WHITNEY ON WHITE METAL

Declares a Free Coinage Declaration Will Disrupt the Party.

BUT IT LOOKS INEVITABLE TO HIM

Indicates Where Sound Money Menbers of the Party Must Turn if the Chicago Convention is Unsatisfactory.

NEW YORK, June 21.—William C. Whitney today made public a statement in which he defines the political situations, makes his position on a free coinage declaration and concludes by saying that he is not a presidential possibility; that he would not run if nominated, and would not serve if elected.

NO ROOM FOR CHOICE.

"Into this intense, and now just about to be successful struggle for the establishment of a silver standard, it is proposed that we should intervene by assuming to establish it alone.

"I have been practically out of politics for four years and there are now many eastern democrats who can do much more than I can for the party.

"The recent article of Dr. Abrent in the Review shows very clearly the view taken by our friends abroad upon this subject.

"It is not a question as to what we wish, but what we are able to do. A strong man may undertake a task too great for his strength and break down.

"Whether these differences can be reconciled it is impossible to anticipate. The democratic party stands for principles that are the national platform of the country.

"Personally, it is my opinion if the democratic party goes on that platform at this time it will meet with the most disastrous results.

"I find myself, however, spoken of here and there as a possible candidate; not very attractively, if I should fail to notice it.

"I am not a presidential possibility; I am not a presidential possibility; I am not a presidential possibility; I am not a presidential possibility.

HIS CONVICTION HAD BEEN LOOKED FOR

BEATRICE, Neb., June 21.—(Special Telegram.)—J. C. Williams, the Blue Springs bank president, whose conviction for forgetting the bank's books was exclusively reported in this morning's News, failed to secure bonds and was taken to jail shortly after midnight.

The verdict seems to give general satisfaction, as Williams was generally looked upon as guilty of the fraud, although there was quite a strong feeling that a verdict of guilty would not be obtained. Williams will probably receive his sentence when court reconvenes the last of the week.

WHY AUBURN HAS NO POLICE

Deadlock Between the Mayor and the Council Over a Chief.

AUBURN, Neb., June 21.—(Special.)—

From the beginning of the present municipal year in May, Mayor J. W. Darrab and the city council have been in a deadlock over the appointment of chief of police. So far the mayor has appointed successively W. H. Lorange, A. W. Hutchinson and L. D. Wheelon, and the council has refused to confirm either one of them.

Licensees to sell liquors were last night granted to Adolph Kuhlman and Andrew Knipe and now the thirty men in Auburn are getting ready to start their business.

About two years ago the council passed an occupation tax of $250 in addition to the regular license on all saloons and made the councilmen who refused to pay it, by paying this occupation tax. Now the Board of Education is demanding from the city some $1,200 taken in by the city as such occupation tax since the ordinance was passed. There is likely to be a legal battle to determine which department is entitled to the money.
