

VOTE ON BOND ISSUE TODAY

Senate Decides that it Has Had About Enough Talking.

WOLCOTT GETS SOME OF HILL'S SARCASTIC

Motion to Refer the Resolution to the Finance Committee is Lost by a Vote of 17 to 15.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The final vote on the resolution for an investigation of recent bond issues will be taken in the senate at 4 p. m. tomorrow. An agreement to this effect was reached late today after several test votes had been taken, which clearly disclosed the sentiment of the senate on the resolution. The first vote taken was on the motion of Mr. Sherman to refer the resolution to the finance committee. This was defeated—Yeas, 17; nays, 15.

An amendment by Mr. Lodge was then adopted, providing that the investigation should be conducted by the regular finance committee instead of a special committee. As at first proposed. Another amendment by Mr. Vilas, proposing modifications in the resolution, was voted down, the affirmative vote being only seven. After these tests the agreement was reached for a final vote, when the resolution undoubtedly will pass. The voting came after Mr. Hill had added another lively installment to his speech, including a sharp criticism of Mr. Pettigrew and a personal exchange with Mr. Wolcott, when the latter tried to call Mr. Hill to order.

Mr. Callom, republican of Illinois, introduced a resolution for the purpose of amending the resolution on the subject of the investigation of the houses on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bills, although many items were yet open. The main feature of agreement is on the salary of United States district attorneys and marshals, a schedule of the rate ranging from $3,500 to $5,000 a year, agreed on being submitted.

A difference of opinion developed between the two Florida senators, Mr. Call and Mr. Pacey, as to the resolution of Mr. Call, requesting the president to protest against the execution of the American citizens taken on the schooner Comptroller by a Spanish gunboat. Mr. Call wanted immediate action. Mr. Sherman moved to refer the resolution to the committee on foreign affairs.

Mr. Call protested, saying that with death hanging over American citizens, the senate should act.

CUBAN QUESTION BOSS UP.

Mr. Pacey differed with Mr. Call, saying he had several interviews with the Cuban representative and had learned that Mr. Olney was doing everything possible in all of this class of cases.

Mr. Call expressed vigorous disagreement with Mr. Pacey's position. The resolution was referred.

Following this another of Mr. Call's resolutions for the investigation of alleged irregularities in Florida was referred to the committee on privileges and elections by a vote of 25 to 20.

The possibility of a revival of the Cuban question was again brought up by Mr. Morgan, democrat of Alabama, moved to refer to the committee on foreign relations the resolution he introduced some time since for the recognition of the independence of Cuba. Mr. Morgan said, "I have some news from Cuba, he said, since congress passed the Cuban resolutions, and he desired now to take the case to the committee on foreign relations on the basis of facts developed since the resolution passed. I believe the time has arrived, proceeded Mr. Morgan, when we should declare that a state of war exists there. We should not be left in doubt as to whether we are to be controlled by Spain without regard to its effects on the Cubans, without declaring that a state of war exists there. No nation can do this while claiming that no war exists. I hope some energetic and determined action will be taken before this congress adjourns. I do not believe that congress can afford to adjourn leaving this question in its present state before the war is over."

The resolution was referred in accordance with Mr. Morgan's request.

The river and harbor bill was then taken up. All amendments were agreed to until the item for a deep water harbor in Santa Monica bay, California, was reached. This went over on request of Mr. White in view of a sharp contest which is expected.

CLOSURE FOR BOND DEBATE.

At 2 o'clock the bill was laid aside and the bond resolution was taken up. Mr. Hill taking the floor to continue his speech. Mr. Peffer attempted to amend the resolution, but Mr. Hill again declined to consent.

"Then," said Mr. Peffer, "I give notice that objection will be made to every other proceeding of the senate on this resolution, and also that senators will be asked to remain until a vote is had."

"The course mapped out by the senator from Kansas," answered Mr. Hill, smilingly, "will not inconvenience us; it will only inconvenience other senators who desire to transact public business."

Mr. Hill, taking up the thread of his speech, said he welcomed to the debate Mr. Pettigrew, who spoke yesterday. As Mr. Pettigrew had read with approval extracts from New York newspapers, Mr. Hill read, amid great laughter, the response Mr. Pettigrew had made to a toast of "The Press."

Mr. Hill also read a speech made recently at Sioux Falls, S. D., by Mr. Pettigrew, who had given a home, said Mr. Hill, to influence the primaries. Mr. Hill's running comments on the Pettigrew speech kept the senate in laughter. This was supplemented by Mr. Hill's reading of the South Dakota newspaper reports of the state convention, when, as the reports stated, "Pettigrew is turned down." "He Met His Waterloo, etc."

CABLE TO HAWAII AND JAPAN

Senate Committee on Foreign Relations Agrees on a Bill.

CONTRACT TO GO TO THE LOWEST BIDDER

Subsidy of $100,000 Per Annum Authorized and the Price of Messages Specified—Imported and Exported.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The senate committee on foreign relations today agreed to a compromise bill for a cable to Hawaii and Japan. The bill authorizes the postmaster general to enter into a contract on behalf of the United States with any company which may pay the cable, to pay a subsidy not to exceed $100,000 per year. The bill had the support of Senator Morgan and all the republican members of the committee. The other democratic senators, Messrs. Gray, Turpie, Daniel and Mills opposed the bill.

Senator Frye reported the action of the committee to the senate and in the accompanying report says that a cable to Hawaii is demanded by the exigencies of commerce. He recites the fact that while other nations have been acquiring island systems in the Pacific, Hawaii, by common consent, has been left to the United States. Reference is also made to the importance of Pearl harbor and the necessity of having telegraphic communication with the islands in case of war and in the Pacific. It is also stated that this is a favorable opportunity to secure telegraphic communication not only with Hawaii but also with other countries of the orient. This, says the report, is brought within reach upon terms that relieve the United States from the great cost and risk of maintenance as well from other aspects of the commercial value. The price is limited for private messages to Japan to almost one-third what Japan charges, while the rate for telegrams to Hawaii is provided at 10 cents per word more than the price which competition has established for messages crossing the Atlantic from Europe to Hawaii.

The report dwells upon both the economic and strategic importance of the cable. It says: "The extent to which the interests of the nation as such are involved may be seen from the fact that every telegraphic cable now crossing the Atlantic from North America has its starting point in Nova Scotia. In the event of any severance of peaceful relations between Great Britain, continental Europe and the United States, the cable would be immediately cut and would be automatically closed and this country would be dependent for telegraphic communication with all the contingencies that such a situation would involve."

The committee says the cost of the cable would be $3,000,000, the interest on the expenditure would amount to $120,000, while the cost of maintenance would amount to $50,000 per year, for the first five years. The committee says that the arrangement shall be by contract with the United States through the postmaster general to the lowest bidder, and shall be subject to the supervision of that officer. The contract relation is believed to secure the United States better control than a mere grant would give, and to give the grant an increased aspect of stability.

COMPLETES THE CIVIL SERVICE.

President Issues an Order Covering Almost Every Office.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The long expected order of the president including in the civil service most of the offices now remaining outside of the classified service was issued this afternoon.

The order will include within the civil service about 20,000 additional federal offices. Practically the only persons left outside the civil service will be assistant secretaries, heads of bureaus, and in a few cases private secretaries and advisers. The order is to take effect immediately.

It is stated at the civil service commission that the new rules add 29,239 positions to the classified list, increasing the number of classified positions from 55,336 to 84,575. The number of classified positions which are excepted from examination has been reduced from 2,959 to 775, being mainly such positions as cabinet secretaries or confidential clerks (not exceeding two) to the president and to the head of each of the eight executive departments. No position will hereafter be subject to non-competitive examination except in the cases of Indians employed in teaching capacity in the Indian service.

Insurance rates, Transmississippi exposition, June race meeting, national meeting of the Commercial Law League, Northwestern Scandinavian Singing association, state fair—all had more or less of an inning at the meeting of the Omaha Retailers' association last night in the parlors of the Commercial club.

Regarding the insurance rate matter H. O. Healy of the insurance committee reported that commission No. 4 of the insurance compact would meet in Chicago next Tuesday to consider the report of the committee, which has already appeared in local print.

The committee also condemned the action of the mayor and city council "for suspending by resolution the operation of the building ordinances of the city, thereby permitting the erection of buildings within the prescribed fire limits that do not comply with the requirements of the building material, uses and methods of construction." Such action was alleged to increase fire hazard, and consequently increase the insurance rates not only on such buildings, but others exposed by them. The committee recommended rigid sanitary inspection, as it went far in reducing the fire hazard and consequently the rates.

FURTHER ACTION ON INSURANCE RATES

QUICK ACTION IS NECESSARY.

John A. Wakefield was given the floor to speak on the Transmississippi exposition. He said the scheme was booming and the expenditure of $2,000,000 at the outset. He stated, however, that the managers had determined to take but few steps until congress recognized the big show by appropriating for a government building and exhibit.

Mr. Wakefield said that the managers had given a brick and stone streets they do not intend to give to the public. He said that the managers had given a brick and stone streets they do not intend to give to the public.

Mr. Wakefield stated that but a short time is left for people interested in the enterprise to push efforts to have the bill passed, as it is in effect on May 18. Congressman Mercer appears to be confident that it will go through. Mr. Wakefield said that a long petition would be presented to Senator Henderson today, requesting him to go to Washington to add his efforts, and it is believed that he will respond, although he has once refused. Edward Rosewater, of St. Paul, also gave a talk on behalf of the bill. In this way it is hoped that Speaker Reed will be induced to recognize it.

E. M. Bartlett was allowed to speak on the national meeting of the Commercial Law League of America, which will meet in city for four or five days during the latter part of July. He stated that the meeting would be attended by about 1,000 men, known from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and would represent an immense amount of capital.

The meetings will probably be held at the Crockett theater, and the program will include a big banquet, a huge public reception and other features.

"The idea will be to have an entertainment of men who represent a large proportion of the capital of the country the thrift, energy and prosperity of eastern Nebraska," said Mr. Bartlett.

Mr. Bartlett further said that the men who would be present would not be here so much for pleasure, but for business, and would consequently be open for a long time. They would come for rest and recreation and would be accompanied by their wives as well as their families.

BOOMING THE SPEED MEETING.

W. R. Bennett boomed the race meeting which will be held at the fair grounds on June 9 to 13 and which he said was only the beginning of a scheme to have two or three meetings here every year. He stated that at a very low estimate there would be 400 horses here, some of them the best in the country. He put in a good word for the fair grounds, which he said were the best in the country, with the exception possibly of two or three.

He stated that the Fair and Speed association intended to demonstrate also that they had one of the fastest tracks in the country, as it was one of the best, from the fact that every movement of horse or driver could be seen from the grand stand all the way around, thereby preventing any crooked work.

He asked the retailers to help the enterprise as much as they were able in selling tickets and other ways. He especially made a request that all stores be closed on one afternoon of the meeting to make it an assured success. The request was referred to the executive committee.

William Paxton, Jr., also spoke a few words in favor of the race meeting.

W. H. Wrigley, who has been invited to assist as much as possible the concert which is to be given by the Northwestern Scandinavian Singers' association on May 8. He said that it was the first of a series, the proceeds of which are to be used in defraying the expenses of the convention of the Scandinavian singing societies of the Transmississippi country, which will be held here during the state fair. He stated that some 1,000 singers would be here and would bring their friends with them. He prophesied that the occasion would bring 5,000 Scandinavians to the city from outside points.

Arrangements are being made for the establishment of a bureau of information during state fair week. This will have charge of the work of giving information re-

ARRANGING FOR MEMORIAL DAY.

Committees Appointed at a Meeting of the Grand Army Posts.

A meeting was held in The Bee building last evening by a number of members from the local Grand Army posts for the purpose of making arrangements for Memorial day.

John J. Jenkins was elected chairman of the meeting and president of the Memorial day society, with Miss Clara Fosman, secretary and Dr. S. K. Spaulding, treasurer. An executive committee composed of W. H. Durbin, Dr. Christie, W. S. Askwith, A. Troy, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Eastman and Mrs. Gilmore was selected.

Mr. Jenkins upon taking the chair stated that he had a proposition to lay before the members for the raising of funds for the purchase of flowers for decorating the graves, which he considered preferable to the usual one of soliciting money from the business men of the city. He had just received a letter from Captain Jack Crawford in which he stated that he had a proposition to lay before the members for the raising of funds for the purchase of flowers for decorating the graves, which he considered preferable to the usual one of soliciting money from the business men of the city.

POOR WORK REPLACING PAVING.

Plumbers Not Careful Enough When They Tear Up a Street. At a meeting of the Board of Public Works yesterday afternoon Contractor Corby was ordered to proceed at once with the construction of the Chicago street sewer.

The city engineer was ordered to draw up plans and specifications for repairing the Tenth and Eleventh street viaducts.

There was considerable discussion on the subject of the cuts made in the streets by the plumbers. On the asphalt streets the plumbers are compelled to pay the asphalt company to replace the pavement. But on the brick and stone streets they do the work themselves and charge the property owners what the pavement replaced originally cost.

It is impossible in which this is done is not satisfactory to the board. It is impossible to supply inspectors to watch each case and the result is that the work is not half done. Mr. Munro stated that in his opinion the only way to adjudicate the matter was to have the work done by men employed by the board and have the plumbers pay for it. This seemed to be the sentiment of the board, but the matter was left open for future action.
