

KIMBALL, Neb., June 13.—(Special Tele-gram.)—The republican delegate convention for Kimball county met at the court house this afternoon and elected delegates to the different convention as follows: State, W.

cases were called, in view of the order made yesterday, requiring cases to be presented in the order called, whether the parties at interest were present or absent, except upon unanimous consent. Mr. Carter said it would, in order to expedite the business, be necessary to strictly enforce the rule. The Tennesse contexts were promptly contests were promptly The Tennessee taken up, the first taken up being from the Sixth district of that state, which includes the city of Nashville. The contestants were I. C. Crawley and Daniel Shofner and the the committee on credentials, and that the committee on credentials, and that Senator-elect Foraker should present the name of McKinley to the convention. Mark Hanna, representing McKinley, in-sisted on this agreement being carried out to the letter. Accordingly Judge Thompson had appeared in the contest cases before the national committee this week, so as to be better prepared for his work next week ontestees J. B. Bosley and H. L. Cheatham All were McKinley men. The contest turned upon charges of irregularities in the congressional convention, involving the conduct of the chairman, Mr. Cheatham, one of the contestees, having occupied that position. It was asserted on the other hand that the convention was entirely regular and that the bolt had no be better prepared for his work next week be better prepared for his work hext week as a member of the committee which passes finally on the contests. But there is one thing wanted by the Ohio delegation that does not come under their previous compacts, and that is the chairmanship of other excuse than that a colored man was made chairman. On motion of Mr. Manley, Bosley and Cheatham were seated. TEXAS DELEGATES NOT SEATED. This controversy had for its basis the al leged irregularities of the proceedings of the state convention called by Dr. Grant to elect delegates. Mr. Terrel appeared for the Cuney wing, and Judge Thompson of Ohio for the Grant people. Mr. Terrel claimed that Cuney had been elected temporary chairman by a large majority. Judge Thompson conceded this, but asserted that Cuney had accomplished this end by circuthat was in the province of the convention, but that as a delegate he wanted and would favor Foraker for chairman of the commit-tee on resolutions. Mr. Hanna said he wanted it understood he was not trying to frame the resolutions or name a candidate for vice president, or do anything that comes within the province of the converlating the report that Dr. Grant said n colored men should be made chairman, and by promising that the colored delegates should be protected in their presidential preferences. Judge Thompson attacked the ulings of Cuney, who had, he said, de-ided the state convention to be adjourned omes within the province of the convenwhen no vote had been taken upon a motion tion. So far as the nomination of McKinley is concerned he said that was already done to adjourn. Dr. Grant then called attention to the state of affairs, whereupon the conby the expressed preferences of a large ma vention reorganized and proceeded. The mo-tion for the election of delegates, he de jority of the delegation. General Grosvenor was more emphatic in clared, was never put. After this alleged adjournment the Cuneyites left, and, it was charged, became bolters. Of the 901 delestating that Senator-elect Foraker is the man wanted not only by Ohio, but by the McKinley men, for chairman of the commitgates in the convention, 641 remained in the hall and participated in the proceedings. of the same opinion. It was admitted that electing the delegation headed by Dr. Grant there was also some discussion of the res-It was asserted on the other hand, that olutions by the Ohio delegates-at-large. favor the last Ohio plank on the ta to color line was drawn in the election of temporary chairman. The Cuney delegates to the national convention chosen before tayor the fast onto plank of the tarth, which expresses McKinley's view, but the financial plank will be much more positive in its declaration. While all deny that any financial plank has been agreed on by Mc-Kinley's Ohio friends yet, there was a genadjournment, as declared by Chairman Cuney, were alleged to have been chosen by an overwhelming vote taken by the viva oce method, no roll call being demanded. that was given in these dispatches last proceedings in executive session In the sharp lines were drawn, and many of the members participated in discussing the merits of the question, among them being night, and which is being largely circulated, as well as discussed. Senator Higgins of Delaware and ex-Senator Warner Miller of Messrs. Fifer, Sutherland, Hahn, Fessenden and Clayton. It had become apparent during the hearing PLATT IS PLEASED. that the division between the black and tans that the division between the black and tans was due to differences on the presidential question. The Grant people were all for McKinley, while the onposition were gener-ally favorable to Allison and Reed. Far-tional feeling ran very high, and the con-vention was full of exciting occurrences. There were 7,000 people in the hall, many of whom it was stated next in any distance of the states of the state Mr. Platt, Edward Lauterbach, Hamilton Fish. State Chairman Hackett, and a few other shining lights of the Morton boom held an informal meeting in Mr. Platt's room tonight. Mr. Lauterbach presented the plank which he believed would best demonstrate New York's idea of a gold William J. Arkell, and which was given to whom, it was stated, participated informally in the proceedings. The vote was first taken on seating the Cuncy delerates at-large. An aye and may vote was taken, re-sulting in the negative by a vote of 17 to 25. William J. Arkell, and which was given to Mr. Lauterbach by John A. Sleicher, with a request that it be introduced in the order of resolutions. The one recites volumi-nously for gold; the other for gold, tersely and without verbiage. Mr. Platt stroked his beard and fumbled with the writing ma-terial on the table, but made on comment Several members refused to vote on this roll call, saying that they were convinced the neither delegation should be given series terial on the table, but made no comment. Mr. Lauterbach said afterwards: "We are When the result was announced, Mr. Fen-senden moved that it be declared the sense for a clear elucidation of the gold stand-ard, and the length of my plank is for the purpose of preventing straddling or misin-terpretation in any manenr." When the Associated press representative of the committee that neither delegation was entitled to be placed on the temporary roll, and this motion prevailed. IN THE DISTRICTS. The hearing in the Texas district contests saw Mr. Platt at the close of the con-ference he was not inclined to be comthen proceeded in their numerical order The contest from the First district was be nunloative as to his plans. To a volley of questions he made this terse and significant reply: "Whether we accomplish what we tween David Taylor and M. W. Lawson on one side, and Bailey Sparks and J. C. Canwell on the other. All four were colored men. It was stated that there was no Mccame for or not, we can at least take the credit of carrying one of our greatest coints; we have forced them to accept a gold standard plank." sold standard plank." Late tonight, in conversation with a New York state delegate, Mr. Flatt said. "If Mr. Depew had consulted us before be made his assertion that we could not bolt he would have known that we made the statement merely to force the committee on contested seats to give us our rights. I don't think we will bolt." At New York headquarters at midnight it was announced that it had been decided to present the name of General Benjamin F. Tracey of Brooklyn to the convention for vice presideat. and Lawson were seated. From the Second district, H. B. Kane and T. T. Poilard, who are said to be McKiney men, were seated. Their opponents were for Reed. The context in this case turned upon a charge that Hon. Webster Flanagan, who does not reside in this dis-trict, had carried the election for Kane and Pollard by the use of a lot of proxies. Flanagan was present and denounced the report as "an unmitigated lie." vice president.

and, therefore, assume that they still exist and, therefore, assume that they still exist as the state committee, since no state con-vention was held in 1894. It was by the call of this old committee that the conven-tion assembled which selected the regular delegation, the members of which are all the Michael The character that the colledelegation, the members of which are all for McKinley. The delegates of the "illy whites" faction are in most cases anti-McKinley men. The same question involved in delegates-at-large was involved in all the district delegations. An arrangement the district delegations. An arrangement was therefore agreed upon to group them and have the entire case presented in one hearing, giving a half hour to each side Mr. Melton appeared in behalf of the delegation headed by himself. He contended that there was but one organization; that committee had no power to hald over the committee had no power to hald over, if it could do that it could perpetuate it-self. Where, in that event, would the power end? Clearly in the face of this state of affairs there was nothing left to the mass of republicans but to get to-gether in mass meetings and reorganize, the Webster people having refused to call election of a temporary chairman until he could arrive at 7 o'clock. He moved a postponement until 8 o'clock.

election of a temporary chairman until he could arrive at 7 o'clock. He moved a postponement until 8 o'clock. He movid a Mr. De Young moved to lay the motion on the table, saying that he did not understand that Mr. Thompson was a candidate. All were prepared to yote, and as all arrange-ments were made, there could have been the first hopeless and with-drew, requesting his friends to yote for

W. Challice and Jasper Helvey. E. H. Hinshaw was nominated for county alterney by acclamation. For representative, Colonel George E. Jenkins was nominated by acclamation. Calvin F. Steele was instructed by a unanimous vote to select the delegates to the senatorial convention for the district comprising Jefferson and Thayer counties. For commissioner of the First district W. C. ine was nominated. Meiklejohn appears

It is safe to say that pending receipt of the report of the committee on credentials the sessions of Wednesday and Thursday and possibly Friday will be devoted to gen-eral convention business, interspersed with the committee on resolutions of the committee on resolutions charles L. Kurtz the Ohio member of the national committee, Judge A. C. Thomp-son of Portsmouth the Ohio member of the son of Portsmouth the Ohio member of the oratorical efforts by famous orators of the republican party in attendance.

TO THE COMMITTEE FIRST.

At all of the sessions it is probable that resolutions will be received and referred to the committee on resolutions with or with-out reading or debate, as the convention may Whether the important money ques. direct. tion will be precipitated before the convention before the report is re-ceived from the committee on resolu-tions is questionable, but regardless of any tions is questionable, out is so great that the discussion is liable to be precipitated at any time and is threatened by some silver men. It is hardly to be expected that the report of the committee on credentials can be prepared and presented to the convention before Thursday night or Friday morning if the contests are considered as thoroughly as they are by the national committee. There are 168 contests and it is doubtful if the committee on credentials can pass upon committee on credentials can pass upon committee on credentials can pass upon rule which may be adopted, the tension on the questions, giving any reasonable attention to the facts, short of three days and tion to the facts, anort of three days and three nights unless the report of the na-tional committee shall be adopted. The re-port of the committee is liable to precipi-tate the most lively convention scene witnessed in recent years. Next will probably come the report of the committee resolutions. This committee will on have clear sailing until the currency question is reached. On that question, in the committee and later in the convention, interest will be intense and the oratorical efforts pronounced. A member of the national committee, discussing the probable length of the conven-tion, said: "Considering the whole situa-tion, it is difficult to see how the reports of the committee on credentials and the com-mittee on resolutions can be disposed of before midnight on Friday by the convention; therefore, according to the natural order of things, the presentation of candidates will not occur until Saturday morning. Owing to the interest taken in the money question the convention will scarcely defer action on the platform until after the nomination of the candidate. It is well known that when the nomination of the candidate takes place the convention rapidly disintegrates and the gold standard men, who seem to predominate the convention will seem to predominate were with Mr. Hanna during the day. in the convention, will not take chances on heaving the silver men in possession when the platform is to be passed upon. This result might obtain, or indeed any result might be expected, if the adoption of the platform should be deferred until after the nomination

General Debility; Physical and Nervous Weakness and Prostration, arisin; from long continued illness, Excessive Physical or Mental Application, Exhausting Dealns upon the system be-yond its power of recuperation. The symptoms are varied: Weakness, Easy Fatigue, Weak or Lame Back, Sweat or Starting on going to sleep, Vertigo, Singlag in the Ears. No. 24 is a HOME-OPATHIC TONIC and will make you well there is Indigestion alternate with No. 10, the famous Specific for Dyspepsia; indigestion; weak stom ach; bad taste: coated tongue, offensive breath, loss of appetite, and dull, heavy stupid feeling; rising of water or food after enting. Scores of sufferers have been restored to LIFE, HEALTH and VIGOR, by the use of SPECIFICS No. 24 and No. 10.

"77" FOR Rose Cold Homeopathic Book mailed free,

Sold by druggists, or sent prepaid upon re-celpt of p-los, flask $1.00, trial 25 cents. Hum-phreys' Medicine Company. 111 William St. New York.

a meeting. NEW PARTY'S GROWTH.

Mr. Melton said that his organization was known as the "illy whites." The or-ganization had the encouragement and co-operation of the colored people, who had been recognized two to one in the conven-tion the color that the recommend party said that the recognized party He tion. He said that the recognized party had undertaken to rescue the state for the republican party and was accomplishing that in good shape. He declared that many prominent white men had come into then y prominent write men had come into the party since their organization was per-fected and that republicanism had for the first time become respectable. He said they had one club of 2,100, composed en-ticals of white men trely of white men. Judge Thompson of Ohio represented the Webster faction. He asserted that in view of the condition of affairs in South Caro-lina, which rendered it impossible for the above the showrepublican party to make a tangible show-ing in that state, no state ticket had been nominated for the past twenty years. Hence the party had failen into the practice of not holding state conventions and of al-lowing committees to hold over. The Web-ster committee had held on under these precedents and it was the direct descendnominated for the past twenty years. ant of the organization effected first in 1866.

Hon. Robert Smalls, the well known Hon. Robert Smalls, die Annerstein colored politician, supplemented Thompson's statement. Mr. Smalls, contended for the recognition of the regular organization. He asserted that the Meltonites had no He asserted that the Melfonites had no standing as a republican organization in the state and no excuse for coming before the national convention as claimants for sents. He admitted that there were some democrats who had professed willingness to call themselves republicans, but this was because of their opposition to Tillman-ism rather than because of their advo-cacy of republican doctring. Many of them were favorable to the gold standard and prowere favorable to the gold standard and pro-tection as against free silver and free trade. Many also objected to the liquor laws of the state. Mr. Brayton, a member of the national committee, another contestant for a seat in the convention, rose to address the comin thee. Mr. Hahn objected on the ground that he was a contestant, Mr. Fessenden contended for Mr. Brayton's right to speak as other members under similar circum-stances had been permitted to do. "Fair play is a jewei." he said.

HAVE MANY MEMBERS.

Mr. Brayton was allowed to proceed. He defended the new organization. He ex-plained the club system, which had been adopted in imitation of the Tillman style, and said it had worked admirably. These Kintey man in either of the delegations, Taylor and Lawson being for Reed and Sparks and Canwell for Allison. Taylor had been of especial benefit, because it alhad been of especial benefit, because it al-lowed a division of the races in their party organizations. Naturally, in view of the race prejudice, it was exceedingly difflacks were thrown together. Judge Long of Florida moved the seating of the Webster delegates. Congressman Settle moved to substitute the names of the Melton delegates. Mr. Settle supported his substitute, saying that the conditions in South Carolina were such that the new or-A receas was then taken until 7.30 tonight ganization ought by all means to be sup- This is the faction known as black and tan.

Timblin. ents were made, there could be no excuse for delay.

Mr. Huston said that he was satisfied that Mr. Thompson was laboring under a W. Young was renominated for commission misapprehension, and that if he were here in the Second district. Dr. J. H. Hall of the would be satisfied.

Mr. De Young's motion to lay on the table prevailed. Mr. De Young then nominated Mr. C. W. Fairbanks of Indiana for temporary chairman, saying that he was well known, and no eulogy was necessary. Mr. Kerens of Missouri seconded the There were no other nominaomination. R. B. Windham, F. H. Wilson, I Steimker, D. B. Smith, M. M. Beal, ions, and Mr. Fairbanks was named by the manimous vote of the committee.

Infanimous vote of the committee. The election of a temporary secretary he-ing next in order, Mr. Evans of Minnesota placed in nomination Mr. C. W. Johnson of Minnesota. Mr. Yerkes named W. E. Riley Hay, Henry Sackett, A. L. Timblin, J. J. Davis, I. N. Woodford, J. E. Day, J. Becker, Isaac Toland, H. F. Taylor, L. Mayfield. The delegation was instruct Mayfield. The delegation was instructed for Hon. Orlando Tefft of Avoca for lieuten of Kentucky and Senator Gear, Harry H. Smith. The two latter names were with-drawn, upon the understanding that Mr. Johnson should be made secretary and Riley and Smith assistant secretaries. So many names were mentioned for assistant secre-tary, that Mr. Fessenden suggested facetiously that each state and territory be given an assistant secretary. Mr. Hahn put Mr. Fessenden's suggestion seriously, moving that one secretary and three assistants be chosen, and that each member of the committee should be allowed to designate an honorary secretary. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Johnson was elected secretary, and Messrs. Riley, Smith and A. B. Humphreys of New York, assistants. J. H. Stone of Michigan, F. H. Wilson of Missouri, J. R. Malloy of Onio, R. S. Hatchen of Indiana and J. R. Beam of New York were designated as rending clerks. Or, the nomination of Mr. Scott of Wort Virginia, Rabbi Samuel Sale of St. Louis Missouri, J. R. Malloy of Ohlo, R.

as chosen chaplain. The Texas contest was then announced to in order. This contest involves all delegates-at-large, all the thirteen district delegates, there being one set of contestees and two sets of contestants in each case. The question in dispute between one of the sets and the other two was that of party organization, and that between the other two of conformity to party rules. Wright luney heads the delegation claiming to be regular.

ELIMINATE THE LILYWHITES.

The question of party organization was taken up, and H. F. McGregory representing the "lilywhites" or reform contestants, addressed the committee in behalf of that or-ganization. Mr. McGregor claimed that his organization was regular, having been or-ganized prior to the Minneapolis conven-tion. He said that his delegation was tion. He said that his delegation was largely for McKinley, because of the feeling in favor of protection. Still they had or-dinarily avoided instructions and would be satisfied with any candidate nominated. He claimed that the democratic party had become a minority party. Mr. McGregor, hav-ing referred to the 'rottenness' of the re-publican party in the sonth, Mr. Hill of Mississippi called him to order, saying that Mr. McGregor should confine his remarks to his own territory.

for him to define his principles at length at this time, for as editor of a paper the Mr. John Grant, representing the other set of contestants, said the 'lilywhites' were not entitled to consideration as republicans. They were a political vacuum-political bandits. They were democrats in all but name. Their organization was a direct thrust at color. In support of this proposi-tion he asserted that the "lilywhites" deconfident of his election. A motion was adopted that a committee of one from each ward and precinct be appointed to confer with Mr. Hammond manded separate primaries for whites and blacks. Coming down to the merits of his own contest, he asserted that his was the and select delegates to the state and cor gressional conventions and also select dele gates to the senatorial convention. committee reported the following list own contest, he asserted and called attention to regular organization, and called attention to the fact that the "lilywhites" had been "sat upon" at Minneapolis. He anserted that the reformers had scarcely been heard delegater, which were unanimously elected of since the convention of four years ago. They were accustomed to hibernate, except delegates, which were unanimously elected: State Convention-R. B. Schneider, chair-man; L. D. Richards, W. J. Courtright, J. C. Cleland, George H. Hickock, Charlie Mooney, A. C. Hull, L. M. Keene, H. K. Goff, William Golder, Andrew Linn, Chris Cusack, George Martin, C. A. Larson, Thomas Acom, L. E. Atkinson, M. T. Zei-ters, Charles Bang, Meiklejohn is the first choice of the delegation, but MacColl is the second choice of at least eight of the delegates. The balance of the delegation when "there was something in sight." Mr. Terrell, who was United States min-ister to Belgium under Harrison, followed uit to secure co-operation when whites and Mr. Grant in support of the "black and tan element, while he was in turn followed by Mr. Love, a colored man, in behalf of the 'lilywhites." At the conclusion of Mr. Love's speech

elegates. The balance of the delegation is scattering. Congressional-L. D. Richards, chairman. I. M. Shiveley, T. Mathews, R. B. Schneider, Ed. Percey, L. G. Bechtold, Milton May, W. H. Hawley, Daniel Swanson, E. Schurthe committee, without division, decided the state committee, of which Mr. Grant is chairman, to be the regular organization.

. Leaning and G. W. Beard; congressional. imblin. On the next ballot, however, A. Graves got 101 votes to Timblin's 100, T. Johnson and I. N. Broyles; senatorial, Simon and F. J. Bellows; representa-Graves being nominated by one vote. George ive. Isaac Roush and C. S. Beard. The belegates to the congressional convention vere instructed to vote for Captain Aker in the Second district. Dr. J. H. Hail of this city was elected chairman of the county so long as there is any chance for his central committee, and D. K. Barr of this city secretary. Judge W. H. Newell was elected delegate-at-large to the state con-

F.

for float representative.

J. E. Frick of Fremont was chosen tem

Resolved. That the delegates chosen by

Resolved. That the deligates chosen by this conventions to the state and congress sional conventions be and hereby are in structed to use all honorable means to se-cure the nomination of Mr. Hammond as a candidate for congress from said congres-sional district.

The resolution was unanimously adopted. There were loud calls for Hammond. Mr.

Hammond came forward and briefly thanked the convention for the honor conferred upor him. He stated that it was not necessary were known to those present. He felt gratified with his prospects for a nomi-nation, and should he be nominated felt scattering.

He fel

The

O'NEILL, Neb., June 13.-(Special Tele-gram.)-One of the most interesting and C. West, W. D. Williams, J. W. Edmunds ounty was the republican event in this city Thomas Holmes, William Delles Dernler, A. S. Cooley, George W. Clark, Frank Wiles, A. Rice of Stuart were nominated for presentatives, and E. H. Benedict of May o Nell for county attorney. Delegates were elected to the state and senatorial conver-A resolution to instruct the state delegation for George Brooks for treasurer was defeated.

Iowa's National Committeeman

ant governor. The delegates to the float convention are: Samuel Cox of Elwood. MARSHALLTOWN, June 13 .- (Special.)-John Ericson, P. G. Barnum, Thomas A hot contest is on in the Iowa delegation John Ericson, P. G. Barnum, Thomas Parmelce, George Sheldon, Wilson Gilmore, Mont Robb, William Royal, Charles Rivett, to ascertain who will succeed Mr. Clarkson as national committeeman for lowa. Among those named are Hon, Calvin Mann-Among those named are Hon, Calvin Mann-ing of Ottumwa, C. M. Junkin, editor of the Ledger at Fairfield, Hon, A. B. Cum-mins of Des Moines, Hon, Gib Pray of Webster City, and Al Swalm, editor of the S. S. English, E. C. Coleman, Will Richard-son, C. L. Marshall, A. C. Beeson, James Robertson, Henry Boeck, S. R. Corrigan, I. W. Teegarden, D. Woodward, T. F. Jameson, C. D. Quick, Ira Jenkins, F. F. Everett. The delegation was instructed for Herald, Oskaloosa. It has been the custom for the lowa delegation to choose one of Hon, Steve W. Odton of Weeping Water its members for this position, and it is not probable, therefore, that an outsider will DODGE COUNTY ENDORSES HAMMOND get the plum. This leaves Hon. Gib Pray and Al Swalm out of the fight. The for-FREMONT, June 13.-(Special.)-The re-publican county convention called to select mer, not having been able to secure a place on the state central committee from delegates to the state congressional and his own district could not hope for this friend of Major Lacey and also of Judge court room at i o'clock this afternoon. The room was well filled and the delegates earnest and enthusiastic. John C. Cleland, Blanchard, would stand aside in order not to interfere with their congressional aschairman of the county committee, called the convention to order and read the callpirations and Mr. Manning is the man they most fear.

It would seem that Mr. Cummins has the lead in the contest thus far, but that very fact may defeat him. Junkin already porary chairman and L. A. Williams of Scribner temporary secretary. The committee on credentials was appointed, which reported delegations present from all wards has a number of votes pledged to him and and precincts in the county except Elkhorn township. There were no contesting dele-gations. The temporary organization was made permanent. George Bechtold intro-duced the following resolution: as he has been active in politics he has a large and influential acquaintance over the utate.

ST. LOUIS, June 13 .- The Post-Dispatch this afternoon says: "The contest in the lowa delegation for national committeeman duced the following resolution: Whereas, The republicans of Dodge county recognizing in Ross L. Hammond an able clean and reliable man, a republican im-bued with a desire to carry into execution the cardinal principles of his party, and Whereas. Mr. Hammond is the choice of the republicans of Dodge county as a can-didate for congress from the Third con-gressional district of Nebraska; therefore, be it premises to be lively. General Clarkson, it is understood, does not want the place again. There are three candidates, Calvin Manning of Ottumwa seems to have a good show and A. B. Cummings of Des Moines and Charles Junkin of Fairfield seem to be strictly in the race." atorial conventions.

Populists Quite Active.

HASTINGS, June 13 .- (Special Telegram.) -The populist county central committee met today and fixed July 11 as the day for electing delegates to the state and other

WAHOO, Neb., June 13.-(Special Telegram.)-The populist county central com-mittee met here today and called the county convention to meet July 10 to select dele-gates to the state, congressional and sen-

THE GREAT HUXLEY.

What Huxley, the Great English Scientist, Considered the Best Start in Life.

Start in Life. The great English scientist, Huxley, said the best start in life is a sound stomach. Weak stomachs fail to diges food properly, because they lack the proper (quality of digestive acids (lactic and hydrochlorie) and peptogenic products; the most sensible temedy in all cases of indigestion is to take after each meel one or two of Stuart's Dys-peopla Tablets, because they supply in a pleasant, tarmiens form all the elements that weak stomachs lack. The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepala Tablets will cure every form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach. They increase fleak, having pure blood, strong nerves, a bright eye and clear com-

They increase flesh insure pure blood, strong nerves, a bright eye and clear com-plexion, because all these result only from wholesome food well digested. Nearly all druggists sell Stuart's Dyspep-sia Tablets at 50 cents, full sized puckage, Send for free book on s'omach troubles, the Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.