EXAMINING THE RECORDS

sociation Case.

Nothing Elicited to Indicate that the Affairs of the Concern Were Conducted in an Unusual Manner.

Judge Smith the case of George J. Crane against the United States Masonic Benevoleut association was on trial all day. The testimony taken was devoid of anything at his wife, and who had been introduced and all bordering on the sensational and was was known to a large number of friends and essay, "Barriers," by Elizabeth C. Nothing of interest to the public was shown. except that salaries paid the officers and employes were nothing out of the ordinary, and were paid out of the regular fund of the association for expenses, and not out of the mortuary or guaranty funds.

HE PUNISHED THE NEGRO.

Father Avenges an Insult Offered His Daughter.

A man from Missouri made it decidedly interesting for a few moments last evening for a negro named Lee Berger. The Missourian was en route west with all of his covered wagon. One member of his family was a comely daughter, who was the cause of the trouble. The wagon had been stopped for a few minutes on Broadway near the Northwestern depot, while the husband looked after some matters that required his attention. The daughter and her mother were sitting on a spring seat in the front of the wagon and when the drunken negro came swaggering along the attractive face mediately made an insulting proposition to her and received a rap across the face with the horsewhip wielded with a good deal of vigor by the enraged mother. The brute was not deterred and attempted to pull the girl from the wagon, but was prevented by mother applying the butt end of the whip with good effect. The negro then left and a few moments later the father re-turned. When he learned of the outrage he went after the darkey. He found him in the vicinity of a barber shop further up the street. Then man from Missouri pulled a big knife from his clothes and started to carve the negro in proper shape. The latter defended himself with bricks and clubs and beat off his asssilant, but not until the Missourian had succeeded in clothes the fellow's clothes to Other colored men attempted op the trouble and the cutting stop white man left. The family went into camp near Twenty-fourth street. The matter was Housekeepers are in despair when they

Gladness Comes With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts-gentle efforts-pleasant efforts-rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs. prompt-ly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the Cali-fornia Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

One of the stock yards company's special officers arrested Mrs. Mary Garies yester-day afternoon for stealing coal from cars standing on the track. Judge Christmann sentenced the woman to three days in the city fall. Upon inquiring into the case the judge found that the woman was very poor and that she was in a delicate condition, so he changed the sentence to $1 and costs and remitted the costs. The woman paid the fine and departed for her home up near Savage's crossing.

CARELESSNESS.

Often Causes No End of Suffering. Probably half the people who see this ar-icle suffer from piles. It is one of the com-nonest diseases and one of the most obstinate. People have it for years and just be-cause it is not immediately fatal they neglect Carelessness causes no end of suffering. Carelessness about so simple a thing as piles bas often caused death.
