VIEWS OF MEN WHO ARE IN THE BUSINESS

Patronage of Home Institutions is One of the Subjects Brought Up and Discussed at Length.

Close to an even hundred millers of Nebraska met yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Commercial club for the purpose of discussing matters of interest pertaining to their business. As there are 256 flouring mills in the state, the attendance was a little disappointing to some, but considering the times and counter atttractions, it was all that could have been expected. It was at least the largest assembly of millers ever held in the state. Among those pre-

Terwilliger, Florence. TALKED OF THE TOLL.

M. C. Peters, manager of the Bemis Omaha Bag company, to whom is due the credit of bringing the convention to Omaha, called the meeting to order. Lewis Hellmer of Val-paraiso was elected chairman and Albert Johnson of Crete secretary. The officers had no sooner taken their seats than the grind ommenced and before the meeting closed a profitable grist was turned out. Ever since the first mill was built it has been the custom of the farmers to take their grain to mill and have it ground into meal flour and bran, the miller deducting a certain amount of toll for his labor. Under the old Buhr system in times past the farmers would sit about and gossip until each man's grain was ground and his grist ready. With the coming in of the roller mill and the hurry-up methods of the present day the custom of making a direct exchange of flour for wheat has come into vogue. Naturally snough it has come about that different mills give different quantities of flour for a bushel of wheat and the first subject brought up for the consideration of the meeting was the question of adopting a uniform system. On the statement that A. Edgecomb of Blair would present a paper on that subject later on it was decided to leave the matter to a committee to report at this morning's session. The chair appointed the following members of that committee: J. H. Graff, Tecumseh; S. S. Hadley, Cedar Rapids; N. B. Kendall, Lincoln; C. Putnam, Gibben; C. L. Mellenz, Ithaca; E. G. Collins, Juniata; D. V. Stephenson, Falls City; C. F. Iddings. North Platte, and L. L. Leedom, Fremont. A motion prevailed, declaring it to be the ense of the meeting that Nebraska mills sell their product for cash. During the discussion of the motion Mr. Hedge of Hastings said that the wholessie grocers of Omaha and Lincoln brought strong pressure to bear upon the retail merchants of the state to buy Minnesota flour instead of handling the product of Nebraska mills.

"I have tried," said the speaker, "to sel flour to the jobbers, but the universal answer is, 'No; we sell Minnesota flour. Now, our Nebraska mills make just as goo flour as is turned out in Minnesots and if we could get one wholesale grocer to sell only Nebraska flour I believe that house rould double its business through the in fluence of the millers." USE OF NEBRASKA FLOUR URGED O. C. Holmes, accretary of the Manu-'acturers' and Consumers' association, was isked why the jobbing grocers of Neb to not handle Nebraska instead of Minne ota flour and replied that some wholesals grocers do handle Nebraska flour, though he as well as other goods made in the state, and the usual answer had been, "Create a demand for it and we will handle it."

J. C. Hedge, Hastings; O. C. Holmes, Omaha; H. B. Smith, Holmesville; F. S. Johnson, Milford, and F. Hagemeister. Farmvale, were appointed a committee to wait upon the grocery jobbers and, if possible, induce them to give the preference to The committee on permanent organization was D. H. Harris, Unadilia; A. Edgecomb, Blair; J. H. Snell, Ashland; A. M. Van Dell, Loomis, and F. J. Chaloupka, Wilber. Hardly had the chairman announced the adjournment before the music of a string band and the cheerful sound of rattling dishes were heard in the adjoining banquet rooms. "Don't leave the hall, as the banquet will soon be ready" was the parting injunc-tion as the meeting broke up. At 5:30 o'clock the doors were thrown open and 175 gentiemen were seated at the banquet given to the millers of Nebraska by the Bemis Omaha Bag company. In addition to the millers there were present members of the executive committee of the Verdon Milling company, Yerdon; A. A. Kruse, Douglas County mills, Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, Mayor Broatch, Hon.

people, and idea was brought out forcibly in the menu, each course being prefaced by the Prosecution of Jule Schoenheit for Alleged word Nebraska, even to Nebraska olives. William H. Alexander, in his happiest nood acted as toastmaster, adding much to the pleasure of the occasion. Charles F. Weller, as president of the Commercial club, delivered the address of welcome, to which S. S. Hadley of Cedar Rapids responded in behalf of the millers. Then followed the toasts: "The Boundaries of Our County," by Hon. W. J. Connell; "Seed Time in Ne-braska," by Hon. Robert W. Furnas; "Ne-braska's Harvest," by Hon. E. M. Bartlett; "The Millers of Nebraska," by Governor Silas A. Holcomb, and "The Ladies," by Rev John W. Geiger of Cedar Rapids, Ia. Hon J. Sterling Morton was called for and responded in a brief speech. The speaking was all good, but space forbids a repetition of the many bright and witty, as well as in-structive remarks. J. E. Butler and Prof. Homer Moore favored the banqueters with ocal selections that met with appreciative applause.

At the conclusion of the banquet a delegation of over 100, headed by M. C. started for Castle Ak-Sar-Ben to participate n the initiation festivities held knights. A number of special motors waited at Sixteenth and Doige streets and carried the guests to their destination. Upon arriving at the castle they were taken in charge by a committee of the knights, consisting of Major Clarkson, Clement Chase, Walter Jardine and others and ushered into the mysteries of the mystic order. After witnessing the ordeals of the intrepid applicants for Ak-Sar-Ben honors a number of the guests passed through the tortures, by way of an experience, and became honorary mem-bers of the organization. Late in the evening the visiting delegation was tendered a lunch, which always constitutes a portion of the hospitality of the knig.sts, and then eturned to the city on a special motor

While Mr. Peters was engaged in showing the sights of the city to the masculine contingent of the millers' convention. Mrs Peters took charge of their wives and daughters and tendered them a trolley party. The party left the Commercial club rooms shortly after 7 o'clock and boarded two gaily decorated motors sidetracked at Sixteenth and Howard streets. After traversing the main car lines of the city the party visited the residence of Mrs. Peters, South Thirty-second street, where refresh ments were served.

Disturbance of a Meeting.

PROSECUTION WAS AVERSE TO PROCEEDING

Admits that the Complaint Was Prac tically Groundless and Asks the Court to Drop the Matter.

LINCOLN, Aug. 31 .- (Special.)-A room

full of curious citizens gathered this morning in the police court to witness the examination of Jule Schoenheit, stenographer in the office of Governor Holcomb. Schoenheit was charged with having disturbed the republican meeting Friday night, which was addressed by General John C. Cowin and Hon. A. E. Cady of the Sixth congressional district. There were plenty of attorneys present. The defense asked for a jury trial. The city attorney showed conclusively that as the complaint was under the ordinances a trial by jury could not be asked and Judge Waters overruled the motion. All the witnesses, about a dozen, were then excluded from the room. Before the trial had fairly gotten under way it occurred to some of the prosecutors that perhaps the farce had pro-ceeded far enough and accordingly Mr. Schoenheit was sounded as to his views on the matter. It was discovered that the defendant was willing to meet the prosecution half way and he did so in a speech to the court, in which he said he was willing to state to the court that he did not intend to disturb the meeting, that if he had done so he was sorry, and that he had every re-spect for the court and the orators of Friday night's rally. City Attorney Abbott said that he was perfectly willing to drop the case under the circumstances. Personally, he said, he had no political reason for wishing to conduct the case and care whether the defense had termed the ara result of politics or not. rate, he had no desire to prosecute the case without sufficient grounds. Then the court said he was glad the affair had reached a peaceable termination, find that he had no desire to try a case of this nature any way, but that if forced to do so it would be fairly tried, outside of politics, and strict justice administered. Personally, he did not believe the defendant was an habitual dis-turber of political meetings, but might have been led into an indiscretion in the excitement of the moment. He believed he was too much of a gentleman to intentionally disturb any gathering. He said the case would stand dismissed without costs to any

HOLDING BACK RANGE STOCK

Missouri River Ranchmen Insisting on Better Prices.

MANY FAT CATTLE BEING CARRIED OVER

Splendid Hay Crop of the Dakotas Said to Be Particularly Favorable to This Condition of Affairs.

PIERRE, S. D., Aug. 31 .- (Special.)-The Sioux Steck Journal, which is the official organ of the Missouri River Stockmen's association, makes the following statement in regard to the shipment of cattle from the ange at the present time: "It is now a settled fact that our beef producers will not ship a hoof to market this season until prices show some advancement. There are, of course, a few who must ship, but the perentage is indeed small. A large number of stockmen from various parts of the range country have been in town during the past week and the Journal has taken pains to interview all on the matter and received the same reply from each. They have resolved to hold everything over until next year if prices remain where they are now. Not only is this the situation here, but throughout the range country.

"We had anticipated a large output of range beef this season, but it looks now as though it would be the smallest in years. There is a slight upward tendency just now and we do not think the present prices will be broken if the marketing throughout the country is done judiciously. Occasional jams may occur and paralyze the market temporarily, but if cattlemen have their business well in hand they will be able to prevent these breaks, which are almost unavoidable, from becoming permanent. The market is fully $1 per hundred lower than it was one year ago and cattle owners are in no condition to stand a further decline. There is little hope for prices to improve, but there is danger of a further decline. It is true the present figures have prevailed for he past six months and since the pressure circumstances; lewitt's Little Early Risers will speedily cure them all.
