Arrests an American Merchant as He is Leaving Havana. TAKEN FROM THE SHIP IN THE HARBOR

Protests Fail to Interrupt the Proceedings and Persuasion of the Captain Alone Prevents Opposition of a Violent Nature.

HAVANA, Sept. 6 .- Samuel T. Tolon, the prominent merchant of Gardenas and a naturalized American citizen, who was arrested on Thursday as the Ward line steamer Seneca was on the point of sailing, was arrested after he had actually gone on board the Seneca, and not as he was going on board. It is stated that his ticket was issued at the last moment and outside the regulation hours for issuing tickets and a special passenger list was made up for him. Mr. Toton, when prrested, was unwilling to go on shore and a protest against his arrest was reported in his behalf. The captain and consignce of the Senaca persuaded him to make no viotent opposition.

The steamer Colon has arrived here having on board forty-nine officers and 1,900 soldiers. They were landed at the wharves at Regla and did not pass through the city. The great park in the city was decorated and illu-minated at night and a committee sent on board the Colon distributed eigars and tobacco among the newly arrived troops. The insurgents having burned the tobacco plantation of Santa Isabel in Matanzas, the prietor, Juan Nenninger, places his loss $225,000. The insurgent leaders, Bienvenicio Sarchez and Acea have had a conflict on the coast near Guira Melena in Hawana province. It is not known whether this collision was due to error or to the rivalry between the two leaders.

Captain General Weyler has prohibited the sale of the book "Chronicles of the War in Cuba," the author of which is Rafael Cuerrero and which was published in Spain. The volumes sent to Cuba have been seized. Gonzales Llanuza, a court magistrate, has been arrested as a political prisoner and is held in communicado. A lawyer named Alberto Zayas, a brother of the general of that name, has been ar-rested and is held in communicado. PLOT OF CUBAN INSURGENTS.

MADRID, Sept. 6 .- Official dispatches have been received from Manilla stating that a plot has been discovered for the surrender to the insurgents of the for ified town of Gavita, in the island of Luzon, in the Phil-ippine Islands, while the garrison was engaged in a sortle. Spanish troops have relieved the garrison of San Indro, in the province of Nueva Ecija, which was besleged by the insurgents.

"The conductor and brakeman came out onto the platform of one of the cars to see why the train stopped. The masked robber shot at them twice with his revolver and with a string of oaths ordered them back into the train. At the sound of the shooting, the robber with me in the engine stepped to the side between the cab and the tender and locked back. He turned his back to me. That was my opportunity and I lost not a second in taking advantage of it. I reached into my locker, got my revolver and shot him in the back. I shot again and he pitched forward from the engine to the earth and rolled down the bank.

"As he fell, his revolver went off. Then I pulled the throttle wide open. I had busi-ness in Sacramento right away, and I got Jefferson street, this city, disappeared at 6 there. The fireman was back on the train. I fired all the way in myself, and kept poking coal into her all the way. We got

Two thousand people viewed the remains of the dead train robber today, but no one identified him. No trace of the other two robbers has yet been found.

Wife of the Dead Bandit Talks of He Husband. GUTHRIE, Okl., Sept. 6 .- Mrs. Doolin, wife of the noted outlaw who was killed last week, was in the city yesterday to get a few personal effects of her husband, including his gun, saddle and a fine diamond ring found on his finger. Mrs. Doolin is woman about 25 years old, rather pleasant looking, above the average intelligence and talks freely of her husband and his career, claiming that he is innocent of three-fourths of the things charged against him. She is left with a pretty little girl about 212 years old and claims to have very little money and no property left her. In a conversation with a reporter Mrs. Doolin declared her husband had been its sane for several years. In this connection It is not generally known that after Doo-lin's body was brought here a surgical operation was performed on his head, removing a bullet which had been imbedded against the brain for several years. He received this builtet at the Southwest City, Mo., raid, when the citizens made such a hard fight and several were killed. Doolin was shot early in the fight and the wound seemed to madden him so that when his companons started to retreat with the booty he still stood loading and firing, refusing to go, and it was necessary to drag him along by force. The bullet in the head could not be found by the country doctor whom they compelled to attend the wounded man and Doolin suffered much from the wound. The bullet seemed at times to has press upon the brain and affect Doolin as t did when it first struck him. Later the Cimarron robbery he stood up to his knees in a ditch of water, raving and shoot-ing wildly about him and refused to leave with the gang until dragged away, declaring that he could whip the whole United States army. When the revolt took place in the United States jail here the excitement again brought on one of these spells and he be-came raving mad, driving everything before him, and it was only by the interference of the other escaping prisoners, who did not want to have a crowd attracted by the shooting, that he was kept from killing the captured guards. It is also said that for several days previous to his death he was going about raving and hunting officers to get up a fight with, declaring he could lick the whole force of deputy marshals at once. His wife says that when she came to start with him "he was acting very strangely. He had a wild look in his eyes cemed to be casting around him for somebody or something all the time."

FIRE BURNED RAPIDLY.

Soon after the discovery of the fire, th flames broke through the roof and illumine the sky and streets with a lurid giare that served to make vivid the general scene of confusion and excitement. It soon became a fiery furnace. The failing walls proved to be not only a deathtrap for the fire fighters but dangerous to everyone who was trying to help stay the progress of the flames or as sist in saving goods. The first to go down was the top part of the alley wall, which hurled in its crushing descent with tons o debris afteen men. This terrible sight was witnessed by hundreds of horror stricker spectators, who stood helplessly looking at the heartrending scene and many of whom rushed in, regardless of fire and smoke, to help the shricking and struggling men. Just before the wall fell, the firemen were trying to raise the ladders and had them places against the building when the wall to abled weeping everything before it. One could see portions of human hodies through the fallen bricks. Parties going in to save the im-prisoned men were overcome by the best.
