Members of the Order in This City Will Commence at Once to Lay Plans for Entertaining the Visitors.

States will meet in Omaha in 1898. The maha delegation, now at the Cincinnati conand states that the convention will be held in Omaha in 1898 and that George E. Cronk of the Omaha lodge has been elected grand trustee.

The grand lodge of Elks is one of the most desirable conventions that has been mentioned in connection with Omaha and the local Elks are jubilant over their success. The grand lodge will bring about 15.- day the brother came to the city to discover the reason of his absence and learned that additional number of Elks who will accompany them. There are 1,000 Elks in St. Paul and Minneapolis and it is expected that fully 500 of them will come to Omaha. Then there will be large delegations from Sioux City, Sioux Falls, Des Moines, Kansas City, St. Louis and numerous other western cities, so the local Elks figure on a total attendance of Mly 20,000. These are almost entirely composed of representative men whose solourn here cannot help but result in in-calculable benefit to the city. The task of entertaining such a gathering will be tre-mendous, but the Omaha lodge will begin the preliminary work in time to make sure that nothing is neglected. Local members propose to give their guests such a reception will make them enthusiastic partisans of Omaha and expect to receive adequate assistance from the commercial and other interests of the city.

FIGURING ON A CITY JAIL.

City Council Will Consider the Proposition Today.

One of the matters that is scheduled for consideration at the special meeting of the ity council this forenoon is the quesion of a city jail. There are several propositions before the council and these were referred back by a committee, without recommendation. The one which seems to find the most favor with the members is that submitted by Irving Allison, whose previous proposition was rejected. He offers to erect a two-story brick building at the northeast corner of Sixteenth and Leavenworth streets. It will be sixty-six feet square. The plans include a basement. The city is asked to pended on condition that he never would do furnish the iron and steel for the cells and pay a rental of $250 per month.
