FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE.

THESE ARE BARGAINS—

And we know a bargain when we see it. They have been selected from the largest list of property for sale to be found in the city, because of their desirability and cheapness.

A 9-room 1½-story house in excellent repair and admirably arranged, with beautiful lot 60x165 ft., sightly, covered with trees, good barn, in splendid neighborhood, in walking distance. Only $3,000. The vacant lot is worth it.

A brand new 5-room cottage with bath, hot and cold water, closet, sewer connection, nodded yard, trees, within the mile limit, for $2,500.

A beautiful new 7-room house with all modern improvements except furnace built on honor, double floors, etc., a rare bargain, at $3,000.

A good 8-room house in the north part of the city, fronting east on full lot, with good barn, well, cistern, picket fence, nice yard, trees, $1,425. The improvements cost more than that.

A fine 50 ft. lot fronting on one of the finest streets in the city within four blocks of the High school, $800.

An east front full lot in Hanscom Place, $750.

Have several pieces of property which we will sell for $50 more than the amount of the incumbrance. Worth investigating. Remember it is no trouble to show this property. Call and examine. Fidelity Trust Company, 1702 Farnam st. RE—964-10

ECZEMA

From early childhood until I was grown my family spent a fortune trying to cure me of this disease. I visited Hot Springs and was treated by the best medical men, but was not benefited. When all things had failed I determined to try S.S.S. and in four months was entirely cured. The terrible eczema was gone, not a sign of it left. My general health built up, and I have never had any return of the disease. I have often recommended S.S.S. and have never yet known a failure to cure.

DOUGLAS COUNTY LOSES AGAIN

Poor Farm Cases Settled by the Supreme Court at Last.

JUDGMENTS MUST BE PAID IMMEDIATELY

Appeal of the Commissioners from the Writ of Mandamus Dismissed and the Order of the Lower Court Stands.

LINCOLN, May 6.—(Special.)—The supreme court today handed down an opinion in what are generally known as the Douglas county "poor farm" cases. The one case decided, which involves them all, is that of Emery M. Stenberg against the State ex rel Charles B. Keller. This was an application to the district court of Douglas county for a peremptory mandamus to compel respondents, the Board of Commissioners of Douglas county, to take the necessary steps to cause a warrant to be issued upon the county treasurer in favor of relator, in payment of a judgment recovered in said court by Keller and George W. Doane against Douglas county for the sum of $4,832.62 and costs. The writ was ordered as prayed for, upon which the commissioners appealed to the supreme court. The court today affirmed the judgment of the district court of Douglas county. The cases involve several hundred thousand dollars. In passing upon the case the court says:

"A county board has exclusive jurisdiction to examine and pass upon claims against county property cognizable for audit and allowance, and the jurisdiction of the district court, as to such, is appellate only.

"A promissory note without consideration is invalid as between the original parties, and cannot be enforced against the maker in the hands of the payee."

George Nelson has made application to the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus. He is now in the penitentiary, having been sent there by Judge W. H. Westover of Sheridan county on March 9, 1896, for robbery from the person of Joseph Ronar of $13. In his application for the writ Nelson recites that he pleaded guilty to the crime and was sentenced to two years. It is now asserted that this action of Judge Westover's is illegal, from the fact that it was had in chambers, the district court not then being in session. Deputy Attorney General Day said that it was possible there would be no appearance on the part of the attorney general, as the case was of the exact nature of those of Vogeland, Clark and Jackson's, who had all been released on a showing of similar irregularity in their sentences, and in the same judicial district. Governor Holcomb has been petitioned by friends of Nelson's to pardon him, but the governor referred the matter to the attorney general. The case will probably be reached at the next sitting of the supreme court.

H. G. Burt of the Northwestern Railway company was in attendance today on the meeting of the State Board of Equalization, which has been in session for several days, and is likely to continue for at least a couple of weeks.

Theodore M. Roche, president of the Young Men's Democratic union of New York, has written a letter to Governor Holcomb in which he says that he encloses a copy of the bicycle baggage bill, recently signed by Governor Morton, and trusts that Governor Holcomb will do all in his power to have a similar measure enacted by the Nebraska legislature. The New York bill provides that railroad corporations shall carry bicycles at the same rates as are charged for personal baggage.

The supreme court has adjourned until the 19th inst.

Ex-Clerk Baker of the Lancaster county district court has just been obliged to pay the sum of $200.45 under rather peculiar circumstances. Some time ago John Peterson had property sold under foreclosure proceedings. The sale left some money on hand with Clerk Baker, which belonged to Peterson. A creditor of Peterson's named O'Donnell sued the former in a justice court and garnished the money in Baker's hands. Baker paid it to O'Donnell and now the district court says that the money should not have been paid over only upon an order from the district court, and, accordingly, enters up judgment against Baker for the amount above stated.

HAD SHIPPED STOLEN CATTLE.

Confession of an O'Neill Man Creates a Sensation.

O'NEILL, Neb., May 6.—(Special Telegram.)—The trial of George Barney, charged with cattle rustling, has been occupying the attention of Judge Westover in the district court here the past three days. Something of a sensation was created Monday evening when Dunham, who was tried for cattle rustling a few weeks ago and sentenced to thirty days in the county jail, confessed that Barney had shipped stolen cattle for him. Holtz made a similar confession on the former trial. They denied being in the rustling business and there is now talk of having them arrested for perjury. Barney has been found guilty. A motion for a new trial has been made and he is in the custody of the sheriff pending the arguing of the motion. The Dantch rustling case is now on.

Alfalfa Culture as an Art.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., May 6.—(Special.)—Alfalfa culture is getting to be one of the prominent features of Cass county farming and is receiving a great deal of attention from progressive agriculturists. County Commissioner J. P. Falter had on exhibition at the court house today a bunch of this product of this spring's growth, which measured twenty-two inches in length, which is considered an extraordinary showing for this early in the season. Mr. Falter says that the secret of success in raising alfalfa is to plant enough seed to get a firm stand. Nature does the rest.

Anxious to Vote Bridge Bonds.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., May 6.—(Special.)—A petition was presented to the county commissioners at the regular session yesterday from a number of citizens of Eight Mile Grove precinct, asking that a special election be called to vote bonds to build a wagon bridge across the Platte at Cedar creek into Sarpy county. The petitioners state that the latter county is willing to bear half the expense of construction. No action has been taken in the matter so far, as the petition was found to contain errors which it would be necessary to have corrected before it could be considered.

NEBRASKA P. E. O. CONVENTION.

Seventh Annual Meeting of the State Organization at Holdrege.

HOLDREGE, Neb., May 6.—(Special Telegram.)—The seventh annual convention of the P. E. O. grand chapter for the state of Nebraska is now in session here. Tuesday evening an informal reception was given at the home of Mrs. D. T. Cornell for P. E. O.'s only. The regular business of the convention began this morning. The session today was held at the Presbyterian church and this evening there was an open session in the opera house, open to the P. E. O. and their intimate friends. The officers are: Mrs. Carrie McNaughton, Superior, president; Mrs. Kittie Dutton, Hastings, first vice president; Miss Virginia Corbett, Lincoln, second vice president; recording secretary, Miss Ida C. Wagner, Plattsmouth; corresponding secretary, Miss Dora Higby, York; treasurer, Mrs. Bertha C. Fox, Nelson; organizer, Miss Cora G. Little, Holdrege.

Fourteen chapters in the state are represented with thirty-six delegates and many visitors. Mrs. Dora C. McNaul, who has been identified with the work for years in Nebraska, is here, her home now being at Marysville, Mo. The program rendered at the opera house tonight was most excellent. It commenced with a selection by the Holdrege Glee club, followed by a vocal solo by Miss Cora Conway. Mrs. Kate Kochler of Geneva gave a recitation. A paper, "The Advanced Woman," by Mrs. Clara West of chapter K of Lincoln was original. A vocal duet by Mrs Laura Allen and Mrs. Fannie Hunter of Superior was very fine. A paper by Mrs. Julia Klinck of chapter N of Minden provoked much applause. A vocal solo by Mrs. Mertie Bush of Wahoo was excellent. The piano solo by Mrs. Ida Wagner of South Omaha was exceptionally good. A paper, "The Religion of Longfellow," by Mrs. Carrie Norberg of Holdrege was full of pathos and thought. The last number was an instrumental drill by Miss Hattie Chittenden and Miss Clifton Hopkins of chapter H, Holdrege, which was excellent. All the business houses have decorated in honor of the P. E. O. and there has not been so many people here at any one time since the congressional convention two years ago. The grand chapter will be held Friday of this week.

CAN HEAR THE GRAIN GROW NOW.

Warm Weather of the Past Few Days Helping the Farmer.

FREMONT, May 6.—(Special.)—There has been a hot wind from the south today and at 3 o'clock this afternoon the mercury reached 92 in the shade. The hot weather of the past few days has been a great help to grain. Winter wheat is about a foot high. Oats came up well and are growing fast. Corn planting has commenced and work in the beet and chicory fields is progressing rapidly. The beet and chicory business is giving employment to a good many men and teams. There have been rumors that some of the beet raisers were going to import cheap Italian labor, as was done at North Bend, but the report cannot be verified.

Will Be Strict with Liquor Sellers.

CRAWFORD, Neb., May 6.—(Special.)—The new town council held its first meeting last night. A. E. Hobson was elected chairman and C. S. Spearman marshal. All the druggists and saloonmen now in business here presented petitions for permits and licenses to sell liquors. Before taking action on the applications the following resolution was adopted with only one dissenting vote:

"That the council at this time desires to warn and notify all those who have made application for druggists' permits and liquor licenses; that the laws of the state of Nebraska and the ordinances of the village of Crawford will, during the ensuing year, be rigidly enforced in every particular, and any and all violations of any such laws and ordinances will be promptly and vigorously prosecuted.

"It is desired by the council that all forms of public gambling, Sunday sales of liquors, sales to minors and sales to prostitutes in wine rooms and saloons, and sales by druggists for consumption on the premises, or for other than the purposes for which their permits are granted, be stopped, and the council will enforce the purport of this resolution; that the clerk be instructed to deliver a copy of this resolution to each applicant for druggists' permit and liquor license."

Convention of Christian Missionaries.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., May 6.—(Special.)—The convention of the Second missionary district of the Christian church, which embraces the counties of Otoe, Lancaster and Cass, convened at the Christian church in this city last night. An address of welcome was delivered by County Judge G. M. Spurlock and was responded to by Rev. A. W. Henry of Greenwood, after which a very interesting address was made by Rev. A. W. Pallister of Elmwood. Today's program was under the control of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions and was of a very entertaining character, embracing papers by Mesdames A. L. Jones of Nebraska City, Roetger of Elmwood, Miss Amanda Hogue of Elmwood, and a pleasing address by Mrs. Alice S. Henry. The meetings are very well attended and a great deal of interest shown. The convention will adjourn tomorrow.

Burglars Rob an Auburn Residence.

AUBURN, Neb., May 6.—(Special.)—Burglars broke into the house of Hon. Thomas J. Crummel last night, while the family was asleep, and took about $23 in money from his pocket, and his gold watch. They also ransacked the dresser in the room of Miss Belle Crummel, and took all of her jewelry, including a diamond pin, but left her watch, a valuable one, lying on the dresser in a plush case. After helping themselves to a good lunch in the pantry, the party left through the front door, which was locked with a night latch. The loss will amount to $250.

Henry Dreier was awakened by some one trying to get into his house through the window, and frightened the man away. A freight car was also broken open at the B.
