allver advocates represent, that no co-operative agreement among the leading nations for a larger use of sliver can be obtained, that fact alone would be a cogent and suffcient reason why the United States should decline to stuitify itself by embarking single-handed in an experiment so reckless and so distrusted as to be shunned and coldly rejected by the statesmen of every enlightened mation. But this hopeless rep-resentation of the silver question in Europe is untrue. The trend of public opinion Germany and in Great Britain favors tol-erance of the question."

HILL MAKES A SUGGESTION.

Before the debate proceeded Mr. Hill sug-gested that a vote on the Brown resolution, declaring issues of future bonds illegal, should follow the vote on the Butler prohibitory bill.

Mr. Brown assented and Mr. Butler wanted 6 o'clock tomorrow evening fixed as the time for the vote on the Brown resolution. Mr. Hill insisted, however, that the "whole bond business" should be cleared from the floor today.

Objections were made and no agreement was effected.

Mr. Brown then resumed his speech of yesterday, discussing bonds and free silver coinage. Mr. Brown was followed by his Utah coileague, Mr. Cannon. They had occupied different positions on the Dingley tariff bill, the former having voted for and the latter against the consideration. Mr. Cannon re-plied to strictures made on the five republican senators voting against the Dingley bill. He resented the charge of insincerity. He characterized the tariff bill as an "iniquity and monstrosity of legislation," sec-tional and unjust. He had been acquitted by his conscience and by his constituents. Mr. Cannon referred to the choice of Senators Carter and Mantle of Montana, Dubois of Idaho, Teller of Colorado and himself as delegates to the national convention. states in for the free coinage of silver," declared Mr. Cannon, in impassioned tones, "and they look to the leadership of Henry M. Teller, rather than that of the dis-tinguished senator from Ohio." (Sherman). At this point a report from the house was received, as to the passage of the river and harbor bill over the president's veto. Mr. Vest asked that the bill and veto be taken up as soon as the vote on the bond bill was token. Mr. Sherman objected, unless an agreement on the filled cheese bil was made. Thereupon Mr. Vest gave notice that he would move to take up the river and harbor bill veto tomorrow. Before continuing the bond debate Mr. Butler sought to have 5 p. m., today, fixed for a vote on the bond bill, but Mr. Ts ler objected, on the ground that the present agreement for a vote before adjournment was ample.

The financial plank is as follows: We are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, except by international agreement, and until such agreement shall be obtained, we believe the present gold standard should be maintained.

A vigorous foreign policy is urged, also estriction of immigration and just administration of pension laws. The platform clozes with a declaration of loyalty to Thomas

B. Reed, thanks to the Maine members in congress and a pledge of hearty support to the candidate for governor. After the pasnage of these resolutions the convention afterneed adjourned.

POLITICAL PROSPECTS. BOIES lowa Democrats Think He Will Be a Factor at Chleago. DES MOINES, June 2 .- (Special.)-The onference which has been called by the delegation selected at Dubuque to the democratic national convention, to be held here June 6, is arousing much interest among lemocrats generally in the state. The delegation is solid for silver, but it is also convention efforts have been made to get an expression from Boles on the money question, but all have been fruitless. The convention adopted a square-toed free silver at 16 to 1 declaration. After it had ad-journed the fact leaked out that Governor Boles had drafted a much milder plank, which favored the maintenance of parity between gold and silver, and had it presented to the committee on resolutions, which turned it down. Now it is the gen-eral belief that the Iowa silver leaders are waiting to see which way the cat will jump at Chicago. If they find that the Boies plank will be more popular they will stand on it; if the strict free silver idea seems to have the best chance they will stand on he platform the convention made for them. That Boies is attracting new and unex-pected strength as a presidential candidate is generally admitted. He is discussed in the most serious vein all over the coun-try, and democratic leaders in Iowa begin to seriously consider the possibility that he will be their national standard bearer. It is pointed out that he will come nearer to pointed out that he will come nearer to being a good compromise candidate, on whom the two wings of the party can stand, than any other man. And the lowa sil-verites are willing to utilize the incident of the silver plank at Dubuque to enable them to straddle the question, if a strad-die will help their candidate. The doings of the conference of the delegates are looked forward to with the utmost interlooked forward to with the utmost inter-

Opposition in the Eleventh Iowa Distriet Was Very Slight. CHEROKEE, Ia., June 2.-(Special Telegram.)-The Eleventh district congressional convention which was held in the Grand opera house here today was called to order at 2 p. m. by State Chairman Charles G. McMillan of Sloux county. A full representation was present from each of the thirteen counties. Rev. Mr. Kearns of the thirtee de-livered the invocation and Chairman Mc-Millan introduced Temporary Chairman Car-ter and Temporary Secretary Stevens of Osceola. The convention appointed committees on credentials and permanent organiza-tion and while waiting their return took a re-cess of ten minutes. A. Hubbard of Clay county was chosen permanent chairman and the temporary secretary was made perma-pent. The report of the committee on cre-pent. The report of the committee on cre-detials was accepted without dissension. The convention proceeded to vote for con-gressman by counties, which resulted in the nomination of Hon. George D. Perkins on the first ballot. The vote by counties was: For Perkins, Woodbury, 20; Buena Vista, 9; Clay, 7; Dickinson, 5; Ida, 7; Lyou, 7; Osceola, 5; Sac, 10. Total, 70. For Stru-ble, Cherokee, 9; Monona, 7; O'Brien, 9; Sioux, 11; Plymouth, 10; total, 45. A com-and closes his interview thus: "The nominee at St. Louis should have the undivided supprit of the party. Kentucky republicans won a signal triumph last fall on a ringing declaration for sound money. They should stand by their guns, forgetting all internecine strife and march shoulder to shoulder to a grand victory in November.

Allison and McKinley Clubs Combine DES MOINES, June 2 .- (Special Tele gram.)-The Iowa Allison club and the lowa Allison-McKinley club will consolidate. The former is the organization which was formed when the Allison boom was in ts glory, to take several thousands of Alison shouters to St. Louis. The Allison-McKinley club was organized later by the McKinley men here and at other places McKinley men here and at other places in the state. The two were bitter rivals for a long time, but when McKinley was seen to be an easy winner the Allison straight-cuts releated and now the two clubs will consolidate. A meeting of their com-mittees was hold behind closed doors to-night, at which the plans were agreed on for correctidation. The two errangeations consolidation. The two organizations will merge into one and go as a body. The name of the new organization has not been determined. Contest in the Seventh Congressional DES MOINES, June 2 .- (Special.)-The congressional fight in the Seventh district is rapidly getting to be one of the most intereating ever known in Iowa. The contest is over the republican nomination, which in this district is equivalent to an election. Capt. J. A. T. Hull, who has represented the district three terms, wants another nomination. James G. Berryhill, who like Hull is a resident of Des Moines, is his chief opponent. The campaign began over a year ago. The latest sensation in the contest is the announced candidacy of Dr. C. D. Beyington of Winterset, Madison county. He has been for many years the leading politician and business force of his county.

OMAHA HIGH SCHOOL FIELD DAY.

Interesting Program and a Long List of Entries. The annual field day of the High school occurs today. This afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, a big program of field sports will be pulled off at the old fair grounds on

Sherman avenue. The contests promise to be interesting, from the fact that the list be interesting, from the fact that the list of entries is a large one, even if no world's records are broken by the budding athletes. If the weather is pleasant it is hoped and expected that the attendance will be quite large. The boys feel that as there are no field games of any account he'd in Omaha their attempt to arouse interest in this branch of sport should be encouraged.
