DERMATOLOGY.

Pleads Not Guilty to Every Count in the ease, containing the statement, over the signature of the police judge, that Western Cattle Will Be Ready to Market Information.

Intention is to Regip the Trial Monday Morning Unless Effort to Get a Continuance Succeeds.

The dilatory tactics pursued by the attorwho is charged with embezzlement, occupied the time of the criminal branch of the district court during the entire morning yesterday, but their motions and various other proceedings were finally disposed of and the defendant was arraigned by the county attorkey and entered a plea of not guilty to each of the sixteen counts in the information. The case was taken up soon after court convened, and the first procedure was a motion on the part of the defendant to strike from the files what purported to be the original warrant of arrest and the information filed in the police court, both of which were attached to the transcript in the case. It was contended that they were not a part of the transcript and that there was no authority in law for attaching them.

The county attorney took the position that it had been the practice to send the original papers in order that the court might be informed as to the papers on which the action of the lower court was based.

Judge Baker overruled the motion to strike out, remarking that it was necessary to have the original papers or copies and he thought the originals were the best, The court ordered the defense to present its proof in support of the plea in abatement. The defense objected to having the burden of proof upon it, saying that the point had been raised that there was no preliminary hearing in the police court and that the defendant had not waived his right to a hearing, and it therefore devolved upon the prosecution to show that there were such proceedings in the lower court.

The court ruled that the defendant must assume the burden of proof, as he had raised the point, and the case was ordered to trial. The defense objected to trying the point without a jury, and refused to demand a jury. The defendant's attorneys and the court had a war of words over this point, the court instructing the attorneys that a jury would be called if they demanded it, but they refused to make a demand and in reply to repeated questions refused to waive a jury. The court then made an entry to the effect that a jury had been demanded and that the lemand was overruled. The defense was then ordered to produce its evidence. The records of the police court were introduced for the purpose of showing

There are some people who have piles as frequently and regularly as other people

Any little bowel trouble will bring them on, any extra exertion, as in lifting, will produce them, and in fact will often appear without any apparent provocation. Piles, however, are much more serious than a cold, as the tendency is always to grow worse until the trouble becomes deep seated and chronic, or develops into some fatal rectal disease.

While there are many pile remedies which give relief, yet there is but one which not only gives instant relief, but at the same time makes a permanent cure, and that is the well known Pyramid Pile Cure.

The remedy is composed of simple, harmess vegetable ingredients, but combine so effectively and act so promptly and thor-oughly that it cures every form of piles, whether itching, blind, bleeding or protrud-In long standing cases the Pyramid Pile Cure has proven to be the only certain cure except a surgical operation, and its advan-tages over an operation are many, as it is painless, causes no delay or interference with daily occupation and, last, but, not least, is cheaper than any surgical operation could possibly be, costing but a dollar a package at any drug store.

The cases that the Pyramid Pile Cure will not reach are so few that physicians are do ing away with operations for piles and de-pending on this cheap-but effective remedy to accomplish a complete cure, and it never disappoints except in cases beyond the reach of medical skill.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co., of Albion, Mich., and for sale by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package. Each package contains a treatise on cause and cure of piles, together with testimonials from every section of this coun-

This was overruled, and the defense filed a general demurrer to the effire informa-tion, alleging that it did not constitute a ground for prosecution. This was also over-ruled, and the defendant was arraigned. The reading of the information occupied about twenty minutes, and to each count, as it was read, Bolln entered a plea of not

After the arraignment, the county attorney gave notice that he was ready for trial, but suggested that it would not be wise to start with the trial until Monday. The defense gave notice that a motion for a continuance gave notice that a motion for a continuance would be filed, and it was agreed, after consultation, that this motion would be filed Saturday morning and the case would be called for trial Monday, unless the motion was sustained. The defense alleged that the attorneys, having been recently retained in the case, had not had the necessary time to look up the evidence required to make a de-fense, as the books of the treasurer had not been accessible to them at all times.

Captain McCormick has announced that the club runs will begin in the near future He is an old bicyclist, has a knowledge of the country surrounding the city, and, more over, will set 'em up frequently to the boys who come out. In consequence, it is ex-pected that the club runs will be the most enjoyable of any that will be undertaken by the bicycling clubs of the city.

Extensive improvements are being made in the cozy club rooms in the Boyd theater building, which will make them one of the frest bicycling headquarters in Omaha. This fact, together with the club runs of the season, is expected to largely increase the big membership that has remained over the winter, Many applications for membership are being received already.

VANDERBILT AND DEPEW ENROUTE. Their Coming Gives Rise to Another

Union Pacific Sale Rumor. General Manager Dickinson of the Union Pacific was expected to meet Cornelius Vanderbilt, chairman of the board, and Chauncey M. Depew, president of the New York Central & Hudson River railroad, in Ogden yesterday. It was stated at Union Pacific headquarters yesterday that the party would leave Ogden for the east last night. A stop be made at Denver; if so that will probably be the only stop made between Ogden and Omaha. Secretary Orr of the executive de-partment said that it was not known whether the New York Central officials would stop in this city or not. If they should come this way they will arrive here on Friday.

The meeting of officials of the New York Central and the Union Pacific roads, it is said, gives some color to the reports' extensively printed in the eastern press at the time Messrs. Vanderbilt and Depew left for profits derived from an immense amount of grading done in this city about nine years an inspection of the Union Pacific was to be made with a view of purchasing it should it rumor has taken a new lease of life and is the sole topic of conversation among railway men. The party travels in a special train, consisting of two Vanderbilt palace cars and a Union Pacific private coach.

RAILROADS MAY MAKE OPEN RATE.

Prospect that Old Order of Affairs It is rumored that there is more probability of the railroads throwing open to the public the advantages of reduced rates for parties of ten than there is of their withdrawing the party rates from theatrical troupes. None of the local roads have received orders to such effect, but it is understood that a return to the old system of party tickets is being seriously considered in several Chicago headquarters. If such a move is made, it will doubtless be accompanied by such restrictions as will handicap the ticket broker in his manipulation of the party tickets. It would prove of incalcula-ble benefit to the weaker theatrical companies, which are being pressed to the wall by the present rate of 3 cents a mile. Many railroad men, however, laugh at the idea that such a move will be made. They say the roads will do most anything before they will return to the obnoxious rates once accorded to every party of ten or more that omes along.

These trains will leave the extreme ends of the Empire state at high noon each day. They will consist of four Pullman coaches, which will be handsomely furnished, equipped with the full-width vestibule and other modern improvements, and be fur-nished with good libraries. Fast engines, designed especially for climbing over the hills of Pennsylvania, will be used, and it is expected that some rapid time will be

Says that it is Unwise Economy Not to Publish Annual Reports. The action of the council in deciding not to publish the annual reports of 1895 is vigorously opposed by several members. Major Wheeler says that the publication of the reports is about as cheap and effective advertising as the city can obtain.

For the past decade Omaha has been ac customed to exchange reports with other metropolitan cities, Mr. Wheeler contends. and in that way a vast amount of information in regard to its progress has been dissemi-nated. Requests for these reports are re-ceived almost daily and the refusal to order the reports published is a case of unwise ports to a volume of about 250 pages, containing only the more important informati and having it printed at once.

INCENDIARISM IS SUSPECTED.

Signs of it Found in Fires at Sheely.
It is believed by officers of the fire department that Sheely was visited by incendiaries Tuesday night. Two fires occurred there early yesterday morning. The office closes at 4:30 every afternoon, and about fifteen minutes before closing develop the plans of the trust that has just time there were about 150 school been organized by the stockholders of the teachers in the outer room waiting their turn to cash their monthly salary warrants. They were arranged in an orderly line, each awaiting her turn, and were being attended to very rapidly by the treasurer. Principal Allen of the Dodge school entered the office with his warrant in his hand. He threw a withering glance at the assembled representatives of the weaker sex and approached the window where the treasurer was paying out coin in exchange for school warrants. Ignoring the fact that a long line of his associates were on the came errand and had been waiting there for some time, he shoved his warrant through the window, nearly knocking off the hat of the staid principal standing next to the window, and who was literally paralyzed at the, to her, amazing exhibition of nerve.

The treasurer, probably thinking that the quickest solution of the difficulty was the best, paid the warrant and Allen turned to go. By this time the self-possession of the assembled teachers had asserted itself, and the noise of vigorous hisses, groans, stamp-ing of feet and knocking of umbrellas filled the room. Cries of "shame," and other expressions of intense disgust, were heard above the din, and Mr. Allen glanced around in confusion, while his naturally dark skin assumed a copper hue. In a smarling way he said to those nearest him, "I haven't time to wait here all day just for you women," and he made his escape as quickly as possible.

Jim Stephenson's street sweepers are again at work on the streets. They cleaned Twenty-fourth street Tuesday night and will be kept at work until the city is generally cleaned up. No new contract has been made for street sweeping. The pressice of the machines is the result of an understanding between Stephenson and the city officials. Stephenson owes about $800 in taxes, which he says that he is unable to pay. He has made several propositions to the city to pay the taxes in work and one of them was that he would rent the city his sweepers, including the teams and men, for $5 each for each ten hours. He charged $4 for the use of the sprinkler. This proposition was accepted and three sweepers and a sprinkler were rented on these terms. The amount earned by the machines is to apply on Stephenson's taxes. Ninety Per Cent Of all the people need to take a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla at this season to pre-vent that run-down and debilitated condi-
