exceptionally strong and lengthy speech in presenting itumphreys' name. He com-manded attention till he referred to Judge Humphreys as ably representing the views of those great statesmen, Cleveland and Carllele, and then he could not be heard on account of the bissing. Young heid the floor, attempting time after time to proceed. Ollie James, a free silver leader, mounted a chair and begged his fellow delegates to let Young proceed, when the latter was able to conlude. Numerous seconds to the nomina-Long made a most caustic speech in appealing for order, and instead that there would be no call of the counties until order was restored, and announced that no be recognized pending the call for

The call of the 119 counties was interrupted several contest announcements but was on several contest announcements but was finally announced as follows: Bronston, representing silver, 691; Humphreys, gold, 206. No changing of votes was allowed. The thirty votes of Kenton county, the home of Carlisle, were cast for Bronston, the colid vote of the Fifth district, which includes Louisville, and a good part of the vote of the mountainous counties in the Tenth and Eleventh districts, were cast for Humphreys, the sound money candidate. He got some other scattering votes from silver delegates. The silver men claim their delegates knew Bronston did not need any help and conciliatory as well as complimentary votes are said by them to have been cast. A motion was made and numerously seconded to make Bronston's election unanimous. There were many objections from the Louisville delegates, whereupon Chairman Long anounced that he would not put the motion. He introduced Senator Bronston as the chair-

Brongton made an eloquent free silver speech congratulating the democracy of Ken-tucky "who are no longer being tempted by the lure of gold and are at last securing such standing as to represent the rank and file of the democracy of the commonwealth. He denounced the concentration of wealth, class legislation and the efforts of the money power, as well as of the soldiers, to stifle the will of the people.

After Broaston's remarkably vigorous and lengthy speech there were repeated calls for John S. Rhea, who addressed the convention on the coinage question. Like Bronston he was greeted with repeated and continuous rounds of applause.

William Cromwell, J. E. Caraday and W. J. Moquote were made secretaries of the

On reassembling at 8 p. m. the committees were not ready to report and the con-vention was addressed by Evan Settle, Ollie James, W. P. Thorn, James Tyler and others on free coinage. A free silver greeting from the Kansus democratic convention was read and loudly applauded. At this juncture General P. Watt Hardin, the democratic candidate for governor last year, who had just ar-rived from the wedding of his son in Washngton, entered the hall on Senator Blackburn's arm. A most enthusiastic reception was given him. He was almost carried up on the platform. Chairman Broaston had Senator Blackburn introduce him. General Hardin addressed the convention at length on the abuse of the silver men in the past two years, but counseled peace and harmony for the future. He believed all the democ racy would soon be together on the finan-ial as well as other questions.

At 10:30 the chairman announced that the committee could not report tonight, and the convention adjourned till 9 a. m. tomorrow. PLANKS IN THE PLATFORM.

The committee on resolutions completed its work tonight, and was ready to report, but the report on credentials was wanted first. The majority report reaffirms democratic principles in the first section, others being

2. We are in favor of an honest dollar, a dollar worth neither more nor less than 100 cents. We favor bimetailism, and to that end we demand the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver, at the ratio of 16 to 1, as standard money, with equal legal tender power, independent of the action or advice of any other nation.

3. We hold that the secretary of the treasury should exercise his legal right to redeem all coin obligations in gold and silver, as may be more convenient and we are opposed to the issuance of bonds in time of peace for the maintenance of the gold reserve, or for any other purpose.

The ninth instructs delegates to Chicago o cast the vote of Kentucky as a unit for oe C. Blackburn for president. A minority report will be presented by A. Carrol, member of the committee from Louisville. It omits endorsing Blackburn. Its financial plank reads:

We insist upon a firm maintenance of the present legal standard of value, with such present legal standard of value, with such use of legal tender sliver coins and paper, convertible into coin on demand, as can be maintained without impairment or endangering the credit of the government, or diminishing the purchasing or debt paying power of the money in the hands of the people, and, in the absence of an international agreement, we protest against the free coinage of sliver or the compulsory purchase of builton by the United States, as injurious to the industrial and commercial interests of the country, and especially disastrous to the interests of the farmer and the laboring man.

PERSIMMON WINS THE DERBY

Great English Racing Prize Goes to the

ST. FRUSQUIN, THE FAVORITE, IS SECOND

prince of Wales' colt, at 5 to 1 against, won the Derby today. Leopold de Rothschild's St. Frusquin was second and H. E. Beddington's Earwig was third. This is the first time in 108 years that a prince of Wales has won the blue ribbon of the turf. In 1788, the prince, who subsequently reigned as George IV, won the Derby with Sir Thomas, the favorite, and it may be temarked as a coincidence that there were eleven starters then, and eleven horses ran in the race today.

This is the second day of Epsom summer meeting, and Derby day. The weather is hot and oppressive, although there were some showers during the morning. The rain did not affect the course to any appreciable degree, and it is pronounced to be the pardest on record.

The usual Derby crowd had assembled. There was the customary procession by road and the familiar gathering of nondescript and the tamiliar gathering of nondescript vehicles and of people, sights so frequently described as to need but little mention. But, like last year, the majority of the people present came here by train, specials leaving Victoria and Waterloo railroad stations every few minutes for this place. On the downs from daybreak the often pictured crowds assembled, and the always joyous scenes were the always joyous scenes were enacted. But the heliday element proper was targely eliminated, as the roundsbouts, shooting galleries, etc., were not allowed to hold

GUESTS OF THE PRINCE.

As the morning wore on the crowd promised to beat the record in point of number. The prince of Wales arrived by train from Victoria station just before the first race, and was greated with much enthusiasm. His party included the Princesses Victoria and Maud, his daughters. Prince Charles of Denmark, the duke and duchess of York, the duke and duchess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, the duke of Cambridge, Prince Christian and Princers Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein, the duke of Westminster, the marchioness of Salisbury, the duke and duchess of Devonshire, and the marquis of Lenderry. Mr. Leopold de Rothschild, owner of St. Frusquin, the favorite, was not present, the day being the anniversary of his father's death.

As the prince of Wales was entering his carriage at the downs station some one in the crowd shouted: "Good luck to you." The prince smilingly acknowledged the ex-pression of good will and drove to the course amid the cheers of the crowd assembled. In the opinion of the oldest race goers, there was never so little betting on the Derby as there was this year.

The duke of Westminster's Regret was scratched at noon, owing to the hardness o the course. The betting at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon was 13 to 8 on St. Frusquin, 9 to 2 against Persimmon and 9 to 1 against Teufel.

Among the Americans present on the course or about it were Marshall P. Wilder, course or about it were Marshail P. Wilder, James Murray, James Harries Hearn, all of New York; S. H. Kaufman of the Washington Star, Mr. McKinley of Chicago, Mr. Henry Rose of San Francisco, Mrs. M. H. Campbell and Miss Campbell, with a party of friends who arrived on a private coach; Arthur Armour of Toronto, G. S. Schmiliss of Cincinnati, Dr. M. Raans of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hilliard, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Barrymere, Mr. and Mrs. M. Maurice Barrymere, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brady and the Fuller sisters.

The Americans became enthusiastic when

Mr. Wishard's Helen Nicoll, ridden by Reiff, won the Epsom town plate.

The conditions were the Epsom town plate of £103 for 3-year-olds and upward, distance five furlongs, entrance £3. Helen Nicoll was first, Royal Flush second and Marble third. Eight however, The heattlesser. third. Eight horses ran. The betting was 100 to 8 against Helen Nicoll and Royal Flush and 2 to 1 against Marble.

Helen Nicoli made the whole of the run-ning and wen by half a length. A head separated the second and third horses. HOW THE DERBY WAS WON.

Eleven horses came to the post for the Derby stakes of $6,000 by subscription of £50 each for 3-year-old colts, to carry 126 pounds, and fillies 121, the nominator of the winner to receive £500, and the owner the second horse to receive £200 out of the stakes, about one and one-half miles.

The prince of Wales' bay coit, Persimmon, by St. Simon, out of Perdita, won. Leopold de Rothschild's St. Frusquin, brown coit, by St. Simon, out of Isabel, was second, and H. E. Beddington's colt, Earwig, by Hampton, out of Wriggle, was third. The first was ridden by J. Watts. St. Frinsquin by Lotes, and Earwig by Alsop. The betting at the post was 5 to 1 against Persimmon, 12 to 8, on St. Frinsquin and 22 to 1 co. 13 to 8 on St. Frusquin and 33 to 1 on Earwig. Eleven horses ran. The starter running upplaced were: T. Philips' br. c., Bay Ronald, by Hampton out of Black Duchess, by Galliard; J. H. H. Platt's br. c., Bradwardine, by Bercaldine, out of Monterose; Leopold de Rothschild's b. c., Guillistan, by Bragg, out of Guinevra; H. Wallace's b. c., Spook, by Oberon, out of Lady Lothian; W. C. Stevens' br. c., Teufel, hy Deepair, out of Clootie; E. Cassel's br. c., Toussaint, by St. Simon, out of Ste. Alverde; H. A. Harrison's br. c., Knight of the Thistle, by Rosebery, out of The Empress Maud; L. Brassey's b. g., Tamarind, by St. Symphorin; out of Marjora.

The horses were sent away at 3:23 p. m

Bay Ronald taking the lead for the first yards, with Teufel second and Earwig third St. Frusquin and Persimmon last. After the quarter mile post had been passed, Gulistan went to the front and St. Frusquin and Persimmon crept abreast of him. All to the half-way mark Bradwardine was first; Teufel and Persimmon following. A quarter of a mile from home St. Frusquin was first, closely followed by Persimmon, and then took place one of the most magnifi-cent finishes of modern times. It was nip and tuck, nose and nose almost to the finish line; in fact, the finish was so close as to cause much comment, only the judge was in a position to tell accurately which horse was the winner, and many persons thought St. Frusquin had crossed the line afficad. St. Frusquin had crossed the line aftead. Persimmon, however, won by about a neck. Two lengths separated St. Frusquin and Earwig, and Teufel was fourth. The time was 2:42, very fast, considering that the course was said to be at its hardest.

Lord Rosebery's Sir Visto won last year over a much better course in 2:43 2:5. Of recent years, from 1867 down to Persimmon's time it has only been besten once. In 1862 time, it has only been beaten once, in 1893 when Mr. W. H. McCalmont's Isinglass carried off the blue ribbon in 2:33. The Evening Standard's Epsom correspond-ent telegraphs that the finish for the Epsom Town plate was peculiar, the duke of Devor shire's Marbie appearing to get home cleverly from Royal Flush, with Helen Nicholi third. number was substituted. Loates who was on Royal Flush, thought he had won, and that Helen Nicoll was third.

CELEBRATED AT LONDON. LONDON, June 3.—The news of the vic-tory of Persimmen at Epsom today caused great excitement in London. There were large crowds of people at Victoria station and along the route to Marlborough house to witness the return of the Royal party. The prince was accorded a most enthusiastic reception, wild and continuous cheering. which the prince smilingly acknowledged, being heard from the depot to Mariborough house, where the heir apparent appeared, subsiding only some time after he had disappeared from public view. During the evening, commencing at 8:30 p. m., the prince gave a dinner to the members of the Jockey club, the meal being one of the most sumptuous and brilliant ever served at Marlanders, the property house for many years. horough house for many years past. A superb silver service, valued at from $100,000 to $200,000, was used, and the side board was burdened with racing and yachting cups, trophies of the prince's victories on and and water.

St. Maxim will bear watching, He has been doing finely and if nothing goen wrong he will be sent to the post in great shape this afternoon. Handspring's defeat Tuesday may keep him out of the race. With a good track a large maj rity of the lancy think the finish will be between Clifford and Handspring, if the latter starts. If Handspring doesn't show up Sir Walter will supercede him in the betting. beating for second place, but should the going be heavy, what's the matter with Horupipe?

NEW YORK, June 3.—Tomorrow will make the tenth running of the Brooklyn Handleap at a mile and a quarter over the Gravesend track and while the field is not likely to be large, nine horses being entered, according to the list given out tonight, there ought to be a good race. The probable starters, weights and jockeys are as follows: Clifford, 125, A. Clayfon, Keenan, 121, Grffin; Counter Tenor, 129, Hamilton; Sir Walter, 113, Taral; Nankipoo, 112, Deggett; Hornpipe, 111, Lamley; St. Maxim, 108, Simme; Lake Shore, 103, T. Sloan; Paladin, 93, O'Leary.

The list is smaller than had been expected, for several have failen by the wayside owing to lack of condition. Clifford is the favorite, with St. Maxim and Sir Walter coming next in favor. Counter Tenor will be guided by Hamilton, who is riding better than ever and who will have to take up five pounds penalty. Hornpipe, the winner of last year's handleap, will not lack for backers, as he is in good hands, and Lakeland thinks a good deal of him. Keenan has yet to show that has any business in the race. Nankipoo is an unknown quantity this year, although he was considered to have a fine chance when the weights were first sent out. Lake Shore and Paladin are likely to be the extreme outsiders in the betting. Only once in the history of the stake has it been won by a favorite, and many are figuring upon that, forgetting that the race has heretofore been the first of the year in the cast and all the starters have been sent to the post for the first time since the winter's rest with only their work to guide men in their estimates. This year they have been tried and their capacity is pretty well known, so flukes are not so likely to occur.

BARON CRISP SHOWS GOOD FORM

Negotiates Fleetwood's Queer Track in Excellent Time. NEW YORK, June 3.—New York horses carried off the honors in both the events trotted today at the spring meeting at Fleetwood park. Baron Crisp, owned by James Butler, president of the Driving club of New York, proved himself to be a great trotter York, proved himse'f to be a great trotter by winning every heat of the 2:24 race in a jog, stepping his mile in 2:164, 2:154, and 2:154. He trotted three-quarters of a mile at the rate of 2:11 in the second heat, and could have kept up the clip to the finish apparently, if any of the others had been fast enough to force him out. The horse is entered in the $13,000 Merchants' and Manufacturers' stakes, to be trotted next month at Detroit, and his performance today makes him a formidable candidate for first honors in the richest trotting event of the year. He has been trained at Fleetwood by John Kelly of Directum fame. The fast young mare, Ernsie, owned by William Kelly, another prominent member of the Driving club of Ernsie, owned by William Kelly, another prominent member of the Driving club of New York, and trained at Fleetwood park by W. H. McCarthy, gave the talent a big surprise by winning the 2:15 race in straight heats, going the second mile in 2:14½. Roetta Soap, the favorite, finished seventh in a field of nine horses. Results:

2:15 class, trotting, purse 1509; Ernsie won all heats. Time: 2:183, 2:14½, 2:15¼. Nutshell, King Albert, Dennis, East View, Maud C. Roetta Soap, Nettle Wilkes and Scranton Belle also started.

EXCELLENT SHOW MADE BY THE BOYS

Numerous Competitors in Each Event Make the Afternoon a Lively One for All Who Win Medals.

The second annual field day of the Omaha High school, given under the very efficient management of Prof. Cook, ably assisted by Messrs, Earl A. Norton of Chicago and C. F. Simpson of Omaha, was held on the old fair grounds yesterday afternoon.

It was an ideal June day, one of those rare ones the poets sing about. Nebraskans, you know, are fond of boasting that nothing less than a Venetian sky can rival the sky that overarches the Antelope state in the commer time. This may seem irrelevant, but work yesterday was when the sun was at its warmest and brightest. When it was veiled for a brief interval under vagrant clouds, they did not do so well. Athletics demand almost as much moral as physical stimulus. They require heart as well as The official roster of the afternoon was Prof. Cook, referee; Sandy Griswold, starter; Earl A. Norton, judge; C. K. Denman, timer, and H. J. Lund and C. F. Simpson, measurera. The field day committee consisted of W. T. Gardner, H. A. Tukey, Louis B. Reed and M. DeWitte Hopkins. The card was an excellent one, and went off as smoothly and as successfully as the working of a well lubricated piece of machinery. There was neither hitch nor halt to mar the afternoon's eport, and, while the crowd of spectators was not what would be expected on a Manhatton field, it was strictly select and re men and womanly young girls, the majority of the former in natty gray uniform, a la militaire, and the latter in the cool and pretty raiment of summer. Inside the quarriages, and, altogether, the old fair grounds presented a pleasing and plcturesque scene.

In the athlet c ranks Will Gardner towered head and shoulders above all his confreres. He took a "piece" of every event he was in, and that, too, without the preliminary traina individualize, but young Mr. Gardner is serving of all kinds of praise and praise for "Billy" is praise for his classmates. He stands five feet eight and a half is stockings and though is not as wide as a c door, it is nearly as deep as a well to all appearances. Billy's forearms and hands are brown and rugged with exposure, and the back of his neck is as red as the od a turkey gobbler, and yesterday afternoon his handsome face was criss-crossed with perspiration and dirt. But all the contestants were good, presenting a splendid picture of physical development and health.

The card opened with the 100-yard sprint with Collett, Jamison, Kopald, Gardner, Keye, Godso, Bell, Leonard, McKell, Powell, Hopkins, Cowgill and Towne entered. They all toed the scratch save Jamison. On the occond break the hig field was sent away, all but Powell, who was left at the post. The dash was spirited. HANSEN AND HOLTON LOSE A LAP. Net Result of Young McCall's At-tempt to Get Even.

The 2,000 people who witnessed last night's picycle race at Churles Street park were treated to some rare sport. As a prejude to the regular race, the giant Fredrickson to the regular race, the grant Fredrickson came out to establish a professional half-mile state record. His appearance on the track was a signal for tumultuous applause. After encircling the track several times in order to warm up, he was away like a bird, and fairly made the boards of the track creak. As he came over the line for the linish the three watches clicked 1:92 flat, which is the fastest unpaced half mile ever ridden in the state.

Promptly at 7:38 the five riders were away on their third night's journey. A special

Captain H. W. Cremer Dies of Apoplexy of the Brain. Captain H. W. Cremer died at his residence, Twenty-first and Webster streets, at noon yesterday after a long illness from apoplexy of the brain. His death has caused general regret among his numerous friends, especially through the circle of Omaha's pioneer citizens who had known Captain Cremer for over thirty years.

The deceased was a member of the Loyal legion, and that organization will have charge of his funeral services. He served throughout the war of the rebellion with considerable distinction. He was captain of the Seventh Iowa cavalry and before the conclusion of the war was breveted colonel. Ha was 54 years of age. The last years he had lived in this city, having been connected with the development of some of the city's best institutions. For a number of years he was engaged in the crockery business, but failing health compelled him to retire several years ago. He had been blind
