DR. HERZ SAILS FOR NEW YORK.

Panama Swindler Well Enough to Leave His Sickbed in England.

LONDON, June 25 .- The Morning abnounces that Cornelius Herz will sail from Southampton for New York with his family in a few days. It was only in May that the authorities of Great Britain finally determined to refuse the request of the French government for the extradition of Dr. Herz for complicity in the Panama scandals, after he had been under the surveillance of the authorities on a sick bed at Bournemouth for over three years. It had been repeatedly stated by eminent medical authorities that Dr. Herz was not able to appear before a magistrate for examination. A special modification of the treaty of extradition with France was made so as to allow the magistrate to conduct the examination at Dr. Herz's bedside. Sir John Bridges who conducted the examination, the patient be-ing supported by two nurses and his wife. In declining to grant the sick man's ex-tradition said the proceedings formed the saddest spectacle he had ever seen and filled him with pity for the wife and chil-dren, who were so carefully attending the he had been under the surveillance of the dren, who were so carefully attending the dying man.
