The busiest persons in all St. Louis today were those members of the relief committees who were in charge of the different departments of the supply station building. All trooped into the building, pouring their tales of wee into the ears of these in charge and making application for food, clothing and shelter. There was no red tape or delay. It is estimated over 1,500 persons were pro-vided with food and clothing during the day. FIGURES ON DEAD AND MISSING.

List is Not as Large as Has Beer Made Out for Some Days Past.

ST. LOUIS, June 1 .- A reporter carefully

revised the list of dead today, taking as the basis of his calculation the coroner's records, the burial permits and the records of the undertaking establishments. The known list of dead in St. Louis today foots up 141 names, all of these bodies having been renames, all of these bodies having been recovered. Besides this it is known that thirteen other persons have been killed in the storm, eight in the river, whose names are unknown, and five within the city whose names are unknown. None of these bodies have been recovered. Of the 141 dead bodies recovered in this city, but one remains unidentified. The list of missing persons has deminished somewhat from the number reported yesterday. The list today contains the names of eighty-eight persons, not including the eleven said to have been louding the eleven said to have been found among those of the dead, while in anumber of other cases, the parties recovered missing have been found alive and well. The house of delegates tonight adopted an order appropriating $20,000, for cleaning up the streets which are full of wreckage. The loss of life in East St. Louis has assumed far less eer/ous proportions as the days have passed. Instead of being nearly 200, as has been stated. It is 100 identified, with two a man and a woman unknown. In addition to this one man is missing and eight are so seriously injured that they will probably dec.

Chicago Will Aid East St. Louis. CHICAGO, June 1.—An appeal to the people of this city to go to the aid of the storm sufferers of East St. Louis was issued by Mayor Swift today in a proclamation setting forth the want and suffering of the survivors of the tornado-ridden discovered. Besides this it is known that thirteen other persons have been killed in Supplies, such as clothing, bedding, ents and the like, will be received at the Arrangements have been made with the railroads for the transportation of such supplies. It is the mayor's intention to work in conjunction with the Board of Trade and other organizations, committees from which are already actively at work soliciting subscriptions.

St. Louis Gets Another Fright. ST. LOUIS, June 1 .- At an early hour this morning the two stricken cities-St. Louis and East St. Louis-received a thorough scare. A storm came up from the southwest accompanied by low, rumbling thunder and almost continuous flashes of lightning. Then a few minutes later big black clouds appeared on the northern horizon and rolled up until they covered the city. There was a strong wind, though nothing at all approach fing a hurricane or tornado. The elemental disturbance lasted for nearly an hour, and then became a slow, drizzling rain.

COLD RAIN STOPS THE RACE

Six Day Chase at Charles Street Park Gets terra, a Bad Send-Off.

RIDERS "START WITH GREAT ENERGY

Three Minute Clip Cut from the Beginning, and Madden Knocked Out by a Fall Through a Collision.

The six-day professional blevele race was started at the Charles Street park last evening under the most unfavorable auspices The crowd was there all right enough, a couple of thousand enthusiastic people being crowded on the bleachers and in the stand but an ominous pall of black clouds over hung the enclosure and made everybody apprehensive that the evening's sport could not be long continued. And they were right too, for at twenty-five minutes after 9 o'clock a cold, drizzling rain began to fall and Referee Potter was obliged to call the chase off for the evening. It was a sore disappointment to the big crowd, as the race was just getting good; the riders, having thoroughly warmed up, were just beginning to show the stuff they are made of. The parade of the various bicycle clubs in the evening was a showy one and by half past 7 o'clock all the best seats in the park were occupied. The Seventh Ward band enlivened the occa-sion with a spirited program, and bad it not been for the unwelcome rain the even ing's excitement would have reached a grand climax at the finish. As it was, the theilling enthusiasm and the nerve and determination of the doughty contestants augur well for great sport during the balance of the week.
At five minutes of 8 the bugle summoned the riders to the post, and as they ined up in fours it was seen that the field was a strong one and a great race was on. Lester Holton, one of the local riders, had the pole and promptly at 8 o'clock the pistol cracked and the bunch was off, Holton, with his shining Strum's racer, leading, closely fol-lowed by Hansen, a big Minneapolis Swide on a 93-gear Syracuse; little Kid Meirstein, the plucky boy from Sioux City, astride a Sterling; Ned Reading on a Sterns, Schroder on a World, Maxwell on a Munger, McCall on a National and Madden on a Yellow Fel-Hall, the Mound City, Mo., man, was unable to start on account of severe injuries received at Lincoln on Decoration day, The start was made amidst a volley of applause, and all the clip set was a swift one. The Minneapolis mans forged to the front on the second turn and kept the pace up to the last lap of the first mile, when Kid Meirstein and Schroder shot across the line with the first mile to their credit in 2:36. Schroder, the Omaha man, leading by couple of heads. Madden took a bad tumble on the eighth mile, having run into Me Call, and besides losing a couple of laps, was as good as knocked out of the race, but he stuck to it until nineteen miles had been ruled off, when he quit and went to the Hansen, Schroder and Meirstein set all the pace, the balance of the riders husbanding their strength and resting content by keeping the leaders from gaining any variage all doubtless helding back for the final spur for the special prize. But they were not called on to make any grandstand finish for the extra simoleons, for at twenty minutes after 9 the rain began to fall rather too plenteously and the pistol's crack called the men off the track. Tonight they will be off again promptly at 8, and with favorable weather one of the most exciting races within the annals of the park may be confidently looked for. The special prize will be a nice little bundle of money. Little Meirtein is a great favorite, the hig Swede a stein is a great favorite, the big Swede a dangerous man, and Maxwell, McCall, Hol-ton, Reading and Schroder full of speed. It will indeed be a battle royal. Score

FOOT BALL PLAYERS RETURN HOME.

Well Pleased with Their Treatment

The Omaha foot ball players returned yesterday afternoon from Butte in no wise discouraged over their defeat. They had not expected to win, being totally without pracice and every one of them out of condition. They played against a strong wind in both They played against a strong wind in both halves and were further handicapped by the disabiling of two of their best men early in the game, and the substitutes were too light to stand up against the big miners.

The boys speak in glowing terms of the treatment they received at the hands of the people of Butte. Nothing was too good for them, and every effort possible was made to render their short stay as pleasant as possible. The town has gone daft on foot ball and is willing to back its eleven against anything that wears canvas. There is talk of sending them east to play against the big colleges, and this will undoubtedly be done if games can be secured.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., June 1 .- (Special Telegram.)-Last evening about 5 o'clock Nell Lytle, niece of D. W. Besack of this city, put on her coat and hat and walked out her home. Fred Hanlon, watchman at the railroad bridge, saw her pass that point, walking east. Since that time no one has heard of her and her disappearance is causing considerable trouble to the family. Searching parties are looking for her. She was found at 4 o'clock this afternoon short distance from Maxwell. She appears to be in her right mind, although she must have been somewhat demented at the time of leaving. Searching parties scoured the country all day for her. Thought He Had Lived Long Enough. GORDON, Neb., June 1 .- (Special.) -- Mark Busick, a batchelor about 30 years of age, living twelve miles south on the river, committed suicide last night by taking strych-nine. Busick has suffered for years with rheumatism and recently with neuralgia of the stomach. Yesterday about 4 o'clock he remarked to his sister that he ook for him and found him lying dead upon the river bank. Excellent Crop in York County. YORK, Neb., June 1 .- (Special.) -- A heavy rain fell here all last night, thoroughly wetting everything. An investigation shows that most of the corn of the county is planted and much of it is up and being cul-tivated. Oats, wheat and rye are beginning to head out and everything is far advanced. Should the favorable prospects continue the crop of small grain in this county will be enormous. The crop of fruit will not be as heavy as was expected. The recent hall, to-

YORK, Neb., June 1 .- (Special.) - A suit was some time ago commenced by eastern parties to foreclose a mortgage that was given by John Fitzpatrick, deceased, on his stable, lands in this county. Fitzpatrick died some time ago and an administrator was appointed to look after the estate. There are no heirs to be found. His estate amounts to quite a sam. His real estate now being foreclosed on by the holders is far in excess of the amount of the mortgages. This being the case, by the laws of the state, the money which is left after payment of the debts of the estate will go to the state. County Attorney Harlan has answered to the petition of the plaintiff, setting up the rights of the state, and prays that the money over and above all debts be turned over to the clerk of the dis-trict court and then disposed of by order of the court. This is the first case of escheat which has ever appeared in this county. Fitzpatrick was a farmer and resided near
