Within forty minutes from the time the river and harbor bill was reported to the house, under a suspension of rules, a bill carrying ten millions of dollars was passed. Ayes and nays were demanded, but only eighteen representatives stood against the measure when it came to a showdown. The rest of the lower house of congress had re-ceived some of the pap which the bill carries. One of the surprises connected with the passage of this bill occurred when the item of $80,000 was read for revetments along the Missouri river at Omaha and Council Bluffs. Originally the bill carried an apmore succeeded in getting the committee in a wrapper bearing the brand. Each cheese to add $30,000 to the amount originally provided. When it is remembered that this bill carries for the Missouri river commission but $250,000 yearly for three years, as against $750,000 a year, as provided by former congrosses, it will be seen how liberally Omaha and Council Bluffs have been treated.

CALLS CIVIL SERVICE A FARCE.

Mr. Allen spoke for the retention of the old system with its country postmasters and arraigned civil service as a farce. In this connection Mr. Allen said: "The great-est mugwump of the day is in the white house. It is difficult, to determine whether he is greater as a mugwump or as an im-perial democratic dictator. TO PERFORM WITH A FEATHER-

A CLOWN INTRODUCES HIMSELF-

In such a manner as to attract immediate but not lasting attention-not so with Han-nan & Sons' men's shoes-they have to be tried before they can be appreciated-we've just got in their blacks and tans on a new round toe last-and a lot of low insteps-something heretofore lacking-always com-fortable.

PEN PICTURES PLEASANTLY AND POINTEDLY PUT.

That's because he's a bird-so is the Spalding wheel a bird-and you'll say the same of our grand spring opening which takes place next Friday and Saturday-April 10 and 11-music and souvenirs-all bloyclists invited-spiendid abow of wheels and a grand, good time promised-ladies especially invited. Open evenings. Is a difficult feat-but not near as diffi-cult as finding a substitute for the "Jewel" gasoline stove-absolutely safe-can't ex-plode-simplest stove made-uses a third less gasoline than any-only stove having the "hlue lighter" on the single generator, which lights the onner burners-prices way down-too.
