Dog Catcher's Record. Poundmaster Dobson is striving to break the record for the number of dox tax certificates issued, which is held by Ed Bates, who filled the office ceveral years. Out of a total of several thousand dogs in the city, 347 were protected by license on the 1st day of June. Tax receipt No. 320 was issued last evening, and with ten days to go on Dobfeels confident, that he will hold the record. Up to the present time he has killed only twenty-one dogs and impounded thirtyone. After June 1 he proposes to enforce the provisions of the ordinance that makes it a misdemeanor for any owner of a dog to neglect to pay the license. Instead of dragging the poor dogs along the street at the end of a choking wire noose he says he would rather drag their owners into the police court the means of a warrant. His method of killing the dogs is much more humane than that pursued by his predecessors, who simply dumped the poor brutes into a hogshead of foul water and fought with them until they were drowned. Dobson ends their friendless existence by shooting them. One bullet through the brain and all is over.

DELEGATES SELECTED TO ALL CONVENTIONS

Good Natured Contest Between Those Desiring to Attend the Various Meetings List of Individuals Named.

While neither the congressional convention of the Ninth district nor the judicial convention of the Fifteenth district has been called Pottawattamie county republicans have played their part and have selected delegates to these and to the state nominating convention, which will be held at Des Moines on July 15. The county convention of republicans to nominate delegates to three conventions was held yesterday afternoon. The convention was largely attended and was marked by a great deal of enthusiasm and an entire absence of anything that would look like a fight. There was a good natured contest on between the candidates for the congressional nomination, but the delegation selected is so evenly divided between the candidates that there was no occasion for a kick from any of the contestants. The convention was called to order by hairman Dawson and L. C. dete their work the convention made denands upon some of the republicans for a little eloquence. Charles M. Harl was the first to respond. Mr. Harl made one of his characteristic speeches, talking about a thousand words a minute and every word freighted with speechly speech. freighted with republican enthusiasm. He said the Iowa democrats had been having a monkey and pairot time, but it was words and labor wasted, as they were simply mak-ing a shroud for a corpse any way, and there was no occasion for fighting over the material. While the republicans of Iowa might differ as to men they were united on meas-ures, and the republican candidate for pres-ident would stand on a platform pledged to protection, sound money and protection of American citizenship at home and abroad. He urged the convention to select delegates who would nominate a candidate for congress who would properly represent the Ninth district and Iowa in the halls of con-

Senator Pusey was called upon and addresed the convention briefly. He said he was not much of a fighter when there was no opposition. Political speakers used to preface their remarks by the statement that preface their remarks by the statement that there were two great parties, the republican and the democratic. Now there was but one great party, the republican. He said there was always danger when a party had a clear road to power and that the conventions obcould be careful to nominate men who would add strength to the party instead of having to draw their strength from the

REPUBLICANS QUITE ACTIVE FLOOD DAMAGE VERY HEAVY. JUDGMENTS AGAINST COLONEL REED Conneil Considers Claims from a Num-

The city council, as a committee of the whole spent almost the entire forencon yesterday hearing the complaints that have been coming from all parts of the city conerning damages by the late storms. When the aggregate of the complaints was considered, the council realized the immense mount of damage that had occurred, and to repair which will cost a good many much needed dollars. The council decided that the best means of investigating the reports was to refer them to committees, so that the entire membership could work individuand thus hasten the investigations. The Madison street paving problem was considered to the extent of determining the best method of making temporary repairs. It was decided to use the cedar blocks now in the city yards and repair the west side of the street and close the other until the street is repayed. This proposition met the approval of the property owners.

The council decided that the cause of the overflow at the Northwestern depot was due to the low bridges of the railway com-pany, and on motion of Alderman Casper marshal was instructed to notify the Northwestern company to remove the mud accumulated beneath its bridges, or raise the bridges. It is probable that the council will oventually insist upon the latter course. Street Supervisor Morris is the busiest man in the city, and is working earnestly and intelligently to repair the ravages of the Robbers Visit Ex-Mayor Rohrer. When the family of ex-Mayor Rohrer awoke yesterday morning they discovered that they had not been alone in the house during the night. While they slept the house was gone through and thoroughly searched by burglars and a careful search made for valuables. They examined the lower porby burgiars and valuables. They examined the lower portion of the house with a lighted lamp, but when they went upstairs into the sleeping apartments of the family they used matches, and left a trail of the burnt sticks all over the Robert's clothing was carethe house. Mr. Rohrer's clothing was care-fully examined, and all of the loose change fully examined, and all of the loose change there was in the pockets was taken. A wallet was also taken from his pockets and examined and left on the window sill outside. It contained nothing of value. When the thieves entered the room occupied by Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Rohrer's mother, they aroused her, and she arose and lighted a lamp and made an examination but discovered nothing to at the time instity her covered nothing to at the time justify her belief that some person was in her room. GIVE UP THEIR ENCAMPMENT Knights of Pythias Will Play Ever with Railroads. MILWAUKEE, May 21 .- As an outgrowth of the decision by the national body of the military of the order of Knights of Pythias not to hold any national encampment this year, because of the action of the Western Passenger association, a union encampmen-by the brigades of Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois Nebraska and the Dakotas, and probably several other northwestern states, will be held with the Minnesota brigade at Minne-apolis during the first week in September. For this union or division encampment the city of Minneapolis will carry out all the arrangements intended for the national gathering, including the raising of $5,000 in cash prizes for drills. A similar encamp-ment will be held about the same time at Columbus, O. for the middle states, and probably another for the southern states at Nashville. Among prominent members of the military department it is believed that this will be the beginning of a general division of the uniform rank into four sections, to be known s the eastern, western, northern and outhern, the object being to hold a division encampment every second year, and a naencampment every four:h year, instead of three, as at present.

and rushed to the scene. At that time no great amount of ground had tallen and Mr. Williams was able to communicate with the imprisoned men. They were all unharmed and in a sefe place and said that with aid and a rope they could be rescued. Captain Williams went for help, but before he re-****************** turned another large piece of ground fell, and it was impossible to reach the men. The shaft in which the accident occurred is on the line between the Ashland and Norrie mines, and large crews of men were at work in both mines. This is the first mine accident of any magnitude here for a number of years, and great excitement pro-

WRECKED A TWO-STORY BUILDING One Man Killed and Others Injured

by a Gas Explosion. KANSAS CITY, May 21 .- A special to the Star from Coffeyville, Kan., says: A gas exdesign this morning wrecked two two-story brick buildings in the center of the city, causing the instant death of one man, the fatal injury of two other persons and the wounding more or less seriously of thirteen

The killed and injured are as follows:

DAVID CARTER, by falling walls, Fatally injured: Mat Atkinson, colored. Eliza Pursley, colored. More or less seriously injured:

S. Maxwell. Mrs. P. K. Smith, Mrs. Morris and daughter, Kate Logan Eshon John Wilson. Joe Short.

William Kime Two others, names not given

Several others were in the buildings, but scaped unbuilt. The explosion occurred at S o'clock, and was caused by the careless igniting of a match in the basement, where gas had accumulated from a neighboring gas well.
Several men were in the basement at the time, and about two score other people were scattered throughout the different portions of the building. A terrific explosion zens were soon on the scene and immediately began the work of rescue. The wildest ex eltement prevailed, and for a time it was feared the death list would prove appalling. Miraculously, however, but one person, David Carter, was killed outright. The injured were quickly extricated from the debtis and carried to places of safet and all possible done for them. The search tive way. He sprang quickly into the is still going on for fear some may yet beart of the cellar that is under the side- in the ruins, as the exact number of those in the ruins, as the exact number of those in the buildings is not known. The destruction wrought by the explosion was complete, and the wonder is that every one in the building was not killed.

Three Men Sail Into Eternity. BOSTON, May 21 .- A special to the Jour nal from Charlotte, Vt., says: Three mer named Fenton, Meyers and Steady, who were at work at Cedar Beach, left that place Sunday for Essex. N. H., in a small rowboa with an improvised sail. They expected to return this morning and left Essex during the high wind and rough weather. They have not been seen since. The heat was found yesterday at Blais bay with the rudder gone and one seat torn out. It is believed that a'l three men were lost.
