Men's Clothing

TWELVE HUNDRED MEN can save almost half from the usual cost of a new spring suit of clothes by coming to Haydens' this week.

this week. HALF THE PRICE AND TWICE THE WEAR. These are the points that make our Clething so popular. Consider what this might mean to you in a year's buying. The might mean to you in a year's ouying. The lose falls on large Rochester manufacturers, who traded us their entire spring stock of men's Suits for some nimble dollars. We are doubling the clothing sales of last season. We are saving money for all who share in our good fortune.

our good fortune. Men's newest style Spring Suits at $3.75-List week we placed on sale about 900 all wool Suits at $3.75 and $5.00. Nearly all the $3.75 Suits have been sold. Tomorrow we add another large lot of Suite with the we add another large lot of Sulte with the 500 left over and place them on sale at less than half their value. Only $3.75 for an all wool, well made, Business Suit. Com-pare them with any $7.50 Suit in the city. At $5.00, a handsome all wool black clay worsted square or round cut Sack Suit, well made, lined with fine Princess serge, hand-somely slik piped; that other stores sell for $10.00. You can come any day this week and get any size, from 34 to 42. Suit for a

DR. MARY E. GREEN,

In her course of lectures on hygienic food before the Woman's club last week, had occusion to refer to chesse. Dr. Green stated that she had been to all the stores in Omaha handling cheese and that at Hay-den Bros.' she found as fine a line of select goods as she had ever seen. "Praise from such a source is praise indeed," and we have to thank the learned doctor for her
