June Clearing Sale

of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing

Prices LOWER than at usual August Clearing Sales—a bargain feast to delight close buyers—supply and demand rule prices the world over.

When buyers are many and sellers few prices go up—reverse it, and prices take a tumble. Just now the principal makers of high grade clothing seem to be overloaded with the finer and finest grades of spring and summer goods, whereas trade all over the country has for weeks been practically at a standstill, resulting in most phenomenal purchasing opportunities for the cash buyer.

Men's All Wool Suits will go on sale at prices that will pale into insignificance any and all suit sales of the year. There are plaid, gray and brown all wool chevrons, Suits that under ordinary conditions could not be produced for less than $7.50, and Monday they will go on sale at only $3.75.

Men's Fine Suits, all $8.50, $9.00 and $10.00 worsteds, chevrons and cassimeres, handsome light and dark colors, and Monday and all week these Suits will go on sale at the phenomenally low price of $4.50.

Men's Very Fine Suits, such as imported Isle of Harris and Donegal chevrons; compare these Suits with the kind that ordinary clothing stores offer for $15.00 and $18.00; on sale Monday and all week for $10.00.

900 Men's Extra Fine Suits, best grades silk mixed West of England and Globe worsteds, lined throughout with high cost Prince's serge (the most durable lining in existence); you can compare these Suits with the Suits that tailors would make to order for $35.00.

Men's Long Pants Suits at $2.75, $5.00 and $7.50; worth from $5.00 to $15.00. Children's Suits at 95c, $1.50, $2.75 and $3.75; worth double. Mail orders filled.
