

DECLINES TO PAY IN PAPER

Senate Rejects a Plan for the Issue of Treasury Certificates.

ONE APPROPRIATION BILL IS NOW LEFT

Animated Financial Debate on the Fortifications but the Measure is Finally Passed—Peffer Proposes More Greenbacks.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The senate today defeated a proposition by Mr. Gorman for the issue of $100,000,000 of 3 per cent treasury certificates to meet prospective deficiencies.

TO LIMIT THE SUPREME COURT.

Among the bills introduced was one by Mr. A. M. Bacon, of Georgia, so defining the authority of the United States supreme court that no bill passed by congress and approved by the president, or becoming a law without his approval, or enacted over a veto, shall be declared unconstitutional by any court, except when all the judges concur.

On motion of Mr. Gorman the senate reconsidered its action in passing the bill for the settlement of additional men for the navy and giving the secretary of the navy authority in case of emergency to charter transport ships.

Mr. Fry, republican of Maine, submitted the conference report on the river and harbor bill. The senator explained that an agreement had been reached on all items except the California water factor.

After further discussion, Mr. Fry consented to let the report go over until tomorrow.

Mr. Butler, populist of North Carolina, had intended to press for a vote on the resolution prohibiting the issue of bonds without the authority of congress, as he had declared yesterday that another bond issue would be made.

Mr. Sherman also gave notice that he would try to take up the "filled cheese" bill at the first opportunity.

Mr. Sherman also gave notice that he would try to take up the "filled cheese" bill at the first opportunity.

Mr. Sherman called attention to the importance of the amendment and asked a roll of the senate as the attendance was low.

When a quorum was secured the presiding officer, Mr. Chandler of New Hampshire, ruled on a point of order raised against the Gorman amendment that it was in order.

Mr. Mills appealed from the ruling of the chair. Before the vote was taken on the appeal, Mr. Sherman addressed the senate against the amendment.

He said that it was an example in the history of the country that such a proposition should be made in a time of peace, to keep the treasury from bankruptcy.

He declared that an agreement could be reached that would remedy the situation.

He declared that an agreement could be reached that would remedy the situation.

He declared that an agreement could be reached that would remedy the situation.

He declared that an agreement could be reached that would remedy the situation.

He declared that an agreement could be reached that would remedy the situation.

He declared that an agreement could be reached that would remedy the situation.

SHUTS OUT ALL ILLITERATES

Bartholdt-McCall Immigration Bill is Passed by the House.

CORLISS AMENDMENT ALSO ADOPTED

Consular Inspection Substitute is Decried by Forty-Four Votes, but the Others Go Through with Little Opposition.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—After two days' debate the house today, by an overwhelming vote of 195 to 28, passed the Bartholdt-McCall immigration bill, modified by the Corliss amendment.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—After two days' debate the house today, by an overwhelming vote of 195 to 28, passed the Bartholdt-McCall immigration bill, modified by the Corliss amendment.

Mr. Gorman read the treasury figures of four years ago, contending that a deficiency was impending. He proceeded to show that the failure of the income tax features of the tariff act and the too liberal extension of the free list had led to the present lack of revenue.

The direct appropriations and contracts authorized this year would reach a total of $600,000,000, while the revenue would be far short of that amount.

Mr. Gorman followed in answer to Mr. Sherman's question as to the amount of the deficit for the year 1895.

Mr. Sherman interrupted to deny that his measure was intended to meet a deficiency, as there had not been a deficiency under the Harrison administration.

Mr. Gorman read the treasury figures of four years ago, contending that a deficiency was impending. He proceeded to show that the failure of the income tax features of the tariff act and the too liberal extension of the free list had led to the present lack of revenue.

The direct appropriations and contracts authorized this year would reach a total of $600,000,000, while the revenue would be far short of that amount.

Mr. Gorman followed in answer to Mr. Sherman's question as to the amount of the deficit for the year 1895.

Mr. Sherman interrupted to deny that his measure was intended to meet a deficiency, as there had not been a deficiency under the Harrison administration.

Mr. Gorman read the treasury figures of four years ago, contending that a deficiency was impending. He proceeded to show that the failure of the income tax features of the tariff act and the too liberal extension of the free list had led to the present lack of revenue.

The direct appropriations and contracts authorized this year would reach a total of $600,000,000, while the revenue would be far short of that amount.

Mr. Gorman followed in answer to Mr. Sherman's question as to the amount of the deficit for the year 1895.

Mr. Sherman interrupted to deny that his measure was intended to meet a deficiency, as there had not been a deficiency under the Harrison administration.

Mr. Gorman read the treasury figures of four years ago, contending that a deficiency was impending. He proceeded to show that the failure of the income tax features of the tariff act and the too liberal extension of the free list had led to the present lack of revenue.

The direct appropriations and contracts authorized this year would reach a total of $600,000,000, while the revenue would be far short of that amount.

Mr. Gorman followed in answer to Mr. Sherman's question as to the amount of the deficit for the year 1895.

Mr. Sherman interrupted to deny that his measure was intended to meet a deficiency, as there had not been a deficiency under the Harrison administration.

Mr. Gorman read the treasury figures of four years ago, contending that a deficiency was impending. He proceeded to show that the failure of the income tax features of the tariff act and the too liberal extension of the free list had led to the present lack of revenue.

The direct appropriations and contracts authorized this year would reach a total of $600,000,000, while the revenue would be far short of that amount.

Mr. Gorman followed in answer to Mr. Sherman's question as to the amount of the deficit for the year 1895.

SHUTS OUT ALL ILLITERATES

Bartholdt-McCall Immigration Bill is Passed by the House.

CORLISS AMENDMENT ALSO ADOPTED

Consular Inspection Substitute is Decried by Forty-Four Votes, but the Others Go Through with Little Opposition.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—After two days' debate the house today, by an overwhelming vote of 195 to 28, passed the Bartholdt-McCall immigration bill, modified by the Corliss amendment.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—After two days' debate the house today, by an overwhelming vote of 195 to 28, passed the Bartholdt-McCall immigration bill, modified by the Corliss amendment.

Mr. Gorman read the treasury figures of four years ago, contending that a deficiency was impending. He proceeded to show that the failure of the income tax features of the tariff act and the too liberal extension of the free list had led to the present lack of revenue.

The direct appropriations and contracts authorized this year would reach a total of $600,000,000, while the revenue would be far short of that amount.

Mr. Gorman followed in answer to Mr. Sherman's question as to the amount of the deficit for the year 1895.

Mr. Sherman interrupted to deny that his measure was intended to meet a deficiency, as there had not been a deficiency under the Harrison administration.

Mr. Gorman read the treasury figures of four years ago, contending that a deficiency was impending. He proceeded to show that the failure of the income tax features of the tariff act and the too liberal extension of the free list had led to the present lack of revenue.

The direct appropriations and contracts authorized this year would reach a total of $600,000,000, while the revenue would be far short of that amount.

Mr. Gorman followed in answer to Mr. Sherman's question as to the amount of the deficit for the year 1895.

Mr. Sherman interrupted to deny that his measure was intended to meet a deficiency, as there had not been a deficiency under the Harrison administration.

Mr. Gorman read the treasury figures of four years ago, contending that a deficiency was impending. He proceeded to show that the failure of the income tax features of the tariff act and the too liberal extension of the free list had led to the present lack of revenue.

The direct appropriations and contracts authorized this year would reach a total of $600,000,000, while the revenue would be far short of that amount.

Mr. Gorman followed in answer to Mr. Sherman's question as to the amount of the deficit for the year 1895.

Mr. Sherman interrupted to deny that his measure was intended to meet a deficiency, as there had not been a deficiency under the Harrison administration.

Mr. Gorman read the treasury figures of four years ago, contending that a deficiency was impending. He proceeded to show that the failure of the income tax features of the tariff act and the too liberal extension of the free list had led to the present lack of revenue.

The direct appropriations and contracts authorized this year would reach a total of $600,000,000, while the revenue would be far short of that amount.

Mr. Gorman followed in answer to Mr. Sherman's question as to the amount of the deficit for the year 1895.

Mr. Sherman interrupted to deny that his measure was intended to meet a deficiency, as there had not been a deficiency under the Harrison administration.

Mr. Gorman read the treasury figures of four years ago, contending that a deficiency was impending. He proceeded to show that the failure of the income tax features of the tariff act and the too liberal extension of the free list had led to the present lack of revenue.

The direct appropriations and contracts authorized this year would reach a total of $600,000,000, while the revenue would be far short of that amount.

Mr. Gorman followed in answer to Mr. Sherman's question as to the amount of the deficit for the year 1895.

BIG ARMOUR STRIKE IS ENDED

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages.

KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking femen of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

Employees All Reinstated with an Advance in Wages. KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The striking women of the Armour packing plant, who went out May 6 for increased wages and fewer hours, compromised their differences today.

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS

PANTS