

MORGAN WILL HAVE TO HANG

Final Decision Upholds the Verdict of the Trial Jury.

SUPREME COURT DECLINES TO INTERFERE

Slayer of Ida Gaskill Must Explain His Fearful Crime on the Gallows—Hoover Also Denied a Rehearing.

LINCOLN, June 3.—(Special Telegram.)—The supreme court this morning made two rulings in Omaha murder cases, both adverse to the convicted men. In the case of Claude Hoover, found guilty of killing his brother-in-law, Sam DuBois, the motion for a rehearing was denied. In the George Morgan case the court sustained Judge Scott in denying a transcript of the records of the trial court, which Morgan had asked for without pay. Morgan was convicted in the district court of Douglas county for the murder of little Ida Gaskill and sentenced to be hanged. For the purpose of presenting to the supreme court error proceedings, to have this judgment reviewed, Morgan requested the district court to direct its shorthand reporter to make out and deliver to him gratuitously a longhand copy of the shorthand notes of the evidence in the case in which Morgan had been convicted. He supported this application by his affidavit that he was unable, by reason of his poverty, to pay for the shorthand copy of the evidence. Judge Scott refused to comply with this request and to reverse his ruling and Morgan prosecuted his petition in error in the supreme court. Attorney General Churchill attacked the constitutionality of the law under which the appeal was brought and in this attack the supreme court sustains the following syllabus: Section 49 of an act entitled "An Act to Amend Chapter 13, Revised Statutes of 1886, Entitled Courts," passed and approved February 27, 1879, is unconstitutional and void, because it act amends section 5 of an act passed and approved February 19, 1877, without referring in its title to said section or act, and without repealing said section 5.

LUTHERAN SYNOD BEGINS ITS WORK

Candidates for Ordination Examined Yesterday Afternoon.

INSANE MAN ON THE JURY

Insists on Disposing of a Case Without the Aid of His Fellow Jurors.

CONDEMNNS LITIGANTS TO IMPRISONMENT

Removed to the County Jail and the Insanity Commission Notified—Case Proceeds with Eleven Jurors.

J. H. Early, one of the men on the regular jury panel in the district court, while sitting as a juror in a case on trial in Judge Scott's court yesterday morning, showed signs of violent insanity and was removed by Sheriff McDonald and Deputy Sheriff Hill.

When court convened the case on trial was ordered to proceed. Early jumped to his feet and said he had something to say about that. "I think, your honor," he exclaimed, dramatically, "that all of the parties to this suit should be sent to the penitentiary. I have got to make a speech at Jefferson square tonight and I haven't got any time to waste on this case. I have got the power to do anything I want to, and I order all these people locked up at once."

The case on trial was that of Chris Bullinger against the Omaha Brewing association, for $15,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been received by falling through a hole in the cellar in the old brewery of the company. The jury was empaneled Tuesday afternoon at 9 o'clock for the first business session of the synod will be called to order. After the roll call the president's annual address will be delivered.

SMITH-BARKER.

One of the most beautiful and impressive weddings of the season was celebrated last evening at Trinity cathedral, when Miss Katherine Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Barker of this city, was united in marriage with Robert Franklin Smith of Council Bluffs. The cathedral was handsomely decorated for the occasion with palms and ropes of smilax, the changing colors of the bridal party passed down the aisles. Two little flower girls, Marion Haller and Rose Coffman, preceded with bouquets of white and pink roses.

The wedding was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, on Izard street, near Portia, where the guests were permitted to view the many costly and beautiful presents received by the newly married pair. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a short wedding trip, and will later make their home in Council Bluffs, where Mr. Smith is engaged in mercantile business.

Union Pacific Pioneers Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Union Pacific Pioneers' association was held yesterday afternoon in the Union Pacific car shops. In the afternoon the following were chosen: President, J. L. Lillie; first vice president, Henry Van Dusen; second vice president, John Damford; treasurer, John M. Rice, and secretary, Carr Axford.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Lester E. Stone of Nebraska, Neb., and Miss Sue H. Palmer of Tuscumbia, Mich., were married yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the Grand Hotel.

During the month of May the patrol wagons responded to 468 calls, of which thirteen were in answer to fire alarms. They traveled a distance of 705 miles.

As the hot weather and its attendant evils approach, bear in mind the old adage: "A pinch in time saves nine." It is well known that a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy taken in time is better than nine doses when prostrated with cholera morbus, cholera, or cholera infantum. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by druggists.

Today the Emma Flower mission will receive flowers for distribution among the several hospitals of the city. Parties having flowers to donate should notify Mrs. Hoagland, who will call for them.

M. C. Acheon will lecture on "Taxation, Assessment and Eminent Domain" before the law class of the Young Men's Christian association Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Young Men's Christian association parlors.

Yesterday evening Ambrose Ellington, while riding his bicycle, was run down by a runaway horse. Both wheels of the buggy to which the horse was attached passed over both bicycle and rider. The bicycle was uninjured and Ellington only suffered a few slight bruises.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Edgar M. Cox and Lillian Gere were united in marriage at the future home of the young couple. The ceremony was performed by Father Young of the Episcopal church in the presence of but half a dozen friends. The couple will reside at 4012 Nicholas street.

Hestelia Lewis pleaded guilty yesterday morning to the charge of disturbing the peace by using loud and profane language and was fined $5 and costs. She was accused of speaking of Joseph Taylor, a neighbor, in very uncomplimentary terms in the presence of his wife. The parties are colored and live near the library building.

Dr. Howland of Kansas City has written to Chief of Police Sigwart asking him what percentage of the crimes of the city have been committed while the criminals were under the influence of narcotics, hypnotism or magnetism. The chief will answer that the percentage has been zero, as no such cases have come under his observation during his fourteen years of service.

A HOUSE CLEANING PARTY

You Are Invited to Call While We Are Cleaning House.

WE'RE GETTING READY TO REMODEL

Every Dollar's Worth of Suits or Overcoats for Boys or Men Included in This Great 20 Per Cent Discount Sale.

Perhaps it isn't customary to invite guests to one's Spring housecleaning, but this invitation is to something like a Donation Party as well.

The fact is that we are preparing to overhaul our store at the S. W. corner of 15th and Douglas streets, from top to bottom this summer, and we must clear out everything in our stock that is possible, or else pack it up and store it away, and we don't want to open our new store with a dollar's worth of these goods now in stock.

Either course involves some temporary loss, of course, but we prefer to share this loss with our friends and customers.

To this end we are offering our whole stock of clothing, including men's, boys' and children's suits, bicycle suits, Alpaca and summer wear, in short everything in our complete establishment, excepting hats, caps and furnishing goods, at a genuine

REDUCTION OF 20 PER CENT. The necessity of getting these goods out of the way at this time is genuine and obvious.

The reduction in prices is equally genuine. The advantages to you are plain a they are unusual.
