterday afternoon arrested on a warrant charging him with obtaining goods under false pretenses. The complainant is the Richardson Drug company through the vice president, Amos

Field claims that the drug com-pany advanced goods on credit to Heffelfinger on certain representations that he made. One was that his business was perfectly solvent, whereas it is alleged that it has since been learned that at the time Hef-felfinger's stock was mortgaged for $400. This mortgage was recently foreclosed and the goods are now in the hands of creditors. Another representation alleged to have en made by Heffelfinger and since found to have been false was that his household expenses were but $75 per month. It is claimed by the drug company that the actual expenses have been $90 a month. Heffelfinger was arraigned immediately after his arrest and he pleaded not guilty. Mr. Field of the drug company would not name the full value of the goods that Heffel-finger obtained under his alleged false rep-

a portion of the aggregate amount. He fur-ther remarked significantly that under the complaint, as the amount alleged to have been taken is $24, Heffelfinger could be pros-ecuted for a misdemeanor. He hinted that a new complaint would be filed, in which a sufficient sum would be named to constitute the crime a felony.

Boies has consented to go to Chicago form declares for free silver. This is prac-tically the first move to secure the demo cratic nomination for president for Boies, participated in by prominent white metal democrats, not only in Iowa, but in other parts of the west. His answer to a letter sent him requesting him to run is a tacit a imission that he will accept the nomination if tendered him. He says:
"I am in full accord with your view that prominent democrats, hints at a bolt if nation, that the local sentiment and belief of our democratic masses upon the great question of currency reform, which will overshadow every other issue in the cam-paign of 1896, should be reflected in the patform to be adopted at Dubuque and Chibimetallic standard to another class, should be tolerated or endured. Malcolm Forbes in Milton, Mass., there came into the world yesterday a brown filly, which by birthright, should make the fastest trotting mare in the world. The parents of this little filly are Nancy Hanks, with a record of 20t. and the equally famous stallion, Arien, 2:97%. This is a combination which Mr. Forbes has sought for a long time, and which was the end he had in view when he acquired Nancy Hanks and Arion over a year ago. Dr. Osgood of the Harvard veterinary school attended the great Nancy officially. His report to the anxious owner last night was conveyed in the regulation phrase, "Both mother and child doing well."

> FRENCHMAN HAS ONE YET TO WIN Chlengo Man Made Two Magnificent

Runs and Played with His Old Time Dash-Ives Started Out Well.

NEW YORK, April 4.-The last game of the New York series of the international bilconcert hall tonight. The contestants were Frank C. Ives and Jake Schaeffer. The sec ond meeting of these well known experts at the new eighteen-inch game attracted even a larger crowd of spectators than that which witnessed their first game last Wednesday night. Out of the five games last week Ives won three and Schaeffer two while Garnier lost four. There was just a possibility that the Americans would tie tonight, but there were very few who thought that Schaeffer would be able to beat the young Napoleon and secure a tie. Ives on his wonderful form during the week, having a decided favorite. Alfred d'Oro, the world's teenth inning, thus leaving Jake 165 points behind. The Chicago man then began a magnificent run. He soon got perfect con-trol of the ivories and when he had gathered 100 the cheers which greeted him were deaf ening. At 150 the applause was renewed. With his 165th shot he tied the score and did not quit until he had gathered in 176 points, missing a three-cushion carom. This was indeed a lucky thirteenth for Schaeffer and he received an ovation. The score then stend: Ives 267: Schaeffer, 278. Neither man scored in the following inning ves soon reduced the slight lead which Schaeffer held and ran up a fine bunch of eighty-three. Schaeffer then made another wonderful run, adding 159 to his string. In the last inning Schaeffer required just forty seven points to finish the game and he got them in an unfinished run, beating Ives by sixty-six. This makes a tie between Ives and Schaeffer, which will be played off in Chicago next month. The second series will open in Boston on April 13. Summary: Ives-48, 0, 11, 129, 34, 1, 9, 2, 0, 0, 0,

SCHAEFFER MADE IT A TIE Prof. J. G. Leonard

The Eminent Medium and Clairvoyant.

Will be at the Paxton Hotel Until Saturday Evening, April 11th, 1896.

Knowledge of the future is power for the present, know your future and guide yourself accordingly; you can do this by consulting Professor Leonard, recognized by the press, medical faculty and scientists of both hemispheres as the most distinguished medium of modern times.

If you are in doubt that he can perform all he claims, feel yourself invited to call and he will give you more substantial proof of his marvelous power than you have ever before received from mortal. Don't fail to see him if made 1,800 points in forty-four innings, was you are interested in the affairs of life. If marriage, sickness, deaths, changes, champion pool expert, was the referee. travels, divorces, separations, law suits, Ives gathered in thirty-three in the thirbusiness transacitons, investments of whatever nature, wills, deeds, mortgages, lost or stolen property, hidden treasures, lost or absent friends interest you; if you care to know what you should do to be successful, where you should go and whom to avoid; if you desire to have your domestic troubles removed, your lost love restored, your bitterest enemies converted into staunch friends; in a word, whatever may be your troubles, suspicions or desires, call on this gifted man and he will send you away happier, wiser and bolder than ever before

He advises you with a certainty, by a higher than human power as to the proper course to pursue in life. His descriptions of your friends and enemies are as real as though they stood before you. Call and test the professor to your heart's content, and you will depart thoroughly satisfied that there is at least one reliable medium and clairvoyant in your midst. Nothing in life is too obscure for Professor Leonard to

WHAT PROMINENT MEN SAY.

Professor Leonard desires that it shall be distinctly understood that the testimonials following are only a few of the many he has, and that they have been given him without solicitation and with the request that they be published or not, at his discretion. In every instance Professor Leonard considers that his power is of a character that makes its intuitions inviolable, and only by express permission does he use the words of grateful appreciation of his heneficiaries to prove his assertion that by virtue of his gifts multitudes have been told of thoughts unuttered and events hidden in the past, and the mysteries of the future revealed to them by him.

The following are submitted as indicating the estimation in which Professor Leonard is held by the most eminent professional people in the land. Read them carefully and be convinced: WHAT PROMINENT MEN SAY.

MAYOR E. B. FISHER OF GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN, Michigan.

Mayor E. B. Fisher of Grand Rapids, Mich.: Professor Leonard is the most wonderful man I ever met. His feets are simply astonishing, and I cannot frame words strong enough to express my astonishment. We are indeed a strange world, filled with strange people, and I am simply an infant. That man told me things that no one knew except God and myself, and performed miracles that would have condemned him to death a few years ago.

TONIGHT F. E. SEARLE, PRESIDENT MARINE NA-TIONAL BANK, DULUTH, MINN. Professor J. G. Leonard. Dear Sir—I do not know what others may think of your prophetic or occult powers, but it gives me pleasure to assure you that predictions you made for me several months ago at Minneapolis, and which I then did not believe would come to pass, have been fully realized. They were of such a nature, and at the time seemed to me so improbable, that the result was supprising, and I cheerfully bear this testimony to your great gift—your marvelous ability to apparently look into the future.

HON. THOMAS F. CARROLL, POSTMASTER OF GRAND RAPIDS, MICH. Hon. Thomas F. Carroll, postmaster of Grand Rapids, Mich., says Professor Leonard is the best he ever met in his line of business.

MR. ROLAND REED, TH" ACTOR. Mr. Roland Reed, the actor—an extract of what he said in public: "Profess: Leonard is the hardest problem I ever met, and I have met thousands in my time. He is certainly uncanny, unreal and I do not think that—well, I don't know what to think. He told me of a family affair that occurred sixteen years ago, and as it was a family secret it beats me how he knew about it. I feel as if I had been in the spirit world."

THE HON. FRANK GILMAN, REPRESENTA-TIVE IN IOWA LEGISLATURE AND BANKER, HAMBURG, IOWA. Your powers are most wonderful and convince

MR. G. W. BARNHART, GENERAL FREIGHT AGENT OF ST. LOUIS SOUTH-WESTERN RAILWAY.

Mr. G. W. Barnhart, General Freight Agent of St. Louis Southwestern railway, says if any person consults Professor Leonard and is not satisfied with the consultation he will refund the fee that was paid to Professor Leonard.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 7, 1893,—Professor Leonard is an expert in occultism.

JOHN W. HOLTZMAN,
Prosecuting Attorney,

Professor J. G. Leonard—Dear Sir: I wish to add my testimony—most wonderful and surpris-ing. W. C. SMITH, General Freight Agent Missouri Pacific Ry. St. Joseph, Mo., April 17, 1893.—Professor J. G. Leonard—Dear Sir: It affords me pleasure to testify to your wonderful powers. There is no necessity to mention your work in detail; you are simply a wonder. Yours truly.

GEO BLACK,

Cashier German-American Chicago, Aug. 16, 1894.—Prof. J. G. Leonard—Dear Sir: My wife and I have had the pleasure of attending two exhibitions of your mysterious power, and we do not hesitate to acknowledge that it is the most wonderful demonstration we ever saw. Respectfully, A. S. DODGE, General Trafile Manager St. Louis Southwestern Railway, St. Louis, Mo.

Students of psychical phenomena, especially those who are investigating Oriental mysticism, will find much to entertain and perpiex them by visiting J. G. Leenard, a professor of occult sciences. He certainly is a most entertaining exponent of a most interesting and fascinating study.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Profesor Leonard is certainly an oraculiar genius, but where lies his power? That is a question that has not been answered yet.—Kan-sas City Times.

Whatever be the accurate word by which to designate Professor Leonard's calling, there is one thing certain—he is the possessor of powers which the ordinary man cannot understand.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Leonard is a wonder. He possesses powers which astonish and perpiex the most skeptical. Yesterday he located a woman's husband that had been missing for nine years.—Duluth (Minn.) Eyening Heraid, Nov. 3, 1892.

Professor Leonard is unfathomable.-Welling-ton (New Zealand) Times.

Professor Leonard is a veritable psychical won-der.—New York World. Professor Leonard claims little, but does much. Honolulu (Sandwich Islands) Herald. Profesor Leonard proves to an unbelieving audionce of citizens that he is possessed of gifts and powers which do not, from appearances, belong to the material.—Minneapolis Tribune.
