Silver Shouters Return from Chicago Unheralded and Unsung.

DISPERSE QUIETTY TO THEIR HOMES

Train Did Not Bear the Crowd Which Was Anticipated_Delegates Tell How Their Envorite Captured the Prize.

Yesterday word was passed along the line that during afternoon the "Silver" train would return from Chicago and that it would be loaded to the guards with men who went down to shout for Bryan and the victory. over the sold men.

When the "Silver" train ters. They marched at once to Governor departed for Chicago there was a blare of drums and a becaing of cymbals, but when it returned the arrival was much like the arrival of one of the ordinary, everyday passenger trains.

The "Silver" train was scheduled to arrive in Missouri Valley at 1:55 o'clock yesterday afternoon and it was scheduled that there Now it is a struggle to preserve the governshould be an ovation in that city and an-other in Omaha. When the train Now it is a contest to save spotless its reached Missouri Valley, an hour late, there credit. (Great applause.) Then section was wore perhaps 100 people on the depot to give the glad hand to the sore lunged shout-ers for Bryan and free sliver, but none of the 100 people lifted their voices. They simply stood around in wonder and amazeinent and listened to the badge-bedecked party and national honor is dearer than individuals tell how they managed to ride any party name. a dark horse into the presidential paddock and capture the first ripze.

As heretofore mentioned, it was expected that the "Silver" train would be loaded to the guards and that it would not only hear Nebraska Bryan delegates, but would o on board the delegates from Colorado, Black Hills, Utah, Nevada and all of the other western states. The plan as given out was that the delegates would all travel to Missouri Valley, from which point they would be distributed to their several states, journeying over the numerous roads leading to the north, west and south. When that train strived, however, the only con-quering heroes who stepped down from the and hunted the lunch counters platform Ware Lee Herdman of Douglas county, J. Edgar Howard of Sarpy, H. M. Boydston of Control of Safety, H. M. Boyason 5. Otoe, George A. Luikhart of Madison, J. E. Dahlman of Dawes, Judge Hollenbeck of Dodge, C. S. Jones of Lancaster and W. D. Oldham and Editor Wheaton of the Kearney Democrat. Having satisfiel the cravings of inner man, these proceeded to explain t how it al' happened. In a voice that just how sounded like that of one man they declared that it was an uprising for the "favorite son" of Nebraska, an uprising that there was no effort to stay. They insisted that when Mr. Bryan went to Chicago he was not even a dark horse. He was not in the race enough so that he had been posted on the boards. Some one mentioned the name of Bryan at the convention and the effect was much like applying a lighted match to the dry grass on the western prairies. It simgrew and grew until it had gone beyond control of those who were first respongible

Having finished their lunch and having told how the affair happened at Chicago, the delegates entertained their auditors with convention stories until train time, when the men from the interior went out on the regular and those of this end came to Omaha on the same train that bore the common traveling public. Somehow the information reached the ears of the delegates who came Omahaward that there was no reception awaiting them at the union depot in this city, so instead of taking any chances of surprising people. they left the train at the Broadway station and came in on a motor car, after which they quietly slipped out to their respective

We have the same currency that we had in 1892-good the world over and unquestioned by any peo-ple. Then, too, we had unexampled credit and prosperity. Our difficulty now is to get that money in circulation and invested in protected enterprises which furnish employment to American labor. (Great ap-plause.) This is impossible with the dis-trust that hangs over the country at the present time and every effort to make our follars or any one of them worth less than 100 cents each only serves to increase the distrust. What we want is a sound policy, financial and industrial, which will give courage and confidence to all, for when that is done the money now unemployed because of fear for the future and lack of confidence in investment will quickly ap-pear in the channels of trade. Not content with the in-auguration of the ruinous policy which has brought down the wages of the laborer and the price of farm products, its advocate now offer a new policy which will diminish

GERMAN SUPPORT FOR MCKINLEY. New York Straats-Zeitung Withdraws

from Democracy. NEW YORK, July 12 .- The Staats-Zei-

In the editorial announcing the bolt the reason is given that Bryan stands for flat money, which is undemocratic and a menace to the public good. After stating that the staats-Zeitung has gone to the side of Me-Kinley and honest money, the editorial in substance says; "It will depend on McKinley and his party whether the rally for honest money men can be made effective or not. The leaders of the republican party are justified. if they expect and demand that every dem-ocratic and independent voter who grasps the dangerous tendencies of the Chicage nvention and the perils connected with the election of its candidate, will throw off his partisanship and vote for McKinley. All of the remaining delogations departed Saturday evening and with the exception of the national committee headquarters nothing was left today to cate that there had been any convention Even the sign of the sergeant-at-arms had been removed, although Colonel Martin remained to finish up some matters con-nected with closing the convention. Repudiates Both the Platform and the Nominces of the Conveniion.

NEW YORK, July 12 .- The Irish-American, a weekly newspaper which has for nearly fifty years upheld the democratic party, will in its next issue repudiate the Chicago convention and its nominees. The paper will say: "After four days devoted to trampling on the most cherished tradi-tions of the great democratic party the mob of silver lunatics and populist cranks, who isurped the functions of the national convention at Chicago, have set up a platform and candidate. The platform advocates the mad spirit of free and unlimited coinage of silver, tricked out with demagogue appeals class and sectional hatred and sops to anarchy and the rankest socialism. The candidate is fully in accord with all this. He thoroughly represents all that is repreensible and to be condemned in the pleas or national dishonor, financial disaster and for national distoner, infinitial disaster and party disgrace that built up the Chicago platform. The New York delegates to the convention took no part in the balloting. Their example is what will be followed by the democrate of the east on election day, though it is more than likely that thou-sands will be unwillingly computed to yota will be unwillingly compelled to vote ands for McKinley in order to give more em-ohatic expression to their detestation of the methods adopted and practiced at Chicago." WOMAN'S CLUB DAY AT CRETE.

Interesting Discussions at the Chautaugua on the Subject.

CRETE, Neb., July 12 .- (Special.)-Yesterday was Woman's club day. The line of cleavage that politics makes in everything is especially apparent in a woman's club. The State Federation of Woman's Clubs met in the auditorium today. The president, Mrs. Allon W. Field, was in the echair. Mrs. Archibald Scott presented a re-port on the meeting of the national federation that took place in Louis-scott and the state of the sta ville a few months ago. She said that in reply to the address of welcome delivered by a Louisville woman the national president, Mrs. Henrotin of Chicago, caused printed slips of her reply to be distributed among the audience. Mrs scott intimated that she had not had time to read the slip presented to her. There is a great deal of dissatisfaction with Mrs.

is a great deal of dissatistation with alls Henrotin as president. After the report Mrs. Belle M. Stouten borough offered the following resolution: " move that the chair appoint a committee to send Mrs. Bryan a telegram of congratula-tion." Miss Mary Fairbrother seconded it and it was carried apparently without dis sent. Mrs. Field appointed Mrs. Stouten-borough. Mrs. Langworthy of Seward and Mrs. H. H. Wilson of Lincoln. Then Mrs. angworthy, the wife of a banker at Seward Langworthy, the whee on a wish to see Mr rose and said: "I do not wish to see Mr Bryan elected and I therefore can not endorse the resolution." Mrs. not endorse the resolution." Mrs. Langworthy and Mrs. Wilson could not look at it that way, and the telegram was sent signed only by Mrs. Stouton-borough's name. In the afternoon Mrs Peattie delivered a lecture on "The Influence of Christianity on Literature." It was a learned resume of books, movements and chools which have been inspired and kept moving by Christianity She was followed by Miss Olaf Krarer, the who died last week at Great Falls, Mont. and who had been for thirty years a mem-Eskimo woman only forty inches high. She says that the doc-tors say that the reason Eskimos are so short and stout is their diet. It consists of blubber, raw meat, oil and fish. Centuries of such a diet have shaped them like a seal Miss Krarer is fair and has blue eyes, but she says she never knew her hair was light brown till she left Greenland. She was 15 years old when she left Greenlan 1 and Her hair was so matted with oil and smoke from the fire that it looked coal black. When they gave her a cake of soap she suppo was something to eat and put it in her mouth. She said that in spite of the lack of everything the Eskimos are contented They do not weep, nor haugh nor squall, she said, and the ladies never have hysterics; if they did they would be deserted, for their family would think them possessed o a bad spirit. He has conceived the idea that his better half makes a much better companion if he gives her a good thrashing about every three months or oftener, and Thursday was one of the times set. The trouble arose over an old coat he had hung up on the side of the house several days ago and on which one of the pockets had ocen nearly torn off. He seemed to have forgotten how the pocket became torn, occused her of knowing all about it, which and he grabbed her by both ears and pounded the side of the house with he head for five minutes or more, regardles her of the fact that she is to become a mother in a few days. Some of the children ran for help, believing he was going to kill their mother. A neighbor finally hunted up the marshal, who hurried to the place and attempted to restore peace. He notified th officer that he should return to town, that the woman was his wife and that he not propose to recognize any law that said could not punish his wife if he thought she needed it. The officer, who, at the tim was not clothed with power to make an arrest, found the woman's ears badly lacerated, the brute baying partly torn them loose from her head. The county attorney was telegraphed for, and appeared in the erson of his deputy. Friday papers were ssued and Fault was arrested, but they ould not get the woman to appear as vitness, either from fear, or on acount of her condition, hence the court could do nothing but dismiss him with a good lecture.

Mr A. R. That date is not yet definitely decided upon.

STAMPEDES HIS SUPPORTERS.

Dispatches in the morning papers to the effect that Mr. Bryan had concluded to receive the notification committee at Madison Square garden, New York, set Lincoln peo-ple wild, Added to this was a quasi endorsement of Omaha as official headquarters during the campaign, and as a consequence many hearts are tonight bowed down. Un less some tangible contradiction is speed-ily given to these rumors it is expected that the ardor of many enthusiastic people will be considerably dampened. Local democrats say he will certainly remain in Lincoln, but it is also known that they do not speak by the card.

The present attitude of the average Lin-coln man is on the defensive. There is a ing it had shrunk to two and but one lone democratic antecedents and democratic delegate, Charles S. Jones, alighted at the views. Speaking of the convention's deci sion upon the money question, as one which if enacted, would precipitate business disaster, it says that aside from questions of more party policy "It is felt that not only national honor and reputation are at stake. but the foundations of industrial prosperity. It is incumbent, therefore, upon democrats who so regard the platform of the Chicago convention, and who have such apprehensions as to the results which would follow its success, to choose between adherence to the party and standing by their convictions. The Free Press will stand by its convictions and will not endorse the Chicago platform or candidates. We denounce the monetary utterances as undemocratic and fraught with serious menace to the country and its with serious menace to the country and its prosperity. Belleving this, there is no alternative course possible for the Free Press but the sacrifice of honest conviction and that sacrifice we cannot make."
