Transmississippians to Take Part in the Big Jubilee

The Transmississippians of Council Bluffs held a meeting in the council chamber of the city building last evening and spent some time in discussing the prominent part that Council Bluffs will take in the big enterprise. The meeting was called for the purpose of perfecting arrangements and giving definite shape to the part that Council Bluffs is to play in the ratification jubilee in Omaha, this evening. Mayor Carson was chosen chairman of the meeting and Clarence Judson secretary. It was decided that Council Bluffs should send across the bridge should be one of imposing proportions. Many are eager to go, and the best way of getting there is being discussed. Committees were appointed to wait upon all military and civic organizations and invite them to participate. After some discussion the following general invitation was issued:

In pursuance of a resolution of a mass meeting of business men of Council Bluffs, held at the council chamber on Thursday evening, June 25, an invitation is hereby extended to all citizens of Council Bluffs, military and civic organizations, and all societies, to attend the Transmississippi inauguration jubilee in Omaha, and all societies and organizations are invited to bring every citizen to Omaha between 7 and 9 o'clock tonight. Take motor cars not later than 6:30 o'clock. George Carson, chairman of the jubilee, and Colonel Dally was chosen to act as marshal of the Council Bluffs contingent and lead them to their places in the line. The transportation committee, headed by Mr. Dally, will have charge of the contingent, and it is requested that they be ready to move at 6:30 o'clock. In any event it is decided to retain Mr. Teller in the senate should he not be nominated or elected president.

HOOMING TELLER FOR PRESIDENT. Colorado Will Send Four Hundred Delegates to Chicago. DENVER, June 25.—The state of Senator Henry D. Teller, who has been advocating his candidacy on a silver ticket for president of the United States, are feeling much encouraged by the reception the boom started in St. Louis immediately after the first steps toward his nomination were taken. It is announced that Mr. Teller's name will be put forward for the nomination in a caucus to be held in St. Louis on the 26th. It is believed that Mr. Teller's name will be put forward for the nomination in a caucus to be held in St. Louis on the 26th. It is believed that Mr. Teller's name will be put forward for the nomination in a caucus to be held in St. Louis on the 26th.

Colorado Will Offer No Resolutions, and her delegates will not be particularly conspicuous in the convention, but it is probable that the state will send a delegation of citizens which is expected to number about 500. It is asserted that from 250 to 500 men, including many of the wealthiest and most influential of the state, will be in Chicago to support the free silver cause. The matter of details, but the work is going forward on a satisfactory basis.

Candidates Have an Inauguration. The Swedish Garfield Republican club held a meeting last night at which candidates for the republican nomination for congress were named. The candidates named were: M. P. Stamm and Thomas F. Lecheor for congress from the Kansas City district; W. A. Robinson for congress from the Colorado district; and J. W. Coe for congress from the Colorado district.

Field Workers Elect Officers. Sunday School Conference at Boston Getting Through Business. BOSTON, June 25.—The annual meeting of the field workers was again filled with a large body of Sunday school workers and their friends today at the praise service which D. L. Moody conducted. At the business meeting the treasurer reported that the total receipts of his report showing receipts for the last three years to be $21,260 and expenses $21,260. The meeting closed with the singing of the audience part of the program.

Youngest of the Stone Sisters Levels Her Finger at Cottle. AKRON, O., June 25.—Among the witnesses examined this morning in the trial of Romulus Cottle, charged with the murder of Alvin N. Stone, his wife and Ira F. Stillson, were Emma and Hattie Stone, both of whom had terrible struggles with the murderer. Neither could throw the slightest evidence on the identity of the murderer and their testimony was simply the record of their experiences on the night of the murder. A number of other witnesses were examined without developing anything of importance.

Flora Stone, the younger sister of Emma and Hattie, testified this morning. She said she saw the murderer and smashed the door and entered the room of the victim and went for help. She was asked if at that time she recognized the voice of Cottle. She said she recognized the voice of Cottle. She said she recognized the voice of Cottle. She said she recognized the voice of Cottle.

Substitutes for Horsedors. Acid Phosphate are Dangerous. Because they cost less, many cheap imitations are offered, some of which are dangerous, and none of which will produce the same effect as the genuine. Insist upon having "Horsedors" whether buying a bottle of Acid Phosphate, or "phosphate" in a glass of soda.

RECALL WAR EXPERIENCES

Northwestern Iowa Veterans in Force at Correctionville.

SHAM BATTLE A FEATURE OF THE AFFAIR. Pronounced One of the Most Realistic Displays Ever Presented in the State—Fighting Chapter Displays an Address.

CORRECTIONVILLE, Ia., June 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Excursion trains brought 3,000 people to the city today and the full attendance numbered over 5,000. The principal event of the day was the sham battle, which took place at 3:30 p. m. Colonel H. Colburn commanded the confederate force and Captain E. Kroeger of Cherokee the "yankees." The spectacle was grand and was handled in a very war-like manner by the officers in command. Old veterans say that it was the best sham battle they ever witnessed.

Many Buildings Destroyed and Much Property Damaged. CRESTON, Ia., June 25.—(Special.)—The worst storm in the history of the city was experienced last night. During the day the atmosphere presaged a cyclone, and about 10 o'clock the storm broke. The path of the storm was diagonally across the city from northwest to southeast. It wrecked, more or less, every building in its path. The storm also destroyed the high school, the electric power house and the large barn of R. R. Palmer sustained the greatest damage. Various estimates are being made, but it is probable that the damage done is not less than $500,000.

HENRY VILLARD IN EVIDENCE.

Said to Be Working for a New Route Across the Continent.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The Evening Post has a sensational piece of railway news today. It is to the effect that Henry Villard, backed by a large number of European and American capitalists, has about completed a deal which will give a through line from the Atlantic to the Pacific seaboard. The plan is to construct a line from New York to the Northern Pacific and then the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, which is to be sold at a receiver's sale.

NEW YORK, June 25.—A prominent banker, identified with large European interests in American railroad securities and controlling the Vanderbilt empire, is said to have been in Chicago in regard to a Chicago report of an impending Villard deal. The story is absolutely untrue, and that now, when the scheme has been all but accomplished, a reconciliation has taken place.
