Largest Crowd of the Senson Witnesses the Second Game-Some Ragged Work Done on Both Sides.

Those gaunt, attenuated codavers from the dissecting room didn't do a thing morning but give Captain Yesterday Abbott's men the first real good licking they have had for to these many moons. And the worst of it was that they fairly earned their victory by clean and timely hitting and a few instances of a handleap that would have beaten any team on earth. This was Cornelius Murphy, the Italian count whom Captain Abbott discovered in the blue barrel brigade last week. piled up as many errors. Cornellus was billed as a phenom and Russ McKelvey confidentially imparted the information that he was a ball player from the ground up. Well, after a man passes his three score and ten, his judgment is not supposed to be as sound as it was in his youthful prime, and Ruse ought to be excused on that account.

Count Murphy will never be a pitcher. He to a heady youngster and even when the medicos were larraping his slants all over the lot his nerve was unshaken. But he can't pitch, and although he did his best he was plainly out of his class, and the fourteen clean hits that the callavers piled were directly responsible for the loss of

On the other band, Dr. Blake, who manipulated the sphere for the visitors, is a good deal of a pitcher. If he should have the same success in killing off his patients as he did in mowing down Captain Abbott's slugwill be an ornament to his profession and a tower of strength to the undertakers. The other end of the battery, consisting of Dr. Brown, was another strong point in favor of the visitors, and Dr. Somere at second base put up an article of ball that was suggestive of Jack Crooks in his palmy

For the home team Bittenger and McKelvey carried off the honors. Bittenger by a couple of magnificent running catches and Russell by eating up everything that came his way, including a couple of hard-hit ground balls when a miss meant plenty of rune for the visitors. RIGHT HERE THEY DID IT.

The cadavers indicated their hostile intentions at the first jump. Count Murphy allowed Cooling to walk and then Somers banged out a two eacker to left field. Frost hit safely and went to second while Shana-han fumbled the ball. He stole third and second on a wild pitch. Sickle and Blake both flew out to Robinson, and Tommy Creigh threw Hawkins out at first. But by this time three runs had counted and two hits and a bad muff by Creigh added two more in the second.

In the third Sickle and Blake led off with bits and after two men were out they scored on Hayes' long hit to right. Further run getting was shut out by McKelvey's spec-McKelvey's spectacular pickup of Cooling's hit.
Four hits and a base on balls added three more in the eighth and they were not needed, either.

'Varsities also made a good beginning. Creigh started it with a clean three-bagger and Robinson brought him in with a single. But the next three men went out in order they didn't score again until the

They came dangerously near it in the sixth. Abbott cracked out a clean single over second base and stole second. Then Shannhan came with another in the same spot, but Dr. Somers nailed the ball about an inch from the ground and put Abbott out, thus completing as near a double as was ever seen on a ball fie'd. Then McAuliffe struck out and the inning which opened so auspiciously ended before the fourth man had got to bat. In the seventh Abbott's men scored three times and the crowd became enthusiastic !

. Sickles' error gave Hayes his first McKelvey went out and Murphy threw the crowd into consternation by scratching out a hit. Creigh took his base on four wide oves and Hawkins muffed Robinson's easy fly. Hayes scored on the error and Creigh and Robinson followed suit when Bittinger landed one of Blake's drops for two sacks. But Abbott hit an easy one to short field and the game again belonged to the enemy. The Varsities managed to get one man around the bases in the eighth, but it was no use, and the doctors made it one RUSH COLLEGE.

Somers, who had already gained many friends by the game be had put up at second bags and by his batting in the first three simply outclassed in this morning's two games started in to pitch for the visitors. Mr. Abbotts boys took to his cook to been shot, and they never had a chance to shoot any more until the ninth inning. The locals then let down a bit and the healers of the sick brought their total up to twelve. Though the visitors bit Jelen freely their hits were kept scattered. Had Jelen received the support he deserved the hits of the visitors would not have been so numerous and their runs would have been halved. Hayes again played a great game back of the bat and Mr. McKelvey looked after the most of his chances as in the days of yore. Creigh put up a good game at second made a very difficult catch of a high fly, for which he should never have been sent in, but he marred his record by a julcy error. Bittinger and Shannahan did better work than their fellow gardener and the former secured two hits, the only man on the home team to so distinguish himself. Bittinger though, spelled the otherwise excellent game he played, in the eighth inning, by a piece he played, in the eight hat his a piece of hall playing that might be canctioned by Turker or Tebeau, but that is hardly to be expected of a member of a university club team. He went a good deal out of his way to prevent Somers from making a double play that would have been easy. If Manager Abbott did not reprimand him for the act, he omitted to perform an urgent duty.

brilliant fielding at critical points. Sickles at third made a great one-handed catch of a hot liner, but besides accepting four chances piled up as many errors. Somere, after leaving the box, put up a good game at second, and knocked out a single and a double. Frost looked after things in center all right and secured two singles and a double. Blake pitched an excellent game for the last oix innings, considering the game he had pitched in the morning. He held the locals down much better than did Somers and the few hits that were made off his Gelivery were scattered.

The base ball game between the Fremont High school and Arlington nines this afternoon came to an end in the first half of the

to play, owing to what they claimed to be a rank decision of the umpire, calling a man safe on the home plate and at first base.
The score then stood is to if, in favor of the Arlingtons, on even innings. Both nines played poorly the first three innings, but

Any one who has heretofore doubted the terday afternoon. It was the ond annual road race, given under the auspices of the Associated Cycling clubs, and was a grand success. The field of starters was not as large as it might have been, there being but thirty-four entries, while last year's race had thirty-five. The fact that only members of clubs were allowed to enter, undoubtedly kept the list down. The men who did start, however, were, as a rule. much better riders than those of last year, therefore the race was even more interesting. Decoration day is quite proverbial for its usual downpour of rain, and the aspect of the sky yesterday was not such as would tend to discourage this expecation. The light morning showers laid the dust and left the course in elegant condition. There were fully 7,000 people there, and they came in all manner of ways-afoot, horseback, on wheels, in carriages and buggles and creet cars. There were all kinds of people, too, not only common folks, but there were representatives from the 400. There were carriages there by the hundred, some of them the swell outfits of the town, and consaining their swell owners. Running between their wheels and their horses feet were hundreds of the small boys of the city, who came out to cheer their juveni e friends who were in the race. But the great mass of people was composed of those who came out in the street cars as far as they could and then walked the balance of the way. CROWD LINED THE COURSE.

The course was over the white macadam road, over hills, down into dales, five miles and back again. People were scattered all along it, but were crowded along the eastern end. At the starting point it was difficult for the officials to do their work. However, they managed to get the men off in good order, and there were no falls or delays The handicapping was very good, and the men finished much closer than they did in last year's race. Fred Barnum of the Tourist Wheelmen, who had a handicap of two minutes and thirty seconds, succeeded in getting back first, and therefore, won the first prize, which was a $100 opal ring, sur-mounted with diamonds. Barnum was closely followed by McNider, Sawyer, Koong, Hos

There were only three scratch men, and at the crack of the starter's pistol they were away like a flash, with Pixley setting the pace, and it was not until the course had been nearly half ridden that they began catching up with the handicap men. McCall of Denver set most of the pace, and was largely responsible for the fast time made, ball between the Champions and the Blues which was 28.48, or nearly four minutes this morning. Barnett pitched a poor game better than Holloway's time of last year. The and was relieved by Klung in the third finish between McCall and Pixley for time prize was very close, the latter winning by about two feet. The banner offered by the Associated Cycling clubs to the club whose man crossed the tape first was awarded to the Tourist Wheelmen, whose club repre-sentatives won both first and time prize.

NICE AFTERNOON FOR · MAXWELL. Kansas Man Gets Everything in Sight

LINCOLN, May 30.—(Special Telegram.)— G. A. Maxwell of Winfield, Kan., won all the events of today's meet of the Capitol City Cycle club, except one, which he lost on a fluke, besides picking up $50 for lowering the state half-mile record one-fifth of a second. The meet at M Street park drew a large crowd, and track conditions were perfect for fast time. Results:

First event, one mile, novice: Bennett trailed Craig, who led nearly all the way round, when Bennett spurted, and won in 2.45; Craig second, Joers third, with Schmidt out of the race. Second event, one half mile, open, by proout of the race.

Second event, one half mile, open, by professionals: Entries—J. A. Bal'ey, ir., Lincoin; Eb E. Mockett, Lincoin; O. W. McBride, Lincoin; G. A. Maxwell, Winfield, Kan.; H. E. Fredrickson, Omaha; A. E. Yule, Lincoin, and C. R. Hall, Omaha. They were paced by a tandem, ridden by Thorpe and Adams. At the pistol shot Maxwell overtook the tandem, and was never headed on the entire run. Yule fell on the east turn, in the first lap, hurting himself severely. Fredrickson also fell coming into the lap, but was uninjured. Just after Hall had crossed the tape a man stepped in front of his wheel and threw him. He was fast closing up for second place and this defeated him. Maxwell lowered the state record in competition over five seconds. Maxwell's time: 1:052-5; Balley second, McBride third, and Hall fourth.

Third event, one-quarter mile, amateur, open: Entries—H. C. Gadke, Omaha; Gus Gooke, Wacc; J. A. Benson, Lincoin; Charles Y. Thompson, West Point; Ray R. McGreer, Lincoin; J. V. Contagious Blood Poison has been ap-propriately called the curse of mankind. It is the one disease that physicians cannot cure; their mercurial and potash remedies only bottle up the poison in the system, to surely break forth in a more virulent form, resulting in a total wreck of the system. Mr. Frank B. Martin, a prominent jeweler at 926 Pensylvania Ave., Washington, D.C., says: I was for a long time under treat ment of two of the best physi-cians of this city, for a severe case of blood poison, but my condition grew worse all the while, notwithstanding the fact that they charged me three hundred dollars. My mouth was filled with eating sores; my tongue was almost eaten away, so that for three months I was unable to taste any solid food. My hair was coming out rapidly, and I was in a horrible fix. I had tried various treatments, and was nearly dis-couraged, when a friend recommended S.S.S. After ' had taken four bottles, I began to get better, and when I had finished eighteen bottles, I was cured sound and well, my skin was without a blemish, and I have had no return of the disease. S.S.S.saved me from a life of misery." S.S.S. (guaranteed purely vegetable) will cure any case of blood poison. Books on the disease finished. All being bunched at the last turn, one of them fell, and five others plied on top of him, with the result of broken wheels and skinned anatomies.

Fourth event, one mile, open, professionals: Entries—Mockett. Maxwell. Fredrickson, McBride and Hailey. The pacing tandem was broken in the second lap by Maxwell's wheel colliding with it. The others kept on after this, with McBride in the lead until within 180 feet of the tape, when Fredrickson spurted and won the race in 2:44-5. McBride was second and Mockett third. A kick was registered by Maxwell, and the judges ordered the race run over. They subsequently gave the race to Fredrickson. The fifth event was a boys half mile race, won by R. G. Bennett, Lipcoln, in 1:2).

The sixth event, one mile, amateut, open, was won by H. C. Gadke, Omaha, in a loaf, Time; I:32.

Seventh event, half-mile lap race, professional: Maxwell won. Time: 1:1112, Fredrickson was second and Bailey third.

The two-mile amateur handicap was won by Gocke, twelve entries, in 5:22. Thompson was second and Craig third.

Ninth event, special: Maxwell went a half mile against the state one-half mile record for a purse of 50. The record was held by Fredrickson. Time: 1:02-5. Maxwell was paced by Mockett and McBride, with a tandem, flying start. Maxwell did the half mile in 1:03-5. lowering the state record one-fifth of a second.
