

BRYAN TALKS IN THE DEPOTS

Triumphal Procession from Chicago to His Old Home at Salem.

DECLARES HIS FAITH IN THE PEOPLE

Democratic Nominee for President Asserts All Great Political Questions are Both Economic and Moral—Many Greet Him.

SALEM, Ill., July 13.—Never before in its history has this quiet little town of 2,000 people been so alive in glory as it was to-night.

Ited fire was burning all along the route by which Mr. Bryan was conducted to the home of his sister. He will remain for the next two days. When the train pulled up to the Salem depot there were many people on hand ready to welcome Mr. Bryan from all over Marion county.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan were escorted to a carriage by the local reception committee and taken to the home of Mrs. Bryan's sister, Mrs. James Smith, who is living there at the house where Mrs. Mary Van Antwerp, Mrs. Davenport, Mrs. Seadock Jennings, all relatives of the honored guest, and his sisters, Miss Nannie and Miss Mamie Bryan. It was not the wish of Mr. Bryan to have a celebration here at this time.

But two short weeks ago he was called here to attend the death of his mother. She was buried in the cemetery of Judge Bryan, who passed away sixteen years ago. But the people in their enthusiasm and desire to honor the man who went away from this town to become a name known to fame gave vent to their feelings.

When the carriage reached the home of his sister his former fellow townsmen met him and he was greeted with cheers and shouts, while bands played and music boomed. They demanded a speech and Mr. Bryan acquiesced, recalling his childhood days in this town.

There was no ostentation or display made by W. J. Bryan, the democratic presidential nominee, on his arrival from Chicago. He was dressed in the simple attire of his nativity. He brought tickets for himself and wife at the Illinois Central depot and there was no special car provided.

The Chicago and North Western party train, the greatest honor within its power rode in a Pullman coach on a regular train, and every passenger on board the train had access to the car and nearly every one of them came and shook hands with Mr. Bryan and his wife and expressed to them their good wishes and congratulations.

There was no demonstration at the depot when Mr. Bryan and his wife left Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan rode to the depot in a cab a few minutes before the time for the train to start. Mr. Bryan and his wife alighted and exercised the privilege of all American citizens toward candidates or public officers by shaking his hand.

FIRST STOP AT KANKAKEE. The first stop after leaving Chicago was at Kankakee. Fully 1,000 citizens had assembled around the depot and were eagerly waiting for the arrival of the train.

BRYAN COMES HOME FRIDAY

Will Reach Lincoln at 5:45 p. m. Over the Burlington Road.

CITIZENS WILL WELCOME HIM ROYALLY

Big Nonpartisan Demonstration is Planned and Everybody Arranging to Take Part in Its Proceedings.

LINCOLN, July 13.—(Special Telegram.)—At 3:45 this afternoon a telegram was received from Mr. Bryan stating that he would arrive in Lincoln Friday afternoon at 5:45 over the Burlington.

Preparations for the demonstration will now be hurried to completion. The general executive committee of the Bryan reception took lunch at the Lincoln hotel this noon, and afterwards held a meeting in one of the parlors. Judge C. S. Hall presided and Thomas Allen acted as secretary.

Reports from subcommittees were received. A serious obstacle to committee work on the demonstration is lack of information as to the exact date of Mr. Bryan's arrival in Lincoln. Now that he has set the time for the home coming, the reception committee can work to some purpose.

But here the time had come for the train to leave and Mr. Bryan was hustled off to catch the train. Hundreds of people shook him by the hand as he came through the assemblage and promised him their support.

A short stop was made at Toona, where half the town was out but on seeing Mr. Bryan, the people were gratified, though not as much as they had been at Toona, the county seat of Douglas county.

At least 2,000 people stood on the platform and around the depot. Colonel William Brinton, of the first district of Illinois, was there and introduced Mr. Bryan and his wife to the crowd.

Mrs. Bryan, who carried a large bouquet of flowers, scattered them over the heads of the throng. There was a scramble from all directions and everybody wanted to get a souvenir.

IOWA REPUBLICANS ANXIOUS

Preliminary Convention Talk Indicates a Determination to Take No Chances.

FIGHT AT HOME THEY THINK IS CLOSE

Much Work Done Among Those Gathering at Des Moines Who Aspire to Secure Their State in Some Capacity.

DES MOINES, July 13.—(Special Telegram.)—As the result of several consultations among the leading republicans of the state, who are here in advance of the convention of Wednesday, it has been decided to inaugurate the campaign as soon as possible after adjournment and push it with all vigor possible until election day.

An especial effort will be made in regard to the congressional tickets. It is feared that the silver movement especially, if it results in a harmonious combination of populists and silver democrats and republicans, may jeopardize republican success in some districts. In fact some of the leaders, notably Senator Gear and Congressman Hepburn, who first took alarm at the St. Louis convention at their attempt to secure the nomination of a straddling financial plank, believe that Iowa should be classed among the doubtful states this fall. Other leaders for the sake of being on the safe side are willing to have the campaign conducted on that basis.

KEOSAUQUON, July 13.—(Special Telegram.)—The populist convention met at this place at Grand Island, Iowa, this morning. The state at Grand Island, state at Hastings, to nominate a state ticket, and to have a degree of bitter controversy not yet called. The committee on resolutions presented a set, expressing the views of its party on the questions of the day.

Hon. W. J. Bryan, and recommended that he be nominated for president at the St. Louis convention. This resolution, proposed by the populist convention, was adopted. The populist convention, which was held at Hastings, Iowa, on July 13, 1896, was a significant event in the campaign for the presidential election of 1896.

At the populist convention held here Saturday the following persons were elected as delegates to the various conventions: Ira Whipple, William Silvers, A. F. Treadway, F. M. Sillik, D. K. Calkins, A. CONGRATULATIONS FOR SEWALL

Democratic Nominee Comes in for a Warm Welcome.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Among the telegrams of congratulation which have been received by Arthur Sewall, the democratic vice presidential nominee, are the following:

NEW YORK, July 13.—I named you for vice president three weeks ago. Now that you are the nominee, the solid east is proud of her bravest and truest sons. Hurrah for American shipping and the people's ticket.

ALEXANDER R. SMITH, President American Merchant Marine Association. AUGUSTA, Me., July 13.—My warmest congratulations. Bryan and Sewall a winning ticket. H. M. PLAISTED. Payson Tucker, vice president and general manager Maine Central railroad, wires: "Maine appreciates the honor conferred upon one of her bravest and truest sons."

CHESBROUGH, July 13.—Delighted to learn of your nomination. Send my warmest congratulations. J. W. BOOKWALTER, New York. "Accept my profound and hearty congratulations." CHICAGO WANTS HEADQUARTERS. Lake City Desires to Direct the National Campaign.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Members of the democratic national committee are unanimously in favor of establishing sub-headquarters of the committee at Chicago. Many of them wish the main headquarters removed from New York and brought here. The members of the committee still meeting at an informal meeting held this morning in the headquarters at the Palmer house, Senator Jones of Arkansas, before leaving for St. Louis, said he would be glad to see some other meeting of the national committee some time during the next three weeks, at which the subject of changing the headquarters of the committee should be discussed.

TO FIGHT MCKINLEY'S BATTLES. Names of the Republican National Executive Committee. CLEVELAND, July 13.—Senator A. Hanna today announced the republican national executive committee: M. A. Hanna, chairman, Cleveland; William M. Osborne, secretary, Boston, Mass.; General Powell Clayton, Arkansas; Charles G. Dawes, Illinois; W. T. Durbin, Indiana; Cyrus Leland, Kansas; Joseph H. Manly, Maine; Hon. M. S. Quay, Pennsylvania; Hon. W. M. Furness, Virginia; N. B. Scott, West Virginia. The ninth member has not yet been selected.

Why Bryan Went to Salem. CHICAGO, July 13.—W. J. Bryan, democratic candidate for president, accompanied by his wife, left the Clifton house this afternoon for the Illinois Central depot at 2:30 p. m. They took the 2:30 train for Salem, Ill. Mr. Bryan's old home. There was no demonstration either at the hotel or at the train. Mr. Bryan was accompanied by his wife and a few friends. Mr. Bryan was presented with a large bunch of American beauty roses just as she was leaving the hotel.

Senator Gray Not for Bryan. WASHINGTON, July 13.—Senator Gray today in reference to the Chicago platform: "The financial plank of the platform is contrary to all my beliefs and to what I consider sound currency. I shall not change these beliefs, even at the bidding of a party which I have long loved and respected. The Delaware democracy is an organization distinct from the national democracy and has a history and traditions of its own. It is not to be merged with the national democracy. The democracy in this state has always had and is likely to continue to have strong sympathy with that of New York, New Jersey and Maryland."

Keeping Tab on Senator Teller. MANITOWISH, Colo., July 13.—Senator Teller, who has been a guest of one of the hotels here, was yesterday joined by Senator Dubois of Idaho and Congressman Hartman of Montana, awaiting the arrival of Senator Cannon, Pettigrew and Mantle, who will be held here. Senator Teller will return to Denver. He will be in Manitowish again Wednesday, however, and at this meeting, an address will be delivered to the cause of the republicans who left the St. Louis convention on the national tickets.

Bryan Will Not Support Bryan. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 13.—Ex-Congressman William D. Bryan says in an interview this morning: "I have already said that I could not support the Chicago platform and ticket. Personally I like Mr. Bryan, but his views are so at variance with what I believe to be the best interests of the country that I would be false to myself if I supported him. I have no objection to his being elected, but I will not participate in the election for United States Senator."

BURIAL OF WRECK VICTIMS

Three Funerals Held Yesterday, but the Majority Occur Today.

SHOPMEN WILL ATTEND IN A BODY

Florists and Undertakers Kept Busy by the Unusual Calls Upon Them—Shops to be Closed All Day.

Yesterday undertakers and the friends of the victims of the Logan wreck were busy preparing for the burial of the dead. Three of the funerals were held yesterday, but by far the greater portion will be held today. Out of respect for the memory of the dead and the fact that so many of the employees wish to attend the funerals, the shops of the Union Pacific will be closed all day today. At 7 o'clock this morning the employees will meet in the yard of the shops and organize to attend the various funerals.

The florists have been taxed to supply the demand for flowers for the occasion. The quantity of flowers is large and the work of preparing them has kept the entire force busy ever since the funeral announcements were made. The first was that of Robert Clair, son of John Clair, which occurred at the family residence, 1830 North 17th street, yesterday morning. It was largely attended by the friends of the family, and the services were brief, but impressive. The funeral of Mrs. Kate Bradley, another boy, was held at the residence, 4344 Emmett street, yesterday afternoon. The remains were interred at the Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

At 9:30 this morning services will be held at the Holy Family church over the remains of Owen Cavanaugh and an interment will be made at the Holy Sepulcher cemetery. The funeral of John Kinsey will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Andrew's Episcopal church. The interment will be at Forest Lawn.

John Larson will be buried from the Swedish Lutheran church at Nineteenth and Cass streets at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Remains were buried in the Holy Sepulcher cemetery. The funeral of John Kinsey will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Andrew's Episcopal church. The interment will be at Forest Lawn.

The remains of John H. Beck, the lad who was crushed to death by the Logan wreck, will be buried from the Holy Family church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The funeral of Mrs. Kate Bradley, another boy, was held at the residence, 4344 Emmett street, yesterday afternoon. The remains were interred at the Holy Sepulcher cemetery.
