TO ENTERTAIN THE ENDEAVORERS.

Committee with that Object in View is Working Zealously.

The entertainment committee of the local organization of the Society of Christian Endeavor is working zealously to arouse public interest in the forthcoming convention, which will be held at Council Bluffs, Iowa, August 25 and 26.

You have all heard much of the "Committee of Fifteen," the "Committee of Thirty-five" and the "Committee of Sixty-five."

Now is the opportunity of the Council Bluffs merchants to bring their wares before the eyes of the delegates.

What music man wants his business more than to be seen by the delegates?

From where will the rugs and matting come? Will not Council Bluffs merchants do for the "Iowa Committee of '96" what Boston did for the "National Committee of '96"?

ALL IOWA PARTICIPATED

Semi-Centennial Anniversary of Des Moines and Polk County.

VISITORS CROWD THE CITY ALL DAY

Naval Display One of the Novel Features of the Occasion—River Presents a Scene of Remarkable Beauty.

DES MOINES, July 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Des Moines was in holiday attire today.

The grand parade began at 9:30 and took up most of the time until noon. It was a somewhat remarkable aggregation of old and new.

There were mail coaches of half a century ago and the finest equipages that this day affords.

There were also a large number of officers of the state, city and county, and the representatives of the national guard.

OLD GAME Finds New Victims.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., July 8.—(Special.)—A couple of smooth young men have been working a slick soap racket in this town.

Their modus operandi being to offer a box of soap for $1, each purchaser to get a beautiful china dinner set of seventy-two pieces.

Their generosity was explained by the fact of the company preferring to advertise their goods by these gifts rather than through the newspapers.

As every person who got a dinner set would be expected to extol the virtues of the soap.

The young men did a land office business and the purchasers expected to receive their dishes on Monday, but so far cannot be found; neither can the soap nor the money.

Mr. W. H. Smith, editor of the Argus, Benton, Pa., recommends a remedy for diarrhoea which he has used with magical effect.

"Several weeks ago," he says, "I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after using less than one-third of the contents the results were magical—effecting an entire cure. I heartily and cheerfully commend the remedy to all suffering from diarrhoea. This remedy is for sale by all druggists."

Event in Salvation Army Circles.

FREMONT, July 8.—(Special.)—The Salvation Army is expecting a large attendance at its camp meeting to be held at the Chautauque grounds commencing July 17.

Brigadier General and Mrs. French of St. Louis will have charge of the meetings. Delegations from Omaha, Lincoln, Hastings and other points have identified their intention of being present.

The entertainment promises to be a red letter occasion in Salvation Army circles.

Timely Rain at Duncan.

DUNCAN, Neb., July 8.—(Special.)—A fine rain has been falling here this forenoon and is just what is needed for oats, wheat and potatoes.

It is hoped will aid the city, partially at least of the numerous vagrants.
