ONE EYE ON DISORDERLY HOUSES.

Chief of Police Submits His Report on the Premises.

According to a report which was submitted Monday night by Chief of Police E. J. Conroy to the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, there are a number of flats very near the heart of the city which are being run for assignation purposes.

The report mentions that the three "houses" which have been running for years have voluntarily closed. They are visited occasionally by the police, but they have always been found dark and apparently not open.

The order is not universally observed, however, in apparent from a raid which occurred last Saturday night. The place was at 1817 Leavenworth street. The police were refused entrance, but upon bursting the doors open the report states, they discovered two well known women of town and three prominent men of this city. One man got away.

The others were arrested, but were never prosecuted, as the police, who were with them when they were arrested, which they put up for their appearance the following Monday.

This is but one "house" of at least half a dozen which are known to the police. In addition, however, there are a number of others that are being run "on the quiet" in various parts of the city. The suspected places have almost invariably resulted in nothing, or have developed such little evidence as to make them not considered justifiable. Consequently there have been but few arrests.

Monday night the police visited three or four of these houses, and under suspicion. Women were found in them, but no men. Therefore the raids again resulted in no arrests, and the superintendent would like to be kept under strict surveillance.

We are anxious to do a little good in this way. We have a letter to do it by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive of pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds.

Power of July Goods. The 99-cent store, 1319 Farnam street, is making a specialty of Fourth of July goods just at present. The company's store is crowded with goods, such as fireworks, noisemakers, balloons, and in short, everything which is needed to illuminate, decorate and celebrate with on the Fourth. A special line of assortments has been made up for family, club and society use, so that the purchaser can get a variety of goods without the trouble of selection or the expense which such a method of buying entails. The company's stock is ample for all requirements, and buyers can have all orders filled at once and with the proper goods.

CONVICTED OF BEATING HIS WIFE. Chatfield is Fined Fifty Dollars and Costs in Police Court. Despite the fact that his wife did not desire to testify against him, Chatfield was fined $50 and costs on the charge of wife beating. He was arrested late Saturday night when the police were attracted to the residence of the couple on Thirteenth, near Jones street, by the screams of the woman.

"Don't you testify against me," Chatfield remarked to his wife in a threatening manner after his arrest.

The case came to trial the woman asked that she be not put on the stand. Her request was granted. When Chatfield began his defense, however, he called his wife to the stand, apparently believing that she would not dare give any testimony against him. She, however, fooled him. In fact, she swore that Chatfield had dragged her by the hair and in other ways abused her, although she gave the evidence in a hesitating and reluctant manner.

Chatfield paid his fine of $50 and costs and was released.

TELLER TALKS ON SILVER

Stops Off a Few Hours While Passing Through Omaha.

Declines to Discuss His Candidacy

Says He Would Be Satisfactory to the Silver State, Expresses a Belief Silver Sentiment is Growing.

Senator Henry M. Teller of Colorado arrived in the city yesterday morning from Chicago, and left during the afternoon for Denver. During the morning he held an informal reception in the law offices of Judge Gregory. He was greeted heartily by many of the prominent free silverites and with them discussed the best means for extending the faith. C. R. Scott, Paul Vandervoort and G. M. Hitchcock were among the citizens with whom he spent most of his time.

Senator Teller said there could be no doubt but that the free silver issue was gaining strength every day. "While most of the gains have been in the west, considerable inroads are being made into the ranks of the goldbugs of the east," added the senator. "If all the helms of free silver in the United States could be united they would carry everything before them."

Do you think that the Chicago convention will declare for free silver? "I do not think there can be any doubt about that," replied Senator Teller.

"Would you accept the nomination for president from that convention?" "I should prefer not to answer that question. No man can accept or decline that which has never been tendered to him."

Do you think the nomination of Bines or Brand would be acceptable to the free silver republicans of the Rocky mountain states? "Yes, I think our people would support either of those gentlemen, or any other man of good character and ability who is recognized by those favoring the free coinage of silver."

Would such a nomination carry the mountain states that usually have gone republican? "That cannot answer. Any of those men would poll an enormous vote, but whether they would carry one or more states I am not prepared to predict."

Do you think the elements of the various parties could be united, victory would be assured. I think that such a union is probable. Certainly such a union would be expected now than it was two or three months ago."

What will become of the populists? Will they be absorbed? "I could not answer that question, for I have not been taken into their councils. I believe, however, that they will support the candidate pledged to free silver."

Do you think that the tariff will be an issue in the coming campaign? "I do not think it will be lost sight of in the fight on the financial question. I believe all other matters will be subordinated to this one question."

CONFERENCE OF JEWISH CHURCH. Effort to Secure 1898 Meeting in Omaha Will Be Made.

The Central Conference of American Rabbis will be held in Milwaukee commencing on Tuesday next week and continuing until Saturday evening. The conference represents the reformed wing of the synagogue and is attended by rabbis belonging to the so-called Reformed Jewish church. Rabbi Leo Franklin of this city will attend the conference, as will also Rabbi Rosenau, who is visiting in the city.

The conference will discuss matters of importance in connection with a modification of the ritual of the church and a number of papers on subjects of current interest. The conference will be read by the various delegates, among them being a paper by Rabbi Rosenau on "Semitic Studies in American Universities."

In this paper he will discuss the new being done in the American universities in the line of studying Semitic history and will advocate the introduction of Semitic study on the same plan as that of the other ancient nations of the earth.

Rabbi Franklin will make an effort to have the conference held in Omaha in 1898 and in this he will be supported by Rabbi Rosenau. The conference comprises about 150 delegates from the most important congregations in the country and is regarded as a most desirable body.

Rabbi Franklin is now in Chicago, where he is married July 15 to Miss Hattie Chertfelder, formerly of this city.

Jury Finds Mackay Guilty. The jury in the United States court which heard the evidence in the case against Thomas Mackay, the "squeam man" on the Sante reservation who was charged with criminal assault upon his 14-year-old step-daughter, returned its verdict Monday night, finding the defendant guilty as charged. Mackay is an alleged white man. His present wife is a full-blooded Santee squaw, and his stepdaughter, whom he was convicted of assaulting, is a half-breed. The crime of which he stands convicted is punishable under the federal laws with imprisonment for not exceeding fifteen years.

LITTLE HOPE FOR IMPRISONED MEN.

Miners on the Pitman Shaft Believed to Be Lost Forever.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 30. The situation at the Pitman shaft has undergone no change since midnight. The rescuers continue to work under great difficulties. The squeeze is now general and at the foot of the shaft the large rumbling noise of falling rocks in distant parts of the mine can be heard. At intervals the men are either slight fall which drove the men back. Double timbering is now being resorted to. It is very slow and painful and even if it were possible to hold the men in place, the workers could not hope to clear a gateway to where the entombed men are in less than three months.

The cave-in at Jenneville some two years ago offers a precedent for the officials of the Twin shaft. As long as there is possibility, any of the men being alive they feel it their duty to continue the work of attempted rescue. In the Jenneville mine, which was opened in 1891, a breach of the shaft for nineteen days. On the nineteenth day they were rescued. Five men were dead and one was alive. The living man was "Big Joe," a Polester. He is now employed as a carpenter at Hazelton. He has been in the mine for some time and he says that if he were alive and the air is pure where they are they will be able to live for ten days at least. It is not known whether the water where they are and all of the men carried a good supply of food which could be used sparingly. Another large crowd gathered about the mouth of the shaft this morning. In the crowd were twelve grief-stricken women. It is not known whether they have any hope that their loved ones will be brought up alive.

The appeals sent out by the Board of Trustees at a meeting with liberal representatives. A gentleman from New York, who does not want his name made public, has offered to contribute $100,000, ranging from $5 to $50, has been received.

With the exception of Superintendent Langen's family all the other families of the miners are in a state of extreme destitution. Some of them have received temporary aid from the town authorities.

General Superintendent Lavett, of the Lake and Wilkesbarre Coal company, Morgan Morgan, outside superintendent of the same company, Superintendent Lawitt and several other officials of the company, held a conference today. They received reports of the men in charge of the rescue work and after the reports were made had been made between 19 and 12 o'clock this morning.

It is now stated that the number of men in the Twin shaft is between sixty-nine and seventy-two.

DAUGHTERS OF THE REVOLUTION. Proceedings Taken to Organize a Chapter in Omaha.

On Monday evening a meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held at the residence of Mrs. E. W. Ware, registrar of the Sons' society in this city, introduced Rev. Paul Kilms, president of the same organization, who spoke briefly of the needs and uses of such a society and assured the members of the cordial and earnest support of the Sons' society in the work they had undertaken—that of organizing a local chapter of one of the largest and most important of the United States.

Later in the evening the following women were elected for three months, or until the national society would be put into such shape as to make it a chartered organization: Mrs. H. S. Jaynes, regent; Miss Ellenore E. Dutcher, secretary; Mrs. A. W. Clark, treasurer; Mrs. Louise S. Skinner, registrar.

By resolutions adopted the officers were authorized to take the necessary steps toward procuring a charter from the national society and to make such arrangements as they may deem necessary for the formal organization of a chapter to be known as the Omaha chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. They may also by the same resolutions be authorized to invite to this chapter additional members of the national society resident in Omaha. Any woman who is eligible for membership in the national society may become a member. A member is requested to communicate with any of the above named officers at the earliest possible opportunity. Substantive information considered before the granting of a charter, at the next meeting.

PITTS RIVER INDIANS ARE UGLY. California Farmers Feel Alarmed Over the Situation. SAN FRANCISCO, June 30. A special Grand excitement has been caused by the receipt of a letter containing news of a threatened rising of the Pitt river Indians. Judge Edward Sweeney of Redding received the message, and the author is W. Bailey, a farmer living with his family about 60 miles north of this city.

Bailey states in the letter that a friendly spirit exists in the house and informed him that the warriors of the Pitt river tribe intended to have a great pow-wow near his farm on July 4. He is a brave and a man of good character, and designed to follow their savage arguies by a massacre of all the white settlers who live along the north banks of the Pitt.

Mr. Bailey's letter was brought by messenger as rapidly as could be, and Judge Sweeney was urged to act promptly. The judge referred the letter to Sheriff Houston, who is organizing an expedition to hurry the threatened rising to a close. He is the most powerful and thoroughly organized in northern California.

RAILROADS HAVE NOT YET AGREED.

Conference Over Union Depot Matters Expected Soon.

General Manager Helwege of the B. & M. said yesterday that a conference between representatives of the Milwaukee, the Rock Island and the Burlington roads relative to the union depot matter would be held at an early date. These roads, it will be remembered, had their chief engineers in this city some time ago investigating the union depot question and their reports upon the same are awaited with unusual interest. Mr. Helwege said he thought it would be impossible to hold the conference this week, but added that it would be held as soon as possible. It will doubtless be held in Chicago, as the other roads are there.

COUNTY WARRANTS GOOD AS CASH. Money in Treasury with Which to Pay Outstanding Claims. County Treasurer Helwege is jubilant over the fact that all outstanding county warrants have been called in and paid, and there is money enough on hand, he says, to take up the very large number of warrants which will be issued within the next few days in payment of claims which have been held over on account of shortage of funds. The county clerk estimates that these delinquent claims will amount to at least $30,000, not including a number about which there is a dispute. Mr. Helweg estimates that there will be enough money in the county's strong box to pay warrants for the next two months, when it will be necessary to register all warrants again until the beginning of the next fiscal year.
