TREASURY SENDS OUT A SPECIAL AGENT

Report of that Official, It is Hoped, Will Expedite Matters and Lead to the Early Commencement of Construction Work.

WASHINGTON, April 8 .- (Special Telegram.)-It has been discovered here that the Treasury department some days since sent a confidential agent to South Omaha to examine the several sites offered to the government for the new federal building. While, of course, the identity of the tressury agent is carefully concealed, his report, which is expected in the near future, will do much, it is hoped by Congressman Mercer, to expedite the plans for the building. Mr. Mercer is bending every energy to his effort to induce the Treasury department to begin work on the South Omaha postoffice as soon as possible. The sending of a special agent to South Omaha is looked upon as an indication that his efforts are meeting with partial success.

Unexpectedly the alcohol bill, which has been hanging fire in the ways and means committee, came up this morning and occupled the whole time of the committee to the exclusion of everything else. Nothing definite was determined upon at the session, at least nothing that could be given to the press, according to Chairman Dingley. So many failures have occurred in the plans for the subcommittee reporting the Transmis-elesippi exposition bill to the full committee that a feeling was manifest in the Nebraska delegation that General Grosvenor was holding the bill back for some reason not apparand it was decided to bring influe bear on the chairman to have the bill reported this week. Representative Mercer went after General Grosvenor first, followed by several other members of the delegation called things by their right names. Mr. Grosvenor when seen by a Bee correspondent stated that he would make every effort to report the bill on Friday, that he was anx-lous to report it because he would be absent from the city most of next week, and for that reason he wanted the bill in possession of the full committee that a hearing might be had on its merits.

PLACES RESTRICTIONS ON RACING. Bill to Make New York Regulations Applicable in the District.

WASHINGTON, April 8 .- The Bartlett racing bill, to permit horse racing in the District of Columbia, was today favorably acted upon by the District of Columbia committee of the house. The bill is to authorize the incorporation of racing organizations. Under it meetings may be held only between April 30 and November 1, and between sunrise and sunset, and there cannot be more than forty days of racing on any track in a season. A racing commission is to be established to supervise meetings; all races must be held under the New York Jockey club rules, and steeplechasing under the rules of the National Steeplechas association. Amendments tional Steeplechase association. Amendments have been added to the bill to prevent pool selling and betting. Not only are heavy penalties provided, but bets are to be recovered by civil action. The bill was supported by by civil action. The bill was supported by the New York Jockey club and prominent sporting men. Anthony Comstock and various reform organizations have opposed it.

The Matabeles were armed with every kind of rifle and gun imaginable and seemed to have a good supply of ammunition. But the position occupied by Gifford was admira-ble. As a result, only two of Gifford's troopers and several of his natives were killed. Reinforcements have now reached Gifford and he will continue the work of destroying the fortified enclosures of the natives.

Propose to Keep Kassala. ROME, April 8.—The official dispatches which have been received from the seat of war in Abyssinia leave it doubtful whether General Bald'ssera's order to Colonel Stevan William Smith of Dillon, Mont., is here with a shipment of cattle. to retire from Kassala with his column upor to retire from Kassala with his column upon Agodart, half way between Kassala and Massowah, implies the complete evacuation of Kassala by the Italians. It is surmised, however, that Kassala may continue to be held by a garrison commanded by Major H'dalgo, which is considered strong enough to hold the place against offensive movements, though not strong enough to take the offensive against the dervishes.

ENGLAND HAS A HARD TASK

English People Agitated Over Proposed Banishment of Misstonneles, LONDON, April 8.—There is much indignation in England over the intention of the sultan of Turkey to exclude Christian missionaries from Asta Minor, and those who were active in measures in behalf of the Armenians take a leading part also in voicing the public sentiment in this direction. The case of Rev. G. P. Knapp, the American missionary at Bittlis, who is detained at Diarbekir, is attracting much attention. A special meeting of the Armenian Relief committee was held today to give expression of opinions on this subject. The duke of Argyle presided and he stated that the duke of Westminster had received information that hostile measures against the Christian missionaries were contemplated by

URGES THE GOVERNMENT TO ACT.

The secretary of the committee reported that an irade bad apparently been signed decreeing the missionaries should be ban-ished and that Rev. Mr. Knapp's withdrawal was viewed with consternation by his col-leagues and would be most disastrous in

After hearing these statements of the sitafter hearing these statements of the aution, which were confirmatory of the news published in the press, the meeting adopted a resolution, introduced by Canon Gore, protesting against the measure threatened by the cultan and urging the British government to do its utmost to secure the immediate withdrawal of the irade.

The case of Mr. Knapp was made the sub-ject of a special expression. C. E Schwann, ject of a special expression. C. E Schwann, radical members of Parliament for North Manchester, proposed a resolution to the effect that the committee, having heard with deep regret of the imprisonment of Mr. Knapp at Diarbekir, earnestly request the government to take immediate steps to ob-tain the release of Mr. Knapp, whose self-consisting of Canon Gore, Prof. Bert and Sir J. Kennaway, conservative members of Parliament, to wait upon Mr. Arthur Balfour, first lord of the treasury, and to urge upon him to increase the number of British consuls in Asiatic Turkey, as their presence there has a salutary restraining the outrages upon the and in giving countenance to the work of relief by the missionaries.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 7.—(Via Sofia, Bulgaria, April 8.)—The publicity given to the case of Rev. George P. Knapp by the Associated press has caused considerable excitement in official circles and explanations which were not previously forthcoming are now to be had at first hand. The Turkish minister for foreign affairs, Tewfik Pasha late this evening voluntarily declared that while it was true that Rev. Mr. Knapp, the missionary at Bitlis, is detained at Diarbekir the missionary is well treated and is a "guest" at the residence of the vall of Diarbekir. It is not denied, however, that it was intended to expel Mr. Knapp from Asiatic Turkey. But it is possible that the representative of the United States charge d'affaires, Mr. John W. Riddle, may succeed in obtaining from the Porte conces sions which otherwise might have been re-fused, and that the missionary may be brought here for trial in the presence of a representative of the United States, which s understood to be the course advocated by Minister Terrell.

Mr. Riddle, however, is awaiting a repor from Diarbekir, relative to the case of Rev. Dr. Knapp, before taking any further official steps in the matter. It is also hoped that the atention which has been drawn to the expulsion of Christian missionaries and agents of the Red Cross society from Asiatic Turkey may have sufficient weight with the sultan to prevent the carrying out of this plan, which, it is said, originated with a power very friendly at present to Turkey, and had for its ultimate object the substitution for the expelled missionaries of the emissaries of another church.

REFORMERS HELD FOR TREASON.

Court Has Not Decided Whether to Allow Bail to Be Given. LONDON, April 9.—A dispatch from Pretoria to the Times says: In the landdrost court today all of the members of the Reform committee were committed for trial at the next session of the high court on a charge of high treason for their participation in the Johannesburg uprising. The landdrost court reserved its decision, as to whether or not to allow ball until it had consulted the state attorney. A Capetown dispatch to the Times confirms report that Hon. Cecil Rhodes with fever. A Pretoria dispatch to the Daily Telegraph says: Mr. Chamberlain's message was received by the Transvaal government today to the effect he did not intend to send further English troops to South Africa. message has had a good effect. President Kruger said he would do his utmost to modify the points of the discussion between himself and England, as he was most anxious to proceed to London and he was convinced the Volksraad would not object when in understood the necessity for the visit.

SAVED FROM NICOTINE.

Father and Son Set Free at Asheviile, N. C.

Little Charley Fogleman Used To-baco Since Babyhood, and His baco Since Babyhood, and His Father Smoked and Chewed for the Past Twenty Years.

ASHEVILLE, N., C.—(Special.)—"Is that true?" asked the News man at Pelham's Pharmacy, as he laid down a letter in the presence of a dozen interested customers. "Yes, it is," promptly answered the proprietor. "It was written here on one of our letterheads and signed by J. C. Fog'eman, who lives at No. 5 Buxton street. We all know he is a man of his word.

This is what the letter said:
Office of Pelham Pharmacy, 24 Patton avenue, Asheville, N. C.: Gentlemen—My little boy, now 8 years, began chewing tobacco when 3 years old by the advice of our family physician, in the place of stronger stimulants. Four weeks ago I began giving him No-To-Bac, which I bought at Pelham's Pharmacy, and to my great surprise and delight No-To-Bac completely cured him. He does not care for tobacco and is very much improved in health, eats heartily and has a much better color.

improved in health, eats heartily and has a much better color.

"Finding such results from the use of No-To-Bac I began myself, and it cured me after using tobacco, in all forms, for twenty years.

"I make this plain statement for the benefit of others. (Signed) J. C. FOGLEMAN."

"What's that?" asked Chief of Police H. S. Hawkins, whose manly form, attired in the new police uniform, like Solomon in all his glory, came to the door.

"Why, No-To-Boc cures!"

"Cures? Why I should say so. I used it myself. It cured me. I bought one box of No-To-Bac from Pelham and was cured after using tobacco-chiefly chewing-for eight (8) or ten (19) years."

Everybody looked astonished and wondered what would next turn up.

"Suppose it don't cure" some one asked.

"Then you get your money back," replied the druggist. "No-To-Bac is made by the Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago, Montreal and New York, and every druggist in America is authorized to sell No-To-Bac under an absolute guarantee to cure or money refunded. They always do the square thing. Here, read their famous booklet, 'Don't Tobacco Spit and In It." Written guarantee and free sample mailed for the asking.
