Chairman Jones Was in Close Communion with Mr. Bryan.

HOW THE SUPPRESSED MESSAGE CAME

Jones and Governor Stone Opposed Rending the Telegram to the Convention or Giving it Out to the Press.

ST. LOUIS, July 27 .- The Republic tomorrow will say: Mr. Bryan's telegram declining to allow his name to go before the populist convention and the conversation that was carried on between him and Senator Jones, chairman of the democratic national committee, were not made public, it is said, because Senator Jones and Governor Stone of Missouri saw fit to suppress them. Early Saturday afternoon Senator Jones wired Mr. Bryan that his friends in the convention intended to nominate him, if possible, in spite of the fact that his telegram of the previous evening declined to accept the nomination if Mr. Sewall was not nominated for vice president. Senator Jones had previously notified Mr. Bryan that Watson had been nominated for vice president. About 3 o'clock an operator in the Western Union Telegraph office at Lincoln, Neb., the home of the democratic candidate for president, called up the St. Louis office and said that Mr. Bryan was there and would like to speak to Mr. Jones. Senator Jones came to the key and the fol-

Senator Jones came to the key and the fol-lowing telegram was sent to Bryan: Hon. W. J. Bryan: The convention will surely nominate you. Your friends seem to be in the majority. They are about ready to proceed to a ballot. To this Mr. Bryan sent substantially the reply that was contained in the dispatch sent out from Chicago by the Associated press Sunday night. At the conclusion of press Sunday night. At the conclusion of the paragraph ending with the words "American people cannot afford to surrender the right to legislate for themselves on all questions, and so long as the right is disputed it surpasses all others in importance," Senator lones interrupted Mr. Bryan's message with a querry as to whether it would be advisa-ble to make such a statement to the convention, when the remainder of the dispatch was sent by Bryan (practically the same as sent out by the Associated press), either in answer to Senator Jones' question or as a continuation of Mr. Bryan's statement. Sen-ator Jones then replied:

Hon. W. J. Bryan: I think your position has been clearly stated and that it is clearly and fully understood. I will urge our friends to read your statement.

J. K. JONES.

At this juncture a message was sent to the convention hall over another wire to Governor Stone asking him to come and get Mr. Bryan's telegram in order that it might be read to the convention before the ballot was taken. Governor Stone got the telegram and hurried to the convention where the scene between him and Senator Allen of Nebraska, who was chairman of the convention, was enacted. Subsequent developments indicate that neither Governor Stone nor Senator Jones thought it would be good policy to read the telegram to the convention. While this the telegram to the convention. While this was going on at the auditorium Mr. Bryan

To General J. K. Jones: Both friends and opponents are entitled to perfect candor and frankness upon my part, and I think the statement should be read so that no criticism can arise hereafter. W. J. BRYAN.

Before the consultation over the wire was brought to a close Senator Jones sent a telegram asking Mr. Bryan if he was employing all the assistants necessary to carry on his work. "If you are not employ the necessary help and I will foot the bills," was the way the dispatch closed. Mr. Bryan replied;

Mr. Bryan replied:

To Senator J. K. Jones: Am employing necessary help. I wish you would come here as soon as convenient again. There are several questions about which I must consult you. You need only stay one day.

W. J. BRYAN.

Here is the answer Senator Jones sent: Hon. W. J. Bryan: I think convention will adjourn this afternoon. If so I will leave for Lincoln immediately. J. K. JONES. After the failure to have the telegrams read to the convention, Mr. Bryan is said to have wired Senator Jones to give them to the St. Louis papers and to the Associated press in order that they might be given a wide publicity. To this Senator Jones and Governor Stone dissented. Senator Jones as going away on the 9 o'clock train. the matter was turned over to Governor Stone, who had another confab with Mr. Bryan. The latter urged that his statement be given to the press, but Governor Stone said it would not be politic and that his case was in the hands of his friends, who would do what they believed to be the most politic thing to do, as they viewed the situation from the field of bat

I will bow to the wishes of my friends but it is due to myself and the members of the populist party that I treat them with perfect candor" is the tenor of one of Mr. Bryan's dispatches to the Missouri governor. But the information was withheld from the press.

CLEVELAND'S PROPHETIC LETTER.

Suggested Democratic Defeat Over Free Silver in 'Ninety-Two. NEW ORLEANS, July 27 .- The Picayune special from Jackson, Miss., quotes a letter written by President Clevland on May 1, 1892, on the eve of the democratic convention of that year, to the late L. Q. C. Lamar, in which the president, discussing his probable candidacy, says; his probable candidacy, says:

I can easily be disposed of, either by the selection of a candidate more available or by the neoption of a campaign policy on financial questions which I am not willing to further. In the first case I shall be a happy helper. In the account I shall sadly await the announcement of a party defeat which will be predetermined. Our southern friends, if they persist, will be left alone with their free coinage heresy. The danger is that another southern idea and a charge of heedlessness for the public safety on the financial question will do service in the place of the memorics of the civil war. The question is often and justifiably put by friendly southerners: Can Cleveland carry New York? The answer is ready as to Cleveland or any other man if the democracy is at all weak on the coinage question. As one who loves his country and believes that her interest is bound up in democratic supremacy, I am most uncomfortable and unhappy in the fear that the south will not see until too late the danger of their marring all. If I should read this I hardly think I should send it, but it goes laden with affection and the most tender memories. Yours affectionately.

Ignatius Donnelly Says Unkind Things of His Presidential Choice. MINNEAPOLIS, July 27 .- Ignatius Donnelly returned home today from St. Louis. In the next issue of his paper, the Representative, Mr. Donnelly will say: "We have done it. We shall support Mr. Bryan and the populist state ticket until the end of the campaign, and we shall then withdraw from public life forever. We are tired of working for those who would destroy us In speaking of Mr. Bryan's nomination, he says there were so many men at St. Louis who were candidates for office and who hoped for democratic endorsement in their respective districts that they swept the convention to Bryan. He adds that Bryan is talking too much and is standing over a powder

CONSULTED OVER THE WIRES FUSION ALMOST CERTAIN IN KANSAS.

Populists Will Endorse the Demoeratle Electors. KANSAS CITY, July 27 .- Relative to fusion of Kansas democrats and populists, the Times prints an interview with ex-Congressman William A. Harris, in which he is quoted as saying: "The Kansas plan is for the populists in their state convention at Abilene, August 5, to endorse the Bryan and Sewall electors whom the democrats will name at Hutchinson the preceding day."

Continuing, ex-Congressman Harris said; "It is generally understood that there will be fusion in Kansas this year, although there have been no conferences on the subject and consequently no plans have been formulated, but fusion is in the air. We will nominate our candidates for state offcers and telegraph the democratic representatives. They will endorse our nominees and we will endorse theirs." Ex-Congressman Jerry Simpson of Kan-

Today, under a Topeka date the Times prints an interview with ex-United States Senator John Martin, who approves of the plan as far as it goes. He, however, would have conference committees appointed by the Hutchinson and Abilene conventions to arrange the details.

Ex-Governor Lewelling of Kansas in published interview also approves of the plan of fusion. United States Senator Wil-liam A. Peffer, interviewed as he passed through the city enroute home from the St. Louis convention, said: "The mass of the populist party wishes to see William J. Bryan the next president, and no matter what differences of opinion may arise, nothing can prevent him from carrying every southern state. He will also carry every western state." He added, slowly: "He will carry Kansas by 50,000—50,000 major-

W. P. St. John Says They Will Act According to Democratic Dictation. NEW YORK, July 27 .- William P. St. John, treasurer of the national silver party returned today from the St. Louis convention. PETTIGREW SENDS A RESIGNATION.

No Longer a Member of the Republiean Congressional Committee. WASHINGTON, July 27.-Senator Petti grew of South Dakota, who followed Senator Teller in his bolt from the republican national convention at St. Louis, has resigned as a member of the republican congressional committee. The vacancy has not yet been filled.

There are a number of avowed advocates of the gold standard on the democratic congressional committee standing practically as much in opposition to the Chicago platform and ticket as Senator Pettigrew did to the St. Louis platform, but no resignations have been reported up to this date from the democratic committee. It is said that when the democratic committee. It is said that when the democratic national committee opens headquarters a few days hence, one of the first subjects to be taken up will be the attitude of certain men toward the national platform and ticket who, having been nominated as presidential electors on the democratic ticket prior to the Chicago convention, have since that time repudiated both the platform and the ticket and are publicly credited with the intention to vote for Me-Kinley.

the Roll of Honor and Fame WEST NEWTON, Mass., July 27 .- Hon. Horatio King, ex-postmaster general, whose official life at Washington, D. C., covered the time from 1837 to 1861, has sent a letter to Hon. William McKinley, in which he says: "The danger now threatening the stability of the United States is most appalling. I carnestly entreat you to listen to the warning appeal of Hon. William C. Whitney. It is your opportunity to place your name along with that of coln, high on the roll of honor and fame. You can well afford to set aside for the time being all minor political questions and lead off absolutely in a war against the free silver craze of populists and anarchists.

Major McKinley's Future Plans. CLEVELAND, O., July 27 .- Major Mc Kinley today decided to remain in Cleveland until Wednesday next and will return to his home in Canton on that day. He spent the morning at Windemere, the home of Mr. Hanna, quietly chatting with the members of the household and a few callers. This afternoon if the weather permits he will review from the stand in front of the city hall the great centennial bicycle parade, which is scheduled for 3 o'clock. weather is very threatening, however, and it is possible that the parade may have be postponed on account of rain. Sound Money Democrats Organizing. INDIANAPOLIS, July 27 .- Ex-Congress man Bynum, who is a member of the subcommittee of the sound money democrats that is arranging for a national convention to nominate a sound money ticket, said today that fifteen states have already indicated that they will be represented at the meeting in this city August 7. There are a few of the western states that will not be represented at the meeting of August 7, he says, because the time is short that cannot get their representatives there States are beginning to organize, Mr. Bynur says. FIGHT IN MICHIGAN DEMOCRACY.

Gold and Silver Forces in the State Committee Coming to a Clash. DETROIT, Mich., July 27.-The demo cratic state central committee will meet here tomorrow afternoon and there are indications that the meeting will have about it some features similar to those which distinguished the gatherings of the Michigan democrats in Chicago during the national convention. The silver wing hopes to secure the chairmanship of the committee, which is relinquished by Elliott G. Stevenson, but the sound money men are confident of preventing this. Mr. Stevenson says posiively that Daniel J. Campau shall not suc ceed him, although he does not know who the new chairman will be. Mr. Campau was re-elected Michigan member of the national committee, after Stevenson had been selected by the first caucus of Michi-gan members. It is not at all certain that the Michigan men will be able to control the action of the committee tomorrow, as its members were chosen by the same dem-ocratic state convention which selected the sound money delegation to Chicago, enough of whom were unseated by the silverites to give the white metal men a majority of the delegation. Leading silver men say that if the committee is not controlled by the silver men the next state convention will be asked to appoint a new mittee

"Having answered your questions, please allow me to state briefly my reasons for the replies to questions 3 and 4. I allowed the use of my name to save my party from extinction. In my opinion the continued existence of the people's party is indispensable to the success of free silver. For me to withdraw would be for me to sign the death warrant of my party. Ours is the death warrant of my party. Ours is the party of free silver and we maintained that while the democratic party in 1892 and 1894 was making war upon it. We do not think our party should now close up and quit business simply because the democrats have partially duplicated our sign board. If the democrats are so unreasonable as to refuse us populists of the south any recognition at all, that fact would show that the apparent adoption of our principles is

Our party has gone to the extreme limit of generosity in the effort to procure a union of the silver forces. We did not claim silver forces. We first place on the national ticket. We are content with the second."

Men of my race who sincerely loye America and its institutions and who intelligently hate England, will vote for that soldier and statesman who can trace his lineal descent from King Heremon, son of Milesius, monarch of Ireland, who ruled Ireland long before the coming of St. Patrick. This is abundantly proven by Prof. John J. Rooney, an eminent

Mr. Thurman said he talked n the subject with the Ohio delegation, and they shared his sentiments. It is no won-der that Bryan's supporters here would brag that they will try to carry Ohio. I need say nothing about the silver convention, any more than that leading battle-scarred patriots, Judge Cunningham R. in the front rank, and there can be no doubt but we will soon have cause to be proud of them, if they continue advancing as they have.

Sergeant L. M. Maxim, one of the principal musicians of the band, an accomplished baritone horn player, was, after five years' good and faithful service, discharged, and will proceed east with his wife, where he expects to take charge of a musical organization of some repute. SAMUEL SMITH'S SKELETON.

Found in the Wilds of Wyoming Near Sage Creek.

GREEN RIVER, Wyo., July 27 .- (Special.) -The remains of Samuel Smith of Henry's Fork, who disappeared in July 1888, have just been found about thirty miles from Fort Bridger, near a beaver dam on Sage creek. The remains were identified by the saddle and revolver which were found near the skeleton. There had always been some mystery connected with Smith's disappear-ance. He was, at the time of his disappear ance, in charge of the store of Driscoll Bros. at Burnt Fork postoffice. The store burned the night of July 10, 1888, and Smith, who was sleeping in the store, narrowly escaped with his life. Five days later he went to Green River to consult an attorney as to what he should do with the stock which remained and started for home on July 15. He never reached there, and as an extended search for him was without an extended search for him was without results, it was charged that he had skipped out and taken a portion of the firm's funds. The discovery of his body establishes Smith's innocence of this charge, but does not clear up the mystery of how he came to his death. Enterprise of Nebraska Men.

LONG-DRAWN STRIKE AT CLEVELAND ENDED

Employes Get Every Demand Insisted Upon and All of Them Will Return to Work This Morning.

CLEVELAND, July 27 .- The long-drawnout strike of the employes of the Brown Hoisting and Conveying works, which was inaugurated nine weeks ago and has resulted in a series of bloody riots, is at an end, a satisfactory settlement between the company and its old employes having been reached today. The terms of settlement have not been made public, but it is known that the company concedes all the main points contested for. It agrees to receive grievance committees from employes, grant a half holiday on Saturday and time and a half for all overtime. All of the employes are to be reinstated, regardless of any part they took in the strike. The men will return to work tomorrow morning.

The announcement of the termination of the struggle caused wild scenes of enthuslasm at the hall of the locked out men. Grand Master O'Connell said that it had been the hardest fought and the cleanest allaround victory for labor that had taken place in many years.

Much credit is due to the State Board of
