

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily (Without Sunday) One Year, $3.00...

ADVERTISING RATES: One square 100 lines, first insertion, 10 cents per line per week...

COMMUNICATIONS: All communications relating to news and editorial matters should be addressed to the publisher...

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION: Showing the number of copies printed, sold, and remaining on hand for the week ending July 28, 1896.

Net daily average circulation: 22,000 copies.

Printed and published by E. Rosewater, at the Omaha Daily Bee Press, No. 117 North 16th Street, Omaha, Neb.

McKINLEY'S ACCEPTANCE.

Major McKinley's letter of acceptance should receive the thoughtful consideration of every American citizen. It is worthy of this as an earnest, patriotic and statesmanlike exposition of the issues before the country.

It is gratifying that in the present strained condition of business Omaha is holding its own as well as any other city in the United States.

General Gordon says he is out of politics and intends to retire to private life at the expiration of his term as United States senator from Georgia.

There is no reason why every officer and employe at the county hospital should be dismissed indiscriminately.

It will be interesting to compare the roster of the Indianapolis convention with the roster of the Chicago convention for well known and representative men.

THE POPULIST PLAN.

Reading may make a full man, as Bacon says, but it does not give him books without thought makes him no fuller than a goat.

It is not strange that many persons find it hard to borrow money payable after November 7, when a candidate for the presidency is elected.

The man who had the sound money democracy of the United States in mind next week is Colonel Watterston.

Mr. Bryan has been weighed and found wanting by New York. He falls far below the standard of a sound money man.

Where the laborer comes in? The wage-slaves of Colorado take a very practical view of the free silver coinage issue.

THE MEN FOR THE EMERGENCY.

The Herald does not hesitate to declare that the man to lead the sound money democracy of the United States is Daniel C. Rorer.

Here are two authorities speaking with the force of the truth, and the newspaper press represents and voices public opinion.

Which of the metals represent the better civilization? The standard of values in different nations is as follows:

Table showing the standard of values in different nations: Gold Standard, Silver Standard, Bimetallic Standard, etc.

Next to forgery between quotation marks is detachment of part of what a man said in the presentation of the fragments so as to give an impression opposite to that given by the whole.

CANDID FREE SILVERITES.

Coming Out Flatfooted for a Depraved Dollar. Louisville, Ky., August 27. A short time ago the Courier-Journal published the gist of the ablest defense of the free silver policy which this paper has received from any of its contributors.

It is stated on the best of authority that Secretary Morton has positively and finally refused to permit his name to be presented to the Indianapolis convention as an aspirant for nomination.

Mr. Bryan declares that the newspapers are not only disloyal to their convictions, but that they misrepresent public opinion.

Deliberately Misquoting the Language of the President. Chicago Times Herald. Next to forgery between quotation marks is detachment of part of what a man said.

Deliberately Misquoting the Language of the President. Chicago Times Herald. Next to forgery between quotation marks is detachment of part of what a man said.

BRYAN REVISING THE BIBLE.

Philadelphia Press: If Mr. Bryan will only look up Demetrius, to whom he alluded in his speech, he will find that he was a silversmith, an original silver man.

Mr. Bryan is not only disloyal to their convictions, but that they misrepresent public opinion.

Deliberately Misquoting the Language of the President. Chicago Times Herald. Next to forgery between quotation marks is detachment of part of what a man said.

Deliberately Misquoting the Language of the President. Chicago Times Herald. Next to forgery between quotation marks is detachment of part of what a man said.

Deliberately Misquoting the Language of the President. Chicago Times Herald. Next to forgery between quotation marks is detachment of part of what a man said.

MEXICO'S SILVER PRICES.

Her Finance Minister Tells of a Few Odd Facts. Jose Y. Linares, the Mexican minister of finance, who spent his vacation at the eastern seaside resorts, was in New York last Monday, bound homeward.

Deliberately Misquoting the Language of the President. Chicago Times Herald. Next to forgery between quotation marks is detachment of part of what a man said.

Deliberately Misquoting the Language of the President. Chicago Times Herald. Next to forgery between quotation marks is detachment of part of what a man said.

Deliberately Misquoting the Language of the President. Chicago Times Herald. Next to forgery between quotation marks is detachment of part of what a man said.

Deliberately Misquoting the Language of the President. Chicago Times Herald. Next to forgery between quotation marks is detachment of part of what a man said.