BOLLN SAID THAT HE TOOK IT

Testimony of Thomas Swobe in the Embezzlement Trial.

MONEY USED FOR PRIVATE PURPOSES

Part of it Sunk in Business and Part for Election Expenses_Advances Made to Friends.

At the opening of court yesterday in the Bolin trial, the direct examination of Thomas Swobe was resumed. He testified that Bolln had told him, when asked about a slip in the drawer containing the words, "Bolln, $1,000," that he had taken the amount represented by this slip and had used it for election expenses. At that time a check was made out by Coulter, in the presence of the witness and Boiln, bearing the same entries, but more in detail, and was substituted for the original slip found in the drawer. Referring to a large batch of slips, checks, memoranda, etc., the witness testified that when Bolin was asked about them he admitted that he had taken the money indicated on a large proportion of the slips charged to him, but in a few instances Bolln said he did not remember whether he got the money they represented. Mr. Swobe also stated that Bolln had said he had used some of the money "In his brick business" at Louis-ville, Neb. The full amount of the checks and slips which were attributed directly to Bolln aggregated $14,516.97. The other checks which were in the drawer were then testified to by the witness as having been given by the following parties, payable to the order of Henry Bolln, treasurer, and carried in the drawer as cash: James Stephenson, $2,444.24; John Grant, $500; G. M. Hitchcock, $240; Saunders, MacFarland & Dickey, $300; Henry Pundt, $1,000; Aaron Cahn, $1,000. The witness stated that Councilman Jacob-sen had paid in $100, of which there was no memorandum. Some of the checks afterward taken up by the makers, and othwere not. On cross-examination, Swobe testified that

On cross-examination, Swobe testined that the cash book showed that there should have been in the cash drawer, the morning of June 19, when he took charge of the cage, the sum of $26,421.68. The bundle of checks, aggregating about $5,500, the witness testi-fied, were not carried as assets of the office. Asked if he knew what these checks re-Asked if he knew what these checks re-presented, Swobe said that Bolin had told him that the checks of Stephenson and Grant represented money advanced on their con-tracts with the city. The checks of Hitchcock represented money borrowed from Bolla. The Cahn check had been given in payment for taxes and was taken up the morn-ing the witness took charge. In response to another question, the witness said he did not remember a check for $1,050 given by W. W. Lowe, which had been turned over by John Rush to Bolln and which had been carried as cash.

MONEY FOR ELECTION PURPOSES. The attorney for the defense attempted to draw from the witness a statement that Frank Johnson had admitted to the witness that the $10,000 deposited in the Midland State bank belonged to the school fund, but the question was ruled out He testified, however, that he had gone with Bolin to demand the $10,000 form the head but the demand the $10,000 from the bank, but met with a refusal.

Referring to the check for $1,000 given by Boln, which Boln admitted having used for election purposes, it was attempted to show that Bolln had told the witness that he had faken the money as an advance of two months' salary, intending to put it back, but the witness denied that Bolln had made such statement to him.

On re-direct examination the witness said the checks referred to by him were given to Bolln by the makers, and were not entered on the cash books. The treasurer sim-ply drew his check as treasurer and the money was drawn from the bank, the city funds simply being decreased by the amount thus drawn out, with no corresponding off-he had been instructed by the city council to check up the cash in the ircasurer's office and that he had informed Bolin of such in-

His Entire Receipts from the Soda Fountain for Saturday Turned Over to the Presbyterian Hospital. The ladies' aid to the Presbyterian hospital held open house at Kuhn & Co.'s drug store yesterday. Arrangements for the affair had been com pleted some time ago, and it was pretty thoroughly advertised, so that the total receipts of the day mounted up to uncountable stacks of red chips and blue chips, netting a handsome profit for the benefit of the hospital.

KUHN GAVE IT AWAY.

The room was handsomely decorated with smilax and flowers and beautiful women, smilax and flowers and beautiful women, who dispensed Kuhn's delicious drinks at Kuhn's expense, assisted by donations of all the cream used in the soda water, from the Waterloo creamery, and the Ican from Miss Burtg-field of her beautiful punch bowl valued at $100. Rachman. Detectives Hudson, Bloom and Donahue vesterday recovered a quantity of tobacco and cigars which are supposed to have been stolen from the grocery store of M. Rachman. They were found in a barber shop at Twentleth and Plerce streets, run by Tony and Joe Calabra. Both men were arrested on sus-Only a part of the goods stolen were recovered. A quantity of candles, cigarettes and groceries are still out of sight. The store was rebbed on April 9. The thickes en-tered the place through a cellar door, which they opened with a skeleton key. They at-tempted to force the door at the head of the stairs, but finding it too stout they entered by tearing a hole through the wall.

The Calabras maintained that they had urchased the goods from a stranger and had no knowledge that they were stolen.

Every lady knows that in the matter of style we Americans have always been a season behind.

Efforts have been made from time to time to overcome this condition of things, but without success until now. Just before the close of 1895 a representative of a syndicate of leading dry goods houses arranged with fourteen of the leading modelers of Europe to furnish the syndicate twice a year, in April and September, two il ustrations each of coming styles. These twenty eight styles are published in book form -half in colors-and we take pleasure in stating that as a member of the syndicate before referred to we have the exclusive right on this unique and elegant publication for this city, E. Agt., Referring to the bundle er checks which represented amounts taken from the cash drawer by Bolln, the witness testified that he had, in the presence of other parties in Bolln's private office, handed the checks separately to Bolln, and had asked him if he remembered getting the money those checks represented. Bolln admitted, the witness represented by all of the checks, except one for $500 and another, which he said repre-sented taxes on his own property. The witness also testified that at the time

Swebe took charge of the effice the witness and J. W. Fead made a cursory examination of the accounts of the office to determine about the condition of affairs.

The county attorney sought to show by this witness the result of this investigation, but the objection was raised that there was nothing to show that the witness was an ex-pert accountant. The county attorney then attempted to show that the witness, by virtue of his position as comptroller, was an expert, but the attempt was not successful, and the effort was abandoned.

TOOK OUT A SACK OF GOLD.

J. K. Coulter, deputy under Bolln, was re-called. He identified a memorandum of $1,000, which was charged to Bolln. At the time Bolln got the money he told the with ness that he had taken a sack of gold containing $1,000 out of the safe in the vault of the treasurer's office, and told the witness to make a memorandum of the amount The witness said he did not know what Bolin did with the money. The money was the money of the city and was taken just before the election in November, 1893. The witness identified a check, dated February 2, and calling for $500; a memorandum slip calling for $50 check dated functional line for for $50; a check dated January 21, 1895, call-ing for $2,000; a check for $1,000, dated De-cember 27, 1894; a check for $1,000, dated August 28, 1894; a check for $2,500, dated January 22, 1895; a check for $50 drawn on one of Bolln's personal check blanks and carried in the drawer as cash; a check for $500; a check on one of Bolln's personal check blanks for $65; a check, dated August 15, 1894, for $500; a check for $1,177.28 on Boiln's blank, drawn by himself; a check for $500, dated August 1, 1894, all of which represented money obtained by Bolln either by taking cash from the drawer or by a check on the city funds in bank drawn by Coulter as deputy or by Bolln himself, no entry of which was made on the cash book. PAID A GAS BILL.

The witness also identified a draft for $65 a gas bill for Bolln's house, which had been paid out of the cash drawer by the witness under direct instructions from Bolla. A check for $200 drawn by Bolla to the order check for $200 drawn by Bolin to the order of "Mrs. Clements" the witness did not re-member having seen. The check was signed "Henry Bolin" and was identified by the witness as being in Bolin's handwriting. The check was not offered in evidence. A check for $500 drawn by Julius Treitschke to the order of Henry Bolin, representing the balance due on a liquor license, was identified by the witness, who said it was sent to the bank and thrown out. It came back and was not carried as cash. Two checks of $200 each, written on blank checks of "E. D. Van Court & Co." and signed "E. D. Van Court," were identified by the witness as checks which were cashed by the witness with city funds under the instructions of Bolin. They were paid by checks drawn on city funds. One check was endorsed, showing that $220 had been paid on it, the other had no endorsement Two notes given by Ed Wittig to Henry Bolin for $250 each and a check for $500 were identified by the wilness as having been given in payment for a liquor license, but had never been paid. A note for $250 given by Christ, Toft to Bolin in part payment for a liquor license was identified as having been carried as cash, but not paid. A check drawn by John Groves for $208.33 was identified by the witness as having been cashed with city funds and carried as cash.

"In one year's time this will be the only costume book left in America."

Every illustration is signed and guaranteed authentic. It was the intention to sell the book at $1.00, but as a special attraction we will sell a limited number at 10 cents each, at our book counter.

The few ladies who have seen the book have gone into ecstacies over it, and have pronounced it a thorough work of art.

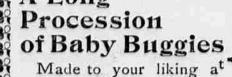

Every lady who bows to Dame Fashion must have one.
