that Thirtieth street be opened from Q street to the county line. When the matter came up in the council Jetter, who was a member of that body at that time, voted for the proposition. The attorney is, there-fore, of the opinion that the street was dedicated under what is known as common law dedication, and that Jetter has no right at this time to fence in the property. In a similar case the United, States court decided some time ago, that it is essential to a dedication that the legal title pass from the owner, nor is it essential that there be any grant of use or easement. A deed or writing is not necessary for a valid dedication; the dedication may be oral. No specific length of possession is necessary to constitute a valid dedicatiou. All that is required is the assent of the owner for the public use of the land. WESTERN PASSENGER AGENTS IN A FIGHT

City.

CHICAGO, July 29 .- There were no de elopments in the western grain rate war today, but the general opinion is that rates will have to go lower. The reduced rates which the roads have made during the last ten days have brought them no increase in traffic and they are beginning to think that they have not yet bld sufficiently to bring out the grain. A meeting of the general managers of the western lines will be held this week to see if some way cannot be devised by which the rates can be kept up and the business secured at the same time. The western lines had an all around fight this evening over the sales for the meeting of the fire chiefs at Salt Lake City. The rate for this meeting was originally one fare for the round trip and later the Milwaukee & St. Paul declared that it would make a rate of $30, which was reduction of $15 from the one fare rate Since that reduction was announced, nearly all of the lines in the Western Passenge association have been offering extensions on the original limit of the tickets, mak-ing them good for nearly all the month of August, making the tickets good without execution at Salt Lake and taking other liberties with the orginal agreement that practically makes the tickets opened for anybody and any class of business. In the meeting today, the Milwaukee & St. Paul was charged with violating the agreement and being the cause of all the demoraliza tion. This it denied in the most vigorous fashion, and the meeting broke up in a general row, with everybody angry and no scitlement of the matter in sight. It is now predicted that the rate will ultimately be made $15 for the round trip from Chicago to Salt Lake. ENTIRE ROAD IS WASHED AWAY

Queer Case of a Little Girl. The little 9-year-old daughter of E. Davis, of Sixth avenue, was ordered sent to the reform school at Mitchellville by Judge McGee vesterday afternoon.

The child ran away from home on Tuesday evening and went to Omaha. She was sent back on the car and left at the Inman hotel, where her father found her late at night. The girl claimed that she lived in ouncil Bluffs, but insisted that she did where she lived. It seems that the child where she lived. It seems that the child is a kleptomaniac, and about once in two months has a spell, during which she seems unable to tell the truth and refuses to stay at home. She has run away a number of times and always tells some strange story about both her parents being dead and how she had been starved. She attended school at Francis academy for a time and teachers there had great trouble with her on account of her stealing propensities. She had a cache under the sidewalk near the school, and when this was discovered it was found to contain a large number of trinkets stolen from the pupils of the school. When the order of the court to have the girl sent to the reform school was made both the girl and her father broke down and wept bitterly. The father of the child confesses his inability to exercise any control over her

Railroad Man Killed. Thomas Mitchell, jr., a switchman in the employ of the Northwestern, met with an accident in the yards last night that cost him his life. A Northwestern freight was being made up and Mitchell started to couple two cars just at the north end of the bridge over Indian creek north of Broadway. In some manner his foot slipped and he fell under the wheels. The wheels of a flat car passed over his left arm, breaking it above the elbow and crushing it severely. His left shoulder was also badly bruised. His right leg was caught under the wheel and
