KILLED HIM IN THE COURT HOUSE.

Spokane Attorney Shot by an Opponent in a Lawsuit. SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 1 .- T. H. Platter, a well known attorney and democratic politician, was shot and almost instantly killed in the corridor of the court house last night by Henry Seifert, a restaurant proprictor and sporting man. The tragedy resulted from remarks made by Platter in court, which Selfert construed as a reflection on his character. Seifert was being pressed before the court as administrator for the estate of Rudolph Gerkow, a rich brewer.

WAR OF SHEEP AND CATTLEMEN. Dispute Over the Possession of a

Range Costs Five Lives. FOSSIL, Ore., Aug. 1 .- J. M. South, who crived here yesterday from Canyon City, brings news of a desperate battle between sheepmen and cattlemen on Snow mountain. southwest of Canyon City, in Grant county, which took place about a week ago. Mr. South was at Muddy Station when the Mitchell-Antelope stage driver brough word to Mr. Smith, manager of the Princ brought ville Sheep and Land company, that Mr. Kitchen, one of the company's employes, was one of the three sheepmen killed, two cattlemen being also slain. Another of the sheep men killed was Earnest Shearer, a nephew of Joseph Shearer, a well known grower and years young Shearer has been buying and shipping sheep for his uncle, and on the occasion of the battle he, with several others, including Mr. Kitchen, was driving a band of sheep across the country to the railroad, presumably to Huntingotn, for shipment. Many "sheep fights" have been eported this year which had no foundation n fact, but the story of Mr. South is generally believed.

There has been hard feeling for a long time between the cattlemen and sheepmen in Oregon. Numerous disputes have taken place over the possession and use of the ranges, the cattlemen asserting that the sheep drove the cattle from the ranges.

COLUMBUS BUGGY COMPANY CLOSED

Came as a Surprise to the Manager of the Local House. The Omaha branch of the Columbus Buggy company was closed yesterday under a chattel mortgage given by the Columbus Buggy ompany of Columbus, O., to J. H. Halsey & Smith, limited, a harness and leather concern of Newark, N. J. The mortgage covers all of the goods of every description in the Gmaha house and is to secure indebtedness amounting to $59,766.59. Mr. Edwards, the local manager of the company, said the move was a complete surprise to him and he had received no explanation from headquarters as to the meaning and extent of the deal. He had no knowledge, he said, whether any of the numerous other branches of the company were affected or not. The chattel mort-gage was filed by H. H. Baldrige, who repre-sents the Newark house in the matter. Mr. Baldrige said he had received notice several days ago that his clients were pressing the buggy company for security on the notes held by the Newark house in payment of goods sold and delivered to the buggy company, and he rather suspected, he said, that the closing of the Omaha house would be followed by the closing of some or all of

FIRES DURING THE MONTH OF JULY.

Little Loss Sustained by the Insurance Companies. But twenty fires occurred during July and the loss sustained amounted to only $3,439 to buildings and contents. The insurance loss was $3,324 upon a total insurance of $77,826. The total value of the property in jeopardy was $81,150.

The greatest number of fires were caused by incendiarism and by the ignition of gaso-line. Each is credited with four. During the month two arrests were made on the charge of incendiarism, but both cases were dismissed after a trial was had in police court. Two of the fires were of unknown

But the more he tried to get control of himself the greater was his inward trepidation; for the voice grew more and more ghostly, hollow and indeterminate. Sometimes he fancied that it was overhead, or to this side or that, sometimes here or youder, under foot, everywhere. He walked around and looked about, his terror growing apace with the mystery. During several years residence in the far west I had many opportunities for observing the wonderful effects of Chamberiain's Coile, Choiera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Its efficacy was demonstrated in the alkali regions, where the water produces violent purging. It allayed the attack when all ofher remedies failed. I repeatedly saw the greatest distress and diarrhoea cured in a few minutes.
