Local Officials in the Dark Concerning Street Railway Mail Service.

BUSINESS INTERESTS ARE AROUSED

Report of Chief Clerk Vandervoort Shows that Handling Mail by Motor Train is Cheap and Satisfactory.

The question of the transportation of the mails by means of the street cars is one which is receiving the most serious consideration of the postal authorities in this city and the business men, but the business men of South Omaha and the stock yards are manifesting the greatest interest in the matter. The Washington dispatches yesterday morning stated that the Postoffice department had referred the matter to Postmaster Martin and intimated that he had been given some power to settle the difference between the department and the Omaha Street Railway company. Inquiry at the postoffice, however, developed the fact that nothing had been received from Washington relating to the matter and nothing new was known as to the situation.

Chief Clerk Vandervoort of the railway change in the situation since he requested the department to send a special agent to Omaha to investigate the matter, any further than that the postmaster at South Omaha had been directed to report on the cost of wagon service between the two cities in case motor service should be discontinued.

te postmaster and Mr. Vandervoort conferred on this question Monday, with the result that it was found that a service by wagon, giving as many trips per day be-tween Omaha and South Omaha and between both offices and the depots would cost about $4,000 per annum, without anything like as satisfactory service. The street railway company has been receiving less than $500 per annum for the service it has been rendering and has notified the department that it will not perform the service after August 1, the date of the expiration of the present contract, for less than $100 per month. On the basis of the mileage rate paid for transportation of the mails the service performed by the street rallway company is worth about $1,400. According to Mr. Vandervoort, if the department cannot afford to increase the compensation now paid the street railway com pany, and if wagon service is adopted. will mean that the service will be limited to one or two trips per day to South Omaha. This is the feature of the case which has aroused the packing houses and other big establishments at South Omaha. With the present facilities they are on the same footing as regards dispatch of mail business as Omaha business houses, but if the serv ice is limited to two or three trips per day it will mean that the houses there will be obliged to employ messengers of their own. They are considerably wrought up over the situation, and have gone so far as to declare that they would rather dispense with the free delivery service than to be deprived of the street railway mail servic.

The citizens of Omaha would also suffer by the abolition of the street railway serv-ice, as it would be necessary to close the mails at least thirty minutes sooner than is now the case.

Mr. Vandervoort is of the opinion that the difficulty will be solved in some way, and that an agreement will be made by which the present service will be continued but he says he cannot say in just what manner this will be done. Ite says the department is disposed to grant the increase asked by the street railway company, and the only reason why this is not done is on account of a lack of money. What the result of the efforts being made by Congressman Mercer will be, Mr. Vandervoort is unable to say, but he expects to hear something definite within a few days.

State Fair Managers Talk of the Secretary Furnas of the Board of State Fair Managers came to the city Monday night with a big bunch of golden rod. A few the remainder arrived inside the borders of the city yesterday.

The purpose of the meeting is to make the remaining necessary preparations for the approaching state fair. One of the chief matters to be considered will be some enlargement of the buildings, and particularly the cattle and hog sheds. Several thousand dollars will be expended. The work is expected to be commenced next week.

Secretary Furnas is enthusiastic over the prospects. He believes the fair will eclipse that of last year. He made a visit to the that of last year. He made a visit to the State fair grounds yesterday morning in company with Members Vance and Dunham. One of the objects of the trip was to arrange for the enlargement of the secretary's quarters, which were cramped last year. The other purpose was to look over the grounds and buildings.

"There will be no lack of water this year."

said the genial ex-governor. "The new wells and pumps will furnish at least four times as much as we had last year and that will be ample for all purposes. Moreover, if we have such winds as we had last year, it won't be anywhere as disagreeable as it was. The grounds have been sodded and mowed and there will be a minimum of

Mr. Furnas prophesied that the fair would be a tepnotcher in the way of exhibits, espe-cially from the state. He stated that the crops would be better this year than for years past, and the exhibits would be corre-spondingly better. Exhibits are promised in greater variety from outside the state.

While Secretary Furnas is a warm friend of Bryan, he is by no means a Bryan man. Nevertheless, he sees some good in Bryan's nomination from the fact that it promises to bring at least one continues. to bring at least one outside exhibit. Secre-tary Furnas hopes more will follow. Works Explains His Position In the Controversy with the Mayor.

The following communication was sent to Mayor Broach yesterday morning by Chairman Munro of the Board of Public Works. It is in reply to a recent letter from the mayor in which Mr. Munro was severely criticised for alleged unwarranted interference with the street department:

Hon. W. J. Broatch, Mayor-Dear Sir. Your communication of July 23 received and contents noted. While its tenor would not indicate that a reply was desired, at the same time its contents were such that as deem an answer thereto advisable, that yourself and the public may be set aright as to the true state of the matter therein referred

On June 1 this department received a resolution of the mayor and city council. authorizing the repairing of Sherman avenue from Locust to Wirt street, together with others for repairs to different streets in other portions of the city. On the day following, June 2, a meeting of the board was held, all members being present, and the resolutions were given consideration. The record of the proceedings of that ses-G. A. R., Attention.

Members of George A. Custer post are requested to meet at 2105 Miami street at 10 a. m., July 29th, to attend the funeral of our late comrade, Nathan B. Hamilton, interment Forest Lawn. Comrade Hamilton was horn in the state of New York May 31st. different portions of the city requiring his immediate attention; that he would proceed with the work called for in the resolution at the earliest possible moment. I informed him that the gentleman (Mr. Christie) at min that the gentleman (Mr. Christie) at whose solicitation the resolution was passed by the council, was very anxious to have the work performed without delay. He then requested that I take charge of the work and supervise the repairing. I acceded to the request and had the work done. The street commissioner and myself examined the street and concluded, after personal investigation, that the weeden personal investigation, that the wooden blocks were so badly decayed that it would be impossible to repair the street with brick. We decided to have the work done with concrete, which had been taken from Sherman avenue and stored in the vicinity. The street has been put in fair condition for the total sum of $18. Therefore, after an examination of the records of this office, of which the foregoing is a true statement, I can arrive at no other conclusion than that your informant is troubled with a lapse of memory, or has willfully misrep-resented the facts in this case, when stating that he had no knowledge of the resolution

ASKED FOR NO INFORMATION. In reference to the interview with your clerk (Wertz) in this office on or about July had been received at the mayor's office that the repairs had not been made. I stated to him at that time that I could not account for such complaints, as the work had been done several weeks prior. He certainly gave no intimation at that interview that he desired information as to the manner or mode of procedure by which those repairs were made. It would seem that this or any other department of the municipal government would not assume too much these works. would not assume too much authority by requiring that all information from one to the other should be in writing. Under this rule no errors would occur, and it is in ac-cordance with the provisions of section 136. page 99 of the charter. This department most assuredly objects to being subjected to unwarranted criticism without an opportunity even of being heard as to the correct-ness of the matter referred to, as in this in-

In reference to the chairman assuming the the street commissioner deny absolutely that anything of that kind has ever been attempted on my part. Sec tion 104 of the charter expressly provides that the chairman of the board shall have general suprevision of all public works, and also provides in these words; "That the street commissioner and sewer commissioner shall appoint all inspectors and employes in their respective departments, sub-ject to the approval of the Board of Public Works." If the chairman is deserving of criticism it is because of his failure to enforce the latter portion of the provision. I never have during my occupancy of the chair required the enforcement of that which requires the approval board, with all ployes of both departments. I also contend that the board at any time, under the provisions of section 104, may discharge any or all employes in either department. Also it upon the neglect, delay or refusal; or for other reasons, either the sewer or street commissioners shall not perform work when ordered that the chairman would be au-thorized to employ men and to do such work without further delay. In recommending that economy should be the watchword I cannot see in what manner it has reference to this special instance, as the facts will show that the board has not been extravagant, as the resolution in question called for an expenditure of $70 and the board through the chairman has ex pended the sum of $18, and it will probably require about $7 more to complete the repairs, thus securing the same results as if the entire amount had been expended that was appropriated. Regarding the inference that the chair-man in this instance, or in any other during his incumbency, has kept from either of the members of the board any business that should properly come before it is absolutely false in every particular. I have been en-gaged in business in Omaha for thirteen years, and been in political life most of that time, and never yet have been charged with double dealing or hypocritical conduct in either. Very many of the citizens of Omaha will bear out the statement that 1 have always attempted to protect the tax-payer in my public duties and have never swerved from that path, although it might have been to my private interests to have done so and thereby advanced my political preferment at various times.

The bond was given for the purpose of guaranteeing payment for goods and merchandise that the Nebraska Cycling company turned over to Sudenberg. The members of the company assert that they are between $500 and $400 in the hole. They discovered the forgery and at once compelled Sudenberg to give them a bill of sale for the stock he had on hand in Council Bluffs, but the value of this fails several hundred dollars short of his indebtedness to them.

They belong to a committee consisting of W. C. Boyer, W. Runkles, L. W. Raber, Al Small and F Kennedy, This committee will expound e advantages of Omaha and the beautier

The convention is a desirable one. It is attended by some 400 accredited delegates. It is supplemented, however, by a meeting of the ex-delegates' association, which now has a membership of 1,140, and will be still larger in 1898. A majority of the members attend the meetings with their wives and do little else than spend money and take in the sights.

This year's convention is number forty four and is to be held in Colorado Springs The convention convenes on the first Mon day in October and remains in session fo six days.

WAGON ROAD TO FORT CROOK

Advertisements for Grading Thirteenth Street Are Being Prepared.

ROAD CANNOT BE FINISHED BEFORE FALL

South Siders Will Urge Upon the Street Railway Company the Importance of Constructing an Electric Line to the Post.

The county clerk is preparing the advertisement for bids for doing the grading on the Thirteenth street boulevard, in accordance with the resolution passed by the county commissioners. The advertisement will be inserted in the papers at once. The law requires that advertisements of Raber appeared as spokesman menced and it will be well on toward fall for a delegation of printers, representing before the street can be completed. The Commissioners provides that the road shall be graded to the full width and to a 6 per cent grade. This it is said will make a to send a committee of five very desirable driveway and a grade which will be entirely practicable for street cars. The south side citizens who were so in defatigable in getting the work of grading under way have now turned their attention to street car transportation to Fort Crook. A number of the residents of the south side have been discussing the matter and have determined to convince the Omaha Street

Improvement club had to contend with the opposition of the South Omaha people, who wanted the only road to the new post to be through the business portion of their town and along Twenty-fourth street. With the street railway question the same situation exists.

The South Omaha people have already commenced working for a line of street railway to Fort Creok by way of Twenty-fourth street and they feel sanguine of success. The southsiders intend making a descent upon the Omaha Street Railway company, while the people of South Omaha pin their faith to the Metropolitan Street Railway company, a South Omaha institution. In order to extend the South Omaha line to Fort Crook it will be preserved. line to Fort Crook it will be necessary to establish a new road, as the one now used is not practicable for street cars, the grade being entirely too heavy. A committee of South Omaha citizens started out on a tour of investigation a few days ago to see what would be the cost of land for a right-of-way for a new line. They re-ceived a cold dash of water by the demand on the part of owners of land along the proposed route, who asked $500 per acre for all land necessary to be taken. On the other hand the southsiders in Omaha say it will not be necessary to open any new roads, as the Thirteenth street road will be entirely practicable The officials of the Omaha Street Railway company say the matter of a line to Fort Crook has received no consideration at any meetings of the board of directors, although it has been the subject of casual conversa-tion between members of the directory. The question has been regarded as one which could not come up for determination before next year, as the Thirteenth street road will not be completed in time to do any worl required to secure a road for the extension of the South Omaha line. The Omaha Street Rallway company and the South Omaha company work in harmony, and anything that may be done looking toward an extension of the line, via South Twenty-fourth street, will only be done after a careful de termination of the relative benefits to be de rived by these companies.

HE average man knows almost as little about white shirts as the average woman does about "sixteen to one." It isn't his fault. Most shirt dealers place their orders here, there, everywhere, the lowest price getting the largest order and they can't inquire very closely as to what shirts are made of or how long they're going to wear It's different here. A "Nebraska" shirt is as staple as the Fourth of July and you take no chances when you buy a "Nebraska" shirt. For years we have been selling the best white shirts in the market and selling 'em a good deal less than other stores get for the so-called best. Our prices are staple too-35c, 50c, 70c for the unlaundered, 50c, 75c and $1.10 for the laundered styles. The best that your money can buy is in a "Nebraska" white shirt. Best muslin, Best linen, Best workmanship. Best guarantee-got to wear or your money back. There's safety in buying shirts here. We want the shirt trade of people who know a good shirt when they see it. Also of those who don't.
