

JAMESON GOES TO HOLLOWAY

Sentences Pronounced on the Leaders of the Transvald Raid.

TERMS OF FIVE TO FIFTEEN MONTHS

Lord Chief Justice So Instructs the Jury that a Verdict of Guilty is Given After Short Consultation.

LONDON, July 28.—The attendance at the trial of Dr. Jameson and his associates was never so large as today, and the greatest interest was manifested in the proceedings. The opening part of Lord Russell's summing up, however, and his two hours' recapitulation of the evidence was tiresome, and even Dr. Jameson and the other defendants dozed at times.

Lord Russell then directed that their answers were equivalent to a verdict of guilty. The foreman said that they were not unanimously guilty, but his lordship then consulted together for about three minutes and rendered a verdict of guilty.

When the congress reassembled after lunch the members of the American section were present at the meeting.

When the judges returned Sir Edward Clarke said that in view of the verdict rendered, the defendants refused to assuage their trial, and expressed a desire to settle the case now.

In passing sentence Lord Russell said that the verdict was given on evidence which no reasonable man would be able to disregard. The defendants, he added, were men of position and intelligence, holding positions of trust and honor, and their crime had the gravest consequences, including death to some and injury to others, while the future consequences of their crime no one was yet able to foresee.

Continuing, the lord chief justice said that although they all took part in the raid, the court must distinguish between them in the punishment to be imposed.

Major Russell was sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment without labor. Major Sir John Willoughby to ten months. Major White to seven months, and Captain Henley of Coventry, son of the earl of Coventry, Captain R. Gray and Colonel F. White to five months' imprisonment.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

DECIDED TO EXCLUDE ANARCHISTS

Socialist Congress the Scene of Excitement and Disorder.

TERMS OF FIVE TO FIFTEEN MONTHS

Lord Chief Justice So Instructs the Jury that a Verdict of Guilty is Given After Short Consultation.

LONDON, July 28.—The International Socialist and Trades Union congress resumed its session today at St. Martin's town hall, with Herr Singer, the well known German socialist, presiding. The credentials of all the delegates who presented themselves for admission were closely scrutinized at the door and several were rejected and the bearers denied admittance.

Tom Mann and James Kier Hardie, the English labor leader and the premier of Great Britain, respectively, were admitted. Their remarks were widely applauded by the anarchists. Other English labor leaders made speeches before the assembly.

When the congress reassembled after lunch the members of the American section were present at the meeting.

When the judges returned Sir Edward Clarke said that in view of the verdict rendered, the defendants refused to assuage their trial, and expressed a desire to settle the case now.

In passing sentence Lord Russell said that the verdict was given on evidence which no reasonable man would be able to disregard. The defendants, he added, were men of position and intelligence, holding positions of trust and honor, and their crime had the gravest consequences, including death to some and injury to others, while the future consequences of their crime no one was yet able to foresee.

Continuing, the lord chief justice said that although they all took part in the raid, the court must distinguish between them in the punishment to be imposed.

Major Russell was sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment without labor. Major Sir John Willoughby to ten months. Major White to seven months, and Captain Henley of Coventry, son of the earl of Coventry, Captain R. Gray and Colonel F. White to five months' imprisonment.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

PLANS OF THE PARTY LEADERS

Anticipate a Lively Contest During the Coming Four Months.

NEBRASKA THE POLITICAL BATTLEFIELD

Republicans Open Headquarters and Next Thursday Night They Will Hold the First McKinley Rally.

Now that the alignment of the great political parties is nearly completed the day of the campaign managers begins. The general understanding that Nebraska is to be the battleground of the opposing forces in the coming campaign lends particular interest to the plans of the leaders. That some of the best speakers at the command of each national committee were secured for the state during the past four months has been previously announced, but this is only one feature of the campaign.

When the congress reassembled after lunch the members of the American section were present at the meeting.

When the judges returned Sir Edward Clarke said that in view of the verdict rendered, the defendants refused to assuage their trial, and expressed a desire to settle the case now.

In passing sentence Lord Russell said that the verdict was given on evidence which no reasonable man would be able to disregard. The defendants, he added, were men of position and intelligence, holding positions of trust and honor, and their crime had the gravest consequences, including death to some and injury to others, while the future consequences of their crime no one was yet able to foresee.

Continuing, the lord chief justice said that although they all took part in the raid, the court must distinguish between them in the punishment to be imposed.

Major Russell was sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment without labor. Major Sir John Willoughby to ten months. Major White to seven months, and Captain Henley of Coventry, son of the earl of Coventry, Captain R. Gray and Colonel F. White to five months' imprisonment.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

BRVAY WILL NOT BE INTERVIEWED

Talks Freely Upon Every Topic but National Politics.

MARK HANNA IN NEW YORK

Establishes Headquarters for Republican National Committee.

LINCOLN, July 28.—The stream of visitors to the Irving home seems to be on the increase. Two of the delegates from Nevada to the St. Louis convention, Messrs. Nixon and Davis, en route home, stopped off here to consult with Mr. Bryan, doubtless upon his probable course in relation to the populist nomination. Mr. Bryan has received a number of telegrams containing suggestions as to the action of the populist convention, and to all of them he responded, in effect, that he will act with deliberation and that nothing will be done until the matter is justly criticized by all the elements who are sincerely interested in the success of the cause of bimetallism.

When the congress reassembled after lunch the members of the American section were present at the meeting.

When the judges returned Sir Edward Clarke said that in view of the verdict rendered, the defendants refused to assuage their trial, and expressed a desire to settle the case now.

In passing sentence Lord Russell said that the verdict was given on evidence which no reasonable man would be able to disregard. The defendants, he added, were men of position and intelligence, holding positions of trust and honor, and their crime had the gravest consequences, including death to some and injury to others, while the future consequences of their crime no one was yet able to foresee.

Continuing, the lord chief justice said that although they all took part in the raid, the court must distinguish between them in the punishment to be imposed.

Major Russell was sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment without labor. Major Sir John Willoughby to ten months. Major White to seven months, and Captain Henley of Coventry, son of the earl of Coventry, Captain R. Gray and Colonel F. White to five months' imprisonment.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

MARK HANNA IN NEW YORK

Establishes Headquarters for Republican National Committee.

ARRANGES FOR AN EXECUTIVE MEETING

Plans for the Campaign in the Empire State to be Discussed Today—Six Weeks' Start on the Democrats.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Mark A. Hanna, chairman of the republican national committee, arrived from Chicago today. He said he could not give any outline at present as to his movements while here. He did not know whether any members of the national committee had reached the city, nor exactly when the first meeting of the committee would be held. He suggested possibly tomorrow. He expressed his willingness to talk to the reporters after luncheon, but added: "I don't know how much I shall have to tell you."

When the congress reassembled after lunch the members of the American section were present at the meeting.

When the judges returned Sir Edward Clarke said that in view of the verdict rendered, the defendants refused to assuage their trial, and expressed a desire to settle the case now.

In passing sentence Lord Russell said that the verdict was given on evidence which no reasonable man would be able to disregard. The defendants, he added, were men of position and intelligence, holding positions of trust and honor, and their crime had the gravest consequences, including death to some and injury to others, while the future consequences of their crime no one was yet able to foresee.

Continuing, the lord chief justice said that although they all took part in the raid, the court must distinguish between them in the punishment to be imposed.

Major Russell was sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment without labor. Major Sir John Willoughby to ten months. Major White to seven months, and Captain Henley of Coventry, son of the earl of Coventry, Captain R. Gray and Colonel F. White to five months' imprisonment.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

JOSHUA LEVERING'S ACCEPTANCE

Narrow Gauge Prohibits Invites Sonnet to Democrats to Vote for Him in BALTIMORE, Md., July 28.—Joshua Levering of this city was this evening officially notified of his nomination for the presidency of the United States by the prohibitionist party. Prior to the notification the Maryland prohibitionists held the state convention and nominated electors in the various Maryland districts. They also passed the Maryland platform, which was adopted by the party. Prior to the notification the Maryland prohibitionists held the state convention and nominated electors in the various Maryland districts. They also passed the Maryland platform, which was adopted by the party.

MEET DEATH IN THE FLOODS

Boarding House is Carried Away Boldly by a Swollen, Seething Stream.

PITTSBURG, July 28.—Eight persons were drowned in the flood last night. Seven of these met death at Cecil, a mining and oil hamlet in Washington county, the eighth victim going down at Carnegie. The dead are: MRS. SAMUEL MCKINNEY, 50 years old, MARGARET MCKINNEY, 30 years old, daughter. JAMES MCKINNEY, 8 years old, son. CLOYDE BEATTY, 21 years old, oil well pumper of Sistersville, W. Va. G. C. HIGGINS, 45 years old, oil well pumper of Bradford, Pa. VINCENT WILKINSON, 25 years old, oil well employe of Vovinkle, Forest county, Pa. BENNIE HOLMES, 18 years old, daughter of a Cecil coal miner. JOHN WRIGHT, colored, 17 of Carnegie. Samuel McKinney kept a boarding house at Cecil for the accommodation of oil men and miners. The house was situated on the banks of Miller's run, a tributary of Charera creek. Ordinarily, the run, which flows through a valley flanked by high and steep hills, would scarcely float a ship, but last night a cloudburst filled in its closely confined quarters to such an extent that everything in its path was endangered. There were thirteen persons in the house when the water commenced to rise, at 9:30 last night, but no serious danger was apprehended until the men busied themselves packing up their belongings to the second floor and the female portion of the household continued their dressing for the dance which was being held in a neighborhood on the opposite side of the street. There were thirteen persons in the house when the water commenced to rise, at 9:30 last night, but no serious danger was apprehended until the men busied themselves packing up their belongings to the second floor and the female portion of the household continued their dressing for the dance which was being held in a neighborhood on the opposite side of the street.

When the congress reassembled after lunch the members of the American section were present at the meeting.

When the judges returned Sir Edward Clarke said that in view of the verdict rendered, the defendants refused to assuage their trial, and expressed a desire to settle the case now.

In passing sentence Lord Russell said that the verdict was given on evidence which no reasonable man would be able to disregard. The defendants, he added, were men of position and intelligence, holding positions of trust and honor, and their crime had the gravest consequences, including death to some and injury to others, while the future consequences of their crime no one was yet able to foresee.

Continuing, the lord chief justice said that although they all took part in the raid, the court must distinguish between them in the punishment to be imposed.

Major Russell was sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment without labor. Major Sir John Willoughby to ten months. Major White to seven months, and Captain Henley of Coventry, son of the earl of Coventry, Captain R. Gray and Colonel F. White to five months' imprisonment.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

The sentences imposed upon Dr. Jameson and his companions were very generally discussed in the city to-day.

Contrary to the feeling manifested by the fair spectators and the sympathizing friends in the court room, the prisoners were escorted to Holloway prison.

There was absolutely no demonstration in the court room when the prisoners were taken away, not a word of it when they were escorted to the jail.

MEET DEATH IN THE FLOODS

Boarding House is Carried Away Boldly by a Swollen, Seething Stream.

EIGHT PERSONS LOSE THEIR LIVES

Two Brave Men Are Drowned While Working Like Heroes to Save Others—Several Are Rescued—Bodies Recovered.

PITTSBURG, July 28.—Eight persons were drowned in the flood last night. Seven of these met death at Cecil, a mining and oil hamlet in Washington county, the eighth victim going down at Carnegie. The dead are: MRS. SAMUEL MCKINNEY, 50 years old, MARGARET MCKINNEY, 30 years old, daughter. JAMES MCKINNEY, 8 years old, son. CLOYDE BEATTY, 21 years old, oil well pumper of Sistersville, W. Va. G. C. HIGGINS, 45 years old, oil well pumper of Bradford, Pa. VINCENT WILKINSON, 25 years old, oil well employe of Vovinkle, Forest county, Pa. BENNIE HOLMES, 18 years old, daughter of a Cecil coal miner. JOHN WRIGHT, colored, 17 of Carnegie. Samuel McKinney kept a boarding house at Cecil for the accommodation of oil men and miners. The house was situated on the banks of Miller's run, a tributary of Charera creek. Ordinarily, the run, which flows through a valley flanked by high and steep hills, would scarcely float a ship, but last night a cloudburst filled in its closely confined quarters to such an extent that everything in its path was endangered. There were thirteen persons in the house when the water commenced to rise, at 9:30 last night, but no serious danger was apprehended until the men busied themselves packing up their belongings to the second floor and the female portion of the household continued their dressing for the dance which was being held in a neighborhood on the opposite side of the street.

When the congress reassembled after lunch the members of the American section were present at the meeting.

When the judges returned Sir Edward Clarke said that in view of the verdict rendered, the defendants refused to assuage their trial, and expressed a desire to