the New York stock market tomorrow will say: London has been much less active in the market during the present week. Some dispotion was shown by its representatives here renew their purchases when the market exibited any symptoms of weakening, but on the whole the two markets were much more closely upon a parity and the opportunity for arbitrage dealings between them was lessened. A notice-able feature of this situation has been the in-activity of the investment market. Large cor-porations, as a rule, are entirely out of the bond market for the prescut, and epeculative railway share bases have displayed a weak tendency. There is, however, a demand for three conservation with which merchants continue to supply their wants. The volume of business appears to be smaller than last week, arrantile collections are more unsatisfactory and there is a disposition among jobbers to be stabilish quotations. Thirteenth and Charles. The officers found the families of Dick Beech and Fred Hires in an indiscriminate muddle with clubs and bricks flying in every direction. Mrs. Beech at length succumbed to a well di-rected blow from the crutch of Hires and Mrs. Hires signified that she had enough, her forchead and placed her out of the fight. The quartet was taken to the sta-tion, where their wounds were sewed up Mrs. Beech had been visiting a sick friend in the person of a Mrs. Moore and trouble arose over the alleged mistreatment of the children of Mrs. Beech. All were locked up on a charge of fighting. ocked up on a charge of fighting. DIED. Proposed Meet at Fremont. FREMONT, July 10. - (Special.) - The
